Extract from Letter of Rev. Dr. Archibald Alexander.

MAY 21, 1851.

IN my opinion, and judging from my own experience, annuities secured for a family are of important service to relieve the mind of a father of a helpless family from corroding anxiety on their account. It has been for many years a comfort to me, that my family will have the benefit of annuities at my decease; and though on account of my protracted life, the fund will be a great gainer by me, yet I do not regret that, as the gain belongs to a benevolent institution.

THE
AND

EDITED BY THE
REV. CHARLES HODGE, D. D.

THE BIBLICAL REPERTORY AND PRINCETON REVIEW is published quarterly, in January, April, July, and October, at THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

1. Subscribers for one copy, who remit THREE DOLLARS in advance, to the office of publication, will be entitled to payment of postage on all numbers issued after the receipt of the money.

2. Subscribers who remit FIVE DOLLARS in advance, to the office of publication, will be entitled to one copy for two years, postage paid.

3. Six or more persons uniting in a club, and remitting in one sum to the office of publication at the rate of TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS each, will be entitled to the payment of postage on the numbers issued after the receipt of the money. Payment at club-rate will not be received from a less number than six subscribers in one association. If payment is delayed by the members of a club until after the expiration of the year, the full price of THREE DOLLARS will invariably be charged.

4. Theological Students, Missionaries, Young Men's Christian Associations, &c., are furnished with the Review, at TWO DOLLARS per year; or $2.25 by mail, postage paid.

5. All arrearages are charged at THREE DOLLARS per year.

The above are the only terms upon which the Review is furnished to subscribers in the United States or British Possessions.

Bills of all solvent banks in the United States or British Provinces received in payment, and may be sent in registered letters at the risk of the publisher; but those who act as agents, or remit in large amounts, are requested to procure a check or draft. Subscribers in Canada may send their orders and money to the Rev. A. KENNEDY, London, Canada West; and those in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island, to the Rev. WM. ELDER, St. Stephen, New Brunswick.

THE CHURCH OF GOD

AS AN ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF THE GOSPEL.

CONCERNING THE IDEA, STRUCTURE, AND FUNCTIONS OF THE GOSPEL CHURCH.

BY REV. J. J. ROBINSON,

LATE PROFESSOR IN THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AT DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

with an Appendix, containing the more Important Symbols of Presbyterian Government, Historically arranged and illustrated, to wit:

A SHORT SOMME OF THE FIRST BUIK OF DISCIPLINE.

THE SECOND BUIK OF DISCIPLINE, OR HEADS AND CONCLUSION OF THE POLICIE OF THE KIRK.
ROBERT BAILLIE'S LETTER, 1643.

EXTRACTS FROM GILLESPIE'S NOTES OF PROCEDURE IN THE WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY.

THE VOTES PASSED IN WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY CONCERNING DISCIPLINE AND GOVERNMENT AND THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT AGREED UPON BY THE WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY.

Rev. Patrick Fairbairn of Glasgow, Scotland, under date of August 31st, 1858, in a private letter, says:—Rev. Dr. Robinson's work I have read with pleasure and profit. He takes the right plan of trying to elevate the idea and bring the external organization into vital connection with the divine truth and principles on which all is based. Were this but more done, we should have more life among ourselves, and probably, also fewer controversies on subordinate points with others.

Rev. Charles Hodge, D. D., in the Princeton Review, says:—This work of Rev. Dr. Robinson is too elaborate, and contains too many important principles, to be cursorily noticed. It is obviously the production of a strong and through-going man, and will, we trust, secure increased attention to the important subject of which it treats.

Rev. B. J. Wallace, in the Presbyterian Quarterly Review, says:—Dr. R. is a jure divino Presbyterian, and some of his views are rather high-church for what he seems to consider a dilettante age. It will do any man good, however, to look at this manly and comprehensive way of considering a subject, following it out to all its consequences, not shrinking from the totality of a great idea. Dr. R. considers Presbyterianism as a grand whole, and as the only perfect method of a church.

Rev. C. Van Rensselaer, in the Presbyterian Magazine, says:—It is characterized by an earnestness and vigour of thought and style, which keep alive the attention and interest of the reader, and it possesses at the same time, an argumentative and logical structure adapted to instruct and convince the understanding, and will be very beneficial to all our members, especially to ministers, ruling elders, and candidates for the ministry.

Rev. John Leyburn, D. D., in the Presbyterian, says:—The general scope and central idea of the work may be gathered from the title. The author takes high ground, and maintains his positions with characteristic vigour. The value of the volume is greatly enhanced by the Appendix, which contains important documents, which have not been readily accessible.

Rev. A. F. Kemp, in the Canadian Presbyterian, says:—It is refreshing to find that some one is disposed in this age of general church disorder, to hold up to view, and boldly to maintain the jus divinum of our Presbyterian polity. We hail this book as a valuable contribution to the literature of the Church.

The work is a neat 12mo. volume, 226 pages, cloth, sixty cents.

SWISS ANTI-RHEUMATIC BAND,

THE ONLY KNOWN INFALLIBLE REMEDY FOR CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

It entirely removes this distressing disease from the system, without producing the injurious effects arising from the use of the various internal remedies which destroy the constitution, and do not remove the disease. It is a medicated band, worn about the chest, without inconvenience or injury to the most delicate person, and effects a certain cure, in extreme cases, in from one to three weeks, and more moderate cases, in from one to five days, reaching the disease through the pores of the skin. We have, and are constantly receiving, numerous testimonials of their efficacy in aggravated cases of long standing. Sufferers from Rheumatism are invited to test the merits of this new discovery. Price $2.00. By Mail or Express, with directions for use, or applied at the Office.

L. ABBOTT, 335 Broadway, New York.

293 Broadway, New York, May 31st, 1859.

L. ABBOTT, ESQ.

Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to say that the use of your Band for the cure of Rheumatism, recommended by a friend, has had its desired effect. After some five years of almost constant pain and suffering from Rheumatism in my shoulders and limbs, a three weeks' trial of the Band, I am happy to say, has entirely removed the disease.

Respectfully yours,

J. W. PORTER.

PASTOR OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA,

THIS VOLUME

BY

THE AUTHOR.

INTRODUCTION.

IN the preparation of the Presbyterian Historical Almanac and Annual Remembrancer of the Church for 1859-1860, I have been governed by an earnest desire to place in the hands of its friends a practical and useful work. To give directness to my labours, I have kept this idea prominently before my mind, "What has the Church a right to expect in such a volume?"

In common with other members of the Presbyterian Church, I feel, that to be fully conversant with her onward progress, I must know how each branch of the family have carried on the various institutions of religion; how they have fulfilled their duties to God and man, and what success has crowned their efforts.

The experience and observation of the past year has prompted me, whilst preserving the plan of the Almanac, to enlarge its basis, so that I might include various Statistics, Historical Sketches, and Tables, which, though not coming within the range of the year, possess a definite value, by enabling the reader to be fully advised concerning the past history of the subjects to which they refer.

Statistics should be reliable, suggestive, and instructive; with these three elements of value, they form the most direct and conclusive means of imparting information.

In order to secure the first element, reliability, I have taken the reports of the different Presbyterian bodies as they were presented at their last Annual meetings, and bringing them all under one general plan, have so divided each department that the pith of the matter is brought to light; where these revelations manifest inertness, or any deficiency in one branch of the family, a remedy may be suggested, by comparing the success which has rewarded the prayers and efforts of some other branch of the Church in the same department of usefulness; the mind of the reader is thus edified, and his future opinions become more intelligent and valuable. We would, therefore, ask for a careful observation of the different columns in which the Presbyterial reports are divided: take as an instance the first Presbytery on the list, (see page 80,) which reports 42 ministers, this is well enough as far as it goes; but on a closer examination it will be found that 21 are pastors, being one-half of the whole number; 7 are stated supplies, 6 are teachers, editors, agents, &c., and 8 are without charge. The churches are 33, but only 21 have pastors, 9 stated supplies, and 3 are vacant. The number of additions to the communion during the year were 549, reported by 28 churches, leaving 5 churches without reporting any. The number of infant baptisms is 162, reported by 26 churches, leaving 7 without any report. In a similar manner the financial branch of the report can be examined; by this arrangement it can be seen what has been done, as well as deficiencies noted, and in consequence the reader comes to a direct and well-founded conclusion. And when these tables are compared with similar tables in the Almanac for 1858-1859, their value is increased. These remarks apply to the analysis given of the operations of the Boards and Committees.

Some branches of the Church, especially those in the mother country, report less than others, consequently the results are modified by the amount of information contained in the original sources.

I have introduced the historical sketch of the Board of Foreign Missions, as a sample of what I propose doing for other departments of power and influence which the Church has created. I would also call attention to the historical sketch of the University of Queen's College, Kingston, Canada; the statistical history of the Presbyterian Church in the United States from 1828-1859; and the historical sketch of the Church of Scotland, for which I am indebted to my friend, Rev. Dr. Cook of St. Andrews, Scotland. As these are somewhat out of the exact line of a work like this, I deem the following reference necessary. The difficulty of obtaining the requisite documents to prepare these sketches confirms me in favour of their appearance, and the demand of this age is to be fully acquainted with all matters concerning any organization with which we are identified, or have them arranged in some convenient and accessible form where all the operations of previous years are revealed, and whence new efforts can be made.

The histories of those churches where the annual sessions were held are replete with matters of interest and value; and the views of the buildings increases the attention of the reader. The portraits of those honoured with the Moderatorship are introduced, being drawn from original photographs taken expressly for the work. The biographies of those who have died give a fair transcript of their ministerial career, and though from the nature of the case these sketches are condensed, I have never sacrificed any fact for the sake of brevity.

The statistics of other religious organizations, the list of authors for the year, &c., appear in their proper places.

With this conception of the plan, all that remained for me, was to collect the material, arrange the details, and bring forth the work; this I have done.

If then, as we all believe, that the Presbyterian element in the world is potential, it is but right and proper that we should know where lies its peculiar strength, and what portions of the earth are blessed with its influences.

It presents to the mind a noble army, led on by over ten thousand ministers of the gospel, with more than thirty thousand elders, and its swelling ranks rising in numbers above a million souls. Stepping forth from that grand army, I present to the Church this Exposition of her Annual Labours, so that before each member, whether in the quiet retirement of the library, or within the hallowed precincts of domestic life, each division of the Presbyterian family passes in review, revealing what has been done in their highest judicatories, what elements of greatness have been manifested by its Boards and Committees in giving vitality and energy to the important trusts committed to their care. Following closely come up the Presbyterial reports, showing how in their extended and wide spread influence they have fulfilled their duties to the Master. And then appears that mournful procession of those who have died, but as the evidence of each good man's life appears, hope smiles serenely upon the record.

I send forth this volume with a trusting but an anxious heart, promising to carefully consider the criticisms it may call forth, and endeavour by thoughtful observation to increase its value from year to year. And I ask for that consideration from the reader which would be desired were the cases reversed, as well as for that sympathy and co-operation upon which the ultimate success of the enterprize must depend.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, (O. S.)

THE SEVENTY-FIRST SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, (O. S.) OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, met according to appointment, in the Third Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis, Indiana, on Thursday, May 19, 1859. W. A. Scott, D.D., of San Francisco, California, the Moderator of the last General Assembly, being absent, John Leyburn, D.D., Stated Clerk, announced the fact, and called attention to the action of a former Assembly (1843), and read from the Digest the precedent then established in a similar case, viz., the appointment, by the assembled Commissioners, of a minister to preach the opening sermon and preside till a Moderator be chosen. Whereupon, A. T. McGill, D.D., moved that the Rev. Dr. RICE, of Chicago, be appointed to preach the sermon, and preside until a Moderator be chosen. The motion being put by the Stated Clerk, was unanimously adopted, and the following is a brief outline of the Discourse by Nathan W. Rice, D. D.

2 Cor. v. 7. For we walk by faith, not by sight.

The term walk is, in this epistle and elsewhere in the New Testament, used to express the idea of the conversation and conduct of men. To walk as children of light was equivalent to maintain the conversation and deportment of Christians—to walk according to this world, is to act in conformity with its maxims and example—to walk by faith, is to live and act under the influence of Christian principles and motives really believed. Now it is declared of Christians that they “walk by faith.”

1st. What is faith?

2d. Faith as the controlling principle of the Christian life.

1. Faith, in its most general sense is reliance upon testimony. It is the most extensive channel of our knowledge. There are three sources from which we derive our knowledge. Consciousness, our senses, and faith in the testimony of others. The evidence of the first two we cannot call into question—that of the third it is unnatural to doubt. Faith, in a religious sense, is simply belief in the testimony of God. It may relate to the past—as it is “by faith we know that the worlds are made.” It may relate to the present, or to the future: and the thing that is the object of faith, is simply what God has borne testimony to. We are not bound to believe that to which he has not testified, or of which he has given us no proof.

Now, what is the exercise of faith? What does the mind do in believing? There are three elements of a true exercise of faith. 1st.

1st. Intellectual conviction of the truth. 2d. Heart-appropriation of and delight in it. 3d. Trust—personal reliance upon God.

1st. The first element of faith is to perceive the thing to be true. How can the mind decide whether or not a statement is true? By weighing the evidence on one side and the other, and so come to a conclusion. The first thing is to believe that God hath spoken. Is the Bible his word? "All Scripture is given by inspiration." This is to be believed; and intellectual investigation of the proof is requisite. This settled, our next and only inquiry ought to be, what is the Bible? What does God the Lord say? And in this search we need and should seek Divine aid in every step. He who makes a creed should pray all the time he is making it. When we have a creed, and are convinced of its truth, we have intellectual belief. Can it save the soul? No! there is nothing either right or wrong in intellectual belief. An intellectual creed governs nobody. All men are controlled at last by the state of the heart, and through the affections and passions. God makes his first appeal to the intellect, and through it to the heart. Until you reach the heart of a man you cannot control him for good; if the devil has his heart, no matter who has his head. The heart governs—hence God appeals to the heart. A mere intellectual creed makes nobody better—makes nobody happier. All the happiness of human nature is found in gratified affection; or in the hope of gratified affection. Hope adds to present blessedness by going forward to the land of promise, and bringing back the luscious clusters of the grapes of Eschol.

2d. What is the second element of true faith? Heart approval of what God teaches us. Delight in God, and in what he makes known to us. We are here led to get at how the man feels. "What think ye of Christ?" "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" Acquiescence of the heart in the revelation which God has made of himself and of his purposes, plans, working, and precepts, is the element of faith which imparts life and vigour to it. This is the meaning of "faith worketh by love." "If ye love me, keep my commandments." "Oh! how I love thy law, it is my meditation all the day." This is the grand distinction between the devil's faith and the Christian's. Both have intellectual faith—both believe these things to be true. The devil hates and trembles at the truth—the Christian says it is right, lovely, worthy of all acceptation.

3d. Element of faith, expressed by the word trust. Angels believe, but do not trust in Christ as their own Saviour. The angel is not lost, and does need, and does not personally trust in a redeeming Saviour as his Redeemer. Intellectual conviction, love, trust: these are the three elements of a Christian faith.

In conclusion, we remark, 1st. That the connection between faith and works is inseparable. Faith is, in its very nature, a working thing. It worketh love, penitence, purity, obedience.

2d. How important to have the undiluted truth; for since faith works, and is the source of works, if it be wrong the works that proceed from it must also be wrong.

At the close, Dr. RICE constituted the sessions with prayer.

The Permanent Clerk reported that the following named Commissioners have appeared and been regularly enrolled:—

Delegate from the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, Rev. GEO. W. FISHER.

The Stated Clerk announced the organization of nine new Presbyteries since the last meeting of the Assembly, viz., Bloomington, Hillsboro', Lewes, Omaha, Potomac, Roanoke, Saline, Siam, and Western Reserve. On motion, these Presbyteries and their commissioners were enrolled.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of officers; and the Rev. W. L. BRECKINRIDGE, D.D., was unanimously chosen Moderator; and the Rev. JOSEPH R. MANN unanimously chosen Temporary Clerk.

Bills and Overtures.

THE Committee on Bills and Overtures, Rev. NATHAN L. RICE, Chairman, reported the following:—

OVERTURE, No. I.—From the Congregation of Glasgow, asking to have their relation transferred from the Presbytery of Allegheny City to the Presbytery of New Lisbon. The request was granted.

OVERTURE, No. II.—From the Presbyteries of Washington and St. Paul, on the appointment of a Concert of Prayer for the conversion of the world.

This Overture is based upon a proposal from the missionary brethren of Northern India, to observe the second Monday of January, 1860, and the succeeding week, as a season of special prayer all over the globe, for the conversion of the world. This General Assembly cordially sympathizes with the object contemplated, as it implies the desire that Christians everywhere may more directly regard the missionary and aggressive character of our faith, as it tends to call forth their affections towards each other and towards a perishing world; and especially as it recognizes the great truth of our dependence upon Divine Power for the success of the gospel. We, therefore, recommend to the churches under our care to observe the time thus specified, in such manner as the various Presbyteries or Sessions may direct.

OVERTURE, No. III.—From Samuel Haskell, in relation to missions amongst the Jews.

The Committee recommend its reference to the Board of Foreign Missions.

OVERTURE, No. IV.—From the Rev. Thomas K. Davis, asking to be transferred from the Presbytery of Stockton to that of Carlisle.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted.

OVERTURE, No. V.—From the Presbytery of Nassau, in relation to the publication of a volume of Psalms and Hymns with appropriate tunes.

The Committee regard it as inexpedient to entertain this overture.

OVERTURE, No. VI.—From the Rev. Sayres Gazley, in relation to changes in the language of our Confession of Faith, regarding the doctrine of the Trinity and other doctrines.

The Committee recommend as an answer, that no change in the language of the Confession, respecting the points suggested, is desirable, or consistent with the word of God.

OVERTURE, No. VII.—From the Presbytery of Genesee River, asking a change in the form of government, chapter 10, section 4; in relation to the right of two churches having one pastor to represent them, in the Presbytery and the Synod.

The Committee recommend that it is inexpedient at present to attempt to make the change desired.

OVERTURE, No. VIII.—From A. W. Happer, Missionary to Canton, asking for the re-construction of the Presbytery of Canton.

The Committee recommend that the Rev. Dr. Bell, M. D., of the Presbytery of Charleston, and the Rev. Charles F. Preston, of the Presbytery of Albany, both having received letters of dismission from their Presbyteries; also, any missionary besides, going out under the care of our Board, this ensuing summer, be attached to the Presbytery of Canton; and that they meet and organize in February, 1860, or at such other time as may be found convenient.

OVERTURE, No. IX.—From the Presbytery of Holston, in relation to the demission of the ministerial office.

The Committee recommend, that, in view of the answers returned to the overture already sent down to the Presbyteries, it be answered, that it is inexpedient to send this overture down.

On motion to adopt this report, it was voted as an amendment, that the overture be referred to the next General Assembly, and accordingly, it was so ordered.

OVERTURE, No. X.—From the Presbyterian Historical Society, asking the Assembly to recommend to the churches to take up a collection in their behalf.

The Committee recommend the following answer, viz:—

The Church of Jesus Christ, as a spiritual body, commissioned only to execute the revealed will of God, can sustain no direct relation to any voluntary associations, however praiseworthy in their aims, formed for the purpose of promoting the interests of art, literature, or secular morality. Where such societies involve no wrong principles, it is a matter of Christian liberty to join them or not join them, encourage them, or otherwise—and therefore the Church should leave them, where Christ has left them, to the sound discretion of his people.

OVERTURE, No. XI.—On the subject of Church Charters. On motion, it was referred to the Synods to take into consideration.

OVERTURE, No. XII.—From the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, in relation to the right of ministers, not engaged in the ministerial work, to sit in Church courts.

The Committee offered the following answer, which was adopted, viz:—

According to the Constitution of our Church, ministers, as such, whether with or without charge, are of equal powers and privileges. If the defection of any minister from the duties implied in his ordination vows, is serious enough to disfranchise him, it is sufficiently serious to call for the orderly exercise of discipline. The remedy, therefore, for the evil complained of, lies with the Presbyteries, and cannot be reached by any action of the Assembly. Touching the alleged inequality between the elders and the ministers, in our judicatories, it need only be remarked that the number of vacant churches, in a growing land like this, greatly exceeds the number of unemployed ministers; and in the Church at large, the elders could at any time obtain a large majority, if disposed so to do. Apprehending no danger in this direction, and recognizing no antagonism between the teaching and the ruling elders, in the Church, this Assembly sees no reason for special action in the case; leaving the Presbyteries in our large cities, where ministers without charge are prone to collect, to deal with them in an orderly manner, as their wisdom may suggest.

OVERTURE, No. XIII.—From the Presbytery of Puget's Sound, requesting to be recognized by the Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and that the Presbytery be enrolled, and attached to the Synod of the Pacific.

OVERTURE, No. XIV.—From the Presbytery of Florida, asking such change of the action of the last General Assembly, in relation to the boundaries of the Synods of Alabama and Georgia, that the western boundary of Walton county, Florida, be the line between the two Synods; thus restoring the church of Euchee Valley to its former connection,

At the recommendation of the Committee, this request was granted.

OVERTURE, No. XV.—From the Presbytery of Zanesville, on the sanctification of the Sabbath.

The Committee reported the following paper, which was adopted:—

The views of the Presbyterian Church, touching the importance, sanctity, and obligation of the Sabbath, are too fully expressed in our Confession, in Acts of the Assembly, in our pulpits, and in the usual habits of our people, to require any statement of them, as if these great things were to be at all thought matters of question among us. Yet it is proper to repeat at times the testimony of the Church upon a topic of so great importance, so clearly inculcated in the word of God, and in regard to which so many errors are rife.

At this present time the enemies of the Lord's Day are legion; and they venomously attack its name, its necessity, its authority, and its sacredness. Infidelity of every name, of course, impugns all that is excellent in piety; and with the unerring instinct of an intense hostility, ever selecting the most vital parts for the fiercest blow, it strikes boldly at the Sabbath. The prevailing forms of fanaticism have no point of agreement among themselves more plain than their disregard for the Sabbath. The larger part of our foreign population, having been trained in communities where the sacredness of the Lord's Day is utterly unknown, endeavour to bring in upon us the wretched immoralities of European society; the tendency of formal churches all around us is to exalt the instituted days of man's wisdom to a sanctity from which they degrade the ordinance of God; while men of active business, hurrying forward their active schemes, and lovers of pleasure of all kinds join to trample upon the Sabbath, and to create a public sentiment unfavourable to its influence. Beyond doubt, the deepest source of all this antagonism lies in the enmity of depraved hearts to that blessed gospel, of which the Sabbath is an eminent representative.

In view of such things, it seems a duty to keep before the world more fully and plainly, the claims of the Sabbath.

Your Committee recommend the following resolution, which was adopted:—

Resolved. That the attention of the several Presbyteries be directed to this subject, and that they be directed to take such order upon it as their wisdom may suggest, to the end that in all our families and among all our members a better observance of the Lord's Day may be secured; that in all our communities the authority and sacredness of this ordinance may be explained and vindicated, and that the various forms of Sabbath-breaking may meet with wise and wholesome rebuke and restraint.

OVERTURE, No. XVI.—From the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, asking whether the ordinance of Baptism ought to be administered to a person before reception into our Church, who presents a certificate of good and regular standing in the New School Presbyterian Church, but who has received only Roman Catholic baptism.

The Committee answer, that the mere fact that a person has been a member of another church has nothing to do with his original baptism; and in regard to Romish baptism, the memorialists are referred to the action of the Assembly in 1845.

OVERTURE, No. XVII.—From White Water Presbytery, asking leave to receive J. A. Devine, a foreign minister.

The Committee recommend that the matter be dismissed, because the requisite papers have not been furnished.

OVERTURE, No. XVIII.—From the Presbyteries of Lexington and Missonri, asking that the revision of the Book of Discipline be not sent down to the Presbyteries, but recommitted, either to the same or another Committee.

The Committee submitted the overture without recommendation, and, on motion, it was laid on the table.

OVERTURE, No. XIX.—From the Presbytery of Mississippi, respecting a Commentary, was laid upon the table.

OVERTURE, No. XX.—From the Synod of Pittsburg, on the subject of Temperance.

The Assembly would refer these memorialists to the action taken by this body in 1829 and 1848, as sufficiently expressing our principles on this subject. The increase of intemperance in various forms, and the dangers that beset especially the young in our community, call, in the opinion of this body, for vigorous efforts of resistance to encroaching evils; we, therefore, call the attention of the Synods and Presbyteries to the entire matter.

OVERTURE, No. XXI.—From the Synod of Philadelphia, asking the Assembly to overture the Presbyteries, in relation to a change of the Confession of Faith, chap. 24, sec. 4, in relation to incestuous marriages.

Also, an overture from Aaron Williams, suggesting the change proper to be made in the language of the Confession.

The Committee recommend that the Assembly decide it is inexpedient to send down the overture.

OVERTURE, No. XXII.—In relation to the introduction of new specifications, and new testimony, after judicial process has commenced, was taken up, and, on motion, it was indefinitely postponed.

OVERTURE, No. XXIII.—From the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the General Assembly to cause to be prepared an additional chapter to the Directory of Worship, prescribing the mode for constituting a church.

The Committee report that such an action is not necessary.

OVERTURE, No. XXIV.—From the Synod of Chicago, asking a change of boundary between that Synod and the Synod of Illinois.

The Committee recommend that, as the Synod of Illinois does not appear to have been consulted, the request cannot properly be granted.

OVERTURE, No. XXV.—From Angus Johnson, asking whether it is necessary for a Presbytery to place testimony on its records in judicial cases.

The Committee recommend the motion of B. M. Smith, that it is sufficient that testimony be duly authenticated, and carefully preserved on file, to make it part of the record.

OVERTURE, No. XXVI.—A memorial from ministers in Louisville, in relation to establishing a fund for aged and infirm ministers.

The Committee recommend, that while the Assembly highly commends to the contributions of the churches the fund for the support of superannuated ministers, they are not prepared to favour any scheme for a permanent and invested fund for that end.

OVERTURE, No. XXVII.—Motions of Jonathan Edwards and J. C. Rankin, respecting notice to be given to persons dected, etc.

The Committee reported that, under present circumstances, no action is required.

OVERTURE, No. XXVIII.—From R. R. Reed, respecting the Colonization Society, reaffirming the confidence of the Assembly in the Society, and commending its objects. Also, the report of the Committee thereon, was taken up, and, on motion, the whole subject was laid on the table.

Judicial Cases

THE Judicial Committee, Rev. E. D. McMASTER, D.D., Chairman, reported the following, viz:—

JUDICIAL CASE, No. I.—The appeal of Alexander Fraser against the Synod of Buffalo.

After a full discussion, the roll was called, and the final vote taken, deciding not to sustain the appeal, and to affirm the decision of the Synod. Against this decision of the Assembly R. S. Kennedy entered his protest.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. II.—The appeal of Alexander Gordon against the Synod of Buffalo, was then taken up.

After a full discussion, the roll was called, and the vote taken, the appeal was not sustained, and the decision of the Synod was affirmed.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. III.—Was taken up, and the recommendation of the Judicial Committee was adopted, viz:—

That John Turbitt have leave to withdraw his appeal from the decision of the Presbytery of Peoria, deposing him from the ministry; because the case has not been presented before the Synod.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. IV.—A complaint of Davidson, Koons, and others, against the Synod of Baltimore, was taken up, and, on motion, it was resolved that the case be referred to the next General Assembly, with leave to the appellants to show them that they gave the Synod notice for appeal.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. V.—The appeal of David Robinson from a decision of the Synod of Wheeling, was taken up. A motion was adopted to dismiss the case, because the notice required by the Book was not given by the appellant.

Synodical Records.

THE Records of the Synods of Alabama, Albany, Allegheny, Arkansas, Baltimore, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Memphis, Missouri, Nashville, New Jersey, New York, Northern Indiana, North Carolina, Ohio, Philadelphia, South Carolina, Virginia, and Wheeling, were approved without exception. The Records of Chicago, Iowa, Pittsburg, and Wisconsin, were approved with exceptions. The Records of Mississippi, Northern India, Pacific, Southern Iowa, Texas, and Upper Missouri, had not been sent up.

Theological Seminary of the North-West.

THE REV. S. T. WILSON, from the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Seminary of the North-West, presented the papers in relation to the transfer of the Institution to the care and supervision of the General Assembly; and, on motion, these papers were referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries, REV. B. M. PALMER, Chairman. This Committee reported, and the following resolutions were adopted:—

I. Resolved, That in accordance with the Overtures, emanating from eight Synods, this Assembly does now accept the direction and control of the Seminary, known by the corporate name and style of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North West.

II. Resolved, That this Assembly during its present sessions will decide by a majority of the votes of its members, what place within the limits of these eight Synods be selected as the seat of said Seminary.

On motion of N. L. Rice, it was resolved, to proceed to the choice of a location, and he nominated Chicago; Mr. Sheets nominated Indianapolis. A discussion arose on these nominations, which continued till the regular time of adjournment. It was renewed during several successive sessions, and on the vote being called, the ayes and nays were recorded, and are as follows:—

TO LOCATE THE SEMINARY AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

The Total number was, for Chicago 251; for Indianapolis 71. Rev. A. T. McGill was excused from voting, and Rev. J. C. Lowrie and Joseph R. Mann were non liquet.

The following resolutions were adopted, viz:

I. Resolved, That this Assembly does hereby accept the donation of one hundred thousand dollars, made by Mr. Cyrus Hall McCormick to them for the endowment of four Professorships in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West, about to be established by this Assembly, and upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned.

II. Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be tendered to Mr. C. H. McCormick for his magnificent donation; and that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Mr. McCormick by the Stated Clerk.

III. Resolved, That the offer of forty-five acres of land from other gentlemen of Chicago, under certain specified conditions, together with all similar offers, be referred to the Board of Directors to be elected, to be accepted or not at their discretion.

IV. Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the said Seminary, for whose appointment provision is made in the constitution herewith submitted, be and they are hereby directed to take such measures as may be found proper and expedient to procure the legal transfer and safe investment of all the property of said Seminary; and for that purpose to procure from the Legislature of Illinois such legislation as may be necessary to effect this object.

V. Resolved, That it be the first order of the day for Monday afternoon to elect Professors to fill the four chairs in the Seminary:—1st. Didactic and Polemic Theology; 2d. Biblical and Ecclesiastical History; 3d. Historical and Pastoral Theology and Church Government; 4th. Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

It was also Resolved, That immediately after the election of Professors on Monday next, the Assembly proceed to elect Directors of this institution.

When the time arrived for the election of Professors, Rev. E. D. McMASTER moved that it be postponed till the next General Assembly, and sustained his motion by a speech. This was replied to by Rev. N. L. Rice, and the motion was lost.

The election for the various Professors resulted as follows:—

For Didactic and Polemic Theology—N. L. RICE, D.D., received 214 votes.
 “ “ “ E. D. McMASTER, D.D., “ 45 “
Scattering, 18

James H. Thornwell and Stacy G. Potts were appointed a committee to inform Dr. RICE of his election.

For Biblical and Ecclesiastical History—WILLIS LORD, D.D., received 218 votes.
 “ “ “ J. C. MOFFATT, D.D., “ 23 “
Scattering, 34 “

J. R. Wilson and W. Holecomb were appointed a committee to inform Dr. LORD of his election.

For Hist. and Past. Theo. and Ch. Gov.—L. J. HALSEY, D.D., received 206 votes.
Scattering, 48 “

Joshua Phelps and L. M. Miller were appointed a committee to inform Dr. HALSEY of his election.

For Biblical Literature and Exegesis—W. M. SCOTT, D.D., received 165 votes.
 “ “ “ J. F. McLAREN “ 45 “
Scattering, 35

John W. Scott and William M. Martin were appointed a committee to inform Dr. SCOTT of his election.

The Assembly elected the following Directors:—

The Committee also report, that they have received and considered the Annual Reports of the Directors and Trustees of the Seminaries under the care of the Assembly, viz., the Seminary at Princeton, N. J.; the Western Seminary, at Allegheny, Pa.; the Union Seminary, at Hampden Sidney, Va.; and the Seminary at Danville, Ky.

The Assembly will learn with devout gratitude the continued prosperity of these cherished institutions, and the tokens of the Divine favour manifest in the increase of students, and in the deep tone of piety prevailing in them all.

Whilst the lives of Professors, Directors, and Students, have generally been preserved, the Church is called to mourn over the decease of the Rev. Drs. Jameway and Carnahan in the Direction at Princeton, and Mr. Samuel Laird in that of Danville—translated to heaven in the ripeness of their age and Christian experience, but whose names will remain in the Church below as "ointment poured forth." The death of a young brother, a student at Allegheny, is recorded, whom the Lord took up higher, just as he had resolved to go far hence to the Gentiles.

The Directors at Danville report the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology still vacant, and they ask the Assembly to enter into an election to fill said chair.

William F. Gillespie, of Tennessee.		R. K. Smoot, of Tennessee.
James P. McMillan, of Georgia.		E. S. Wilson, of Ohio.

Their examination was highly creditable to themselves, and satisfactory to the Board.

The Librarian reports additions to the Library. By donation, 15 volumes; by exchange, 11; by purchase, 5.

The Board informs the Assembly that the Rev. Dr. Stratton has declined the Professorship of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, to which he was elected by the last Assembly, and they urgently recommend to this Assembly to fill the Professorship by a new election. [The Assembly filled this chair by the election of Rev. WILLIAM L. BRECKINRIDGE, D.D.]

The Board record the death of SAMUEL LAIRD, of Fayette co., Ky.

APPROPRIATIONS.—The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, have been at the office of Philadelphia, $58,360 17; and at the office in Louisville, $36,116 66, making a total of $94,476 83.

RECEIPTS.—The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, is $99,673 03, to which add balances on hand in the different Treasuries, March 1, 1858, $20,384 25; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $120,057 28.

The Board will endeavour, as heretofore, to enlarge the sphere of their missionary operations as rapidly as the means placed at their disposal will allow. They have continued to employ a number of missionaries among our foreign population. One among the French, one among the Welsh, and twenty-four among the Germans. Many of our missionaries labouring in the Southern States, devote a large portion of their time to the coloured population. During the year, twenty-seven of our missionaries have been employed as itinerants. A large portion of the missionaries also perform more or less of such service.

The Committee on the report, Rev. EDWARD P. HUMPHREY, D.D., Chairman, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:—

I. Resolved, That the General Assembly gratefully recognizes the blessings of the Head of the Church upon its Domestic Missions, and upon the labours of the Board unto which the care of these Missions has been entrusted.

II. Resolved, That the Assembly finds, in the history of the Board, every reason to cherish the settled conviction of the Church, respecting the ordinance of alms-giving, and its proper admission by the office-bearers; and it exhorts all the congregations under its care to maintain this ordinance as a part of religious worship.

III. Resolved, That the Board is instructed to establish, in the city of New Orleans an Advisory Committee, with a District Secretary, whose duty it shall be to set forward the work of Missions in the South-West—the details to be arranged by conference between the Board and the said Committee.

IV. Resolved, That the Board is also empowered to make a similar arrangement at the North-West, if on consultation with the brethren on the judicatories in that region, such a measure shall appear to be advisable.

V. Resolved, That the attention of the Board is particularly called to the Pacific coast, as a field of Missions.

VI. Resolved, That a committee of seven members shall be appointed by this Assembly, with instructions to inquire, and confer with the Board, and to report to the next Assembly, what changes in the organization and methods of the Board are necessary, in order to its greater efficiency and wider usefulness.

The aggregate number of candidates is six more than the number on the roll last year.

The number of new candidates is thirty-eight more than the number received last year. The total number of new candidates is one hundred and forty-one, which is the largest number received in any one year since the division of the Church.

RESIGNATION OF DR. WOOD.—Dr. Wood resigned the office of Associate Secretary, the resignation to take effect on June 19, 1859, he having accepted the Presidency of Hanover College. The Board do not intend to fill this vacancy.

HINTS ON THE CHOICE OF A PROFESSION.—At a time when so many young men are brought to the knowledge of Christ, and the world is so active with influences to claim their services, the Board have ventured to present some considerations to the youth of the Church, in regard to the principles which should guide the determination of their course of life.

1. A leading principle in the choice of a profession, is to follow the one best suited to a young man's gifts and endowments. 2. Another principle is, that that profession is to be chosen which God seems the most to approve. 3. Consider the claims of that profession which offers the widest field of usefulness. 4. Another principle worthy of consideration in the choice of a profession, is to notice the direction in which Providence points. 5. A preference may be wisely given, other things being equal, to a profession that admits and nurtures personal improvement, and does not give a prominence to sordid temptations. 6. A young man should keep in sight the rewards of eternity.

PART II.—CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS, ACADEMIES, AND COLLEGES.—The Board has been enabled to do much good in sustaining feeble institutions of learning. The number of parochial schools is not large—probably about one hundred; but they are a great blessing to the children attending them. A revival occurred in one of these schools, in which eight of the older youth were hopefully converted.

The number of Presbyterial Academies is fifty-eight; and these higher institutions, scattered all over the land, are accomplishing important results for Christian education. A number of conversions have taken place during the year in our academies.

Colleges are great instrumentalities in advancing the kingdom of Christ. The Church should not establish them too fast, but fast enough; not ahead of Providence, nor too far behind Providence; but according to Providence. The report of the Board contains various suggestions about the collegiate policy of our Church. The discussion is on the following points : 1, the number of colleges ; 2, their location ; 3, the right time for establishing them ; 4, buildings ; 5, endowment ; 6, debt ; 7, trustees and professors ; 8, standard of scholarship ; 9, discipline ; 10, religious instruction ; 11, the relation of each college to the character of the whole Church. Hints on these topics may be of some use, perhaps, to thoughtful educators. Revivals of religion occurred during the year in three of our colleges, viz : Davison College, N. C., Westminster College, Mo., and Centre College, Ky. To God be the praise for these and other glorious results.

STATE OF THE TREASURY.—The following is the general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board during the ecclesiastical year :—

The Total receipts from all sources are $58,057 18.

Rev. JAMES A. LYON, Chairman of the Committee, reported the following resolutions :—

I. Resolved, That the General Assembly learn with gratitude the success that has attended the operations of the Board during the year, as evinced both by the increase of candidates and funds.

II. Resolved, That the best hope of continued and enlarged success in the Church's operations is under God in prayer.

III. Resolved, That one of the means of success in the education of candidates for the Gospel Ministry, consists in the faithful and interested supervision of the Presbyteries.

IV. Resolved, That the Assembly are gratified to learn of the establishment of so many Academies under the care of Presbyteries, in addition to many others under the management of Presbyterians, and further testify their continued interest in the "Ashmun Institute," under the care of the Presbytery of New Castle, and rejoice that the first fruits of that Institute consist in the education of three missionaries for Africa.

V. Resolved, That the Assembly cherish with increased affection the system of collegiate education, which, from time immemorial, has engaged the energies and prayers of Presbyterians.

VI. Resolved, That this Assembly renew their recommendation to parents, in consecrating their children to God, and training them to become worthy members of the Church ; to dedicate such as in their judgment possess the requisite qualifications, to the holy office of the ministry.

VII. Resolved, That this Assembly appoint the last Thursday of February as a day of special prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the rising generation, and especially the baptized youth of the Church, the officers and students of colleges, academies, and all institutions of learning in our own, and in foreign lands, and earnestly recommend that it be faithfully observed throughout our Zion ; and they furthermore recommend to the churches to unite alms with their prayers, and to take up collections on that day for the Board.

VIII. Resolved, That all the pastors and ministers of the Church be requested to preach once, at discretion, during the year, on a call to the gospel ministry, setting forth the claims of both the Church and the Pulpit, to hold up for consideration such things as will recommend the gospel ministry as a profession, in order that parents and youth may give its claims a respectful hearing.

IX. Resolved, That we earnestly urge Presbyteries, and "Committees ad interim," to guard with a becoming caution, and a firm vigilance, the door to the holy office of the ministry, so as not to admit to that sacred calling, men wanting in mental and moral qualifications for its high and holy functions.

Board of Publication.

THE Twenty-first Annual Report is presented to the Assembly. It will be observed that the operations of the Board are divided into three divisions:—

I. PRODUCTION.—During the past year there have been published 51 new books, of which have been printed 98,000 copies; 19 new tracts, 54,500 copies; The Presbyterian Almanac for 1859, 15,000 copies; total number of new publications, 167,500 copies.

Reprints of former publications, as follows:—New editions of books, 272,000; tracts, catechisms, and pamphlets, 473,500; total number of reprints, 745,500; total publications of the year, 913,000.

The Report makes special mention of the "Letters of John Calvin," in 4 volumes, octavo, the first two of which are now out; also, "The Great Supper," in German, several German tracts, and a cheap edition in tract form of "The Confession of Faith," furnished at five cents per copy.

New and popular volumes have been added to the Sabbath-school Library, and the Board is now prepared to furnish also Sabbath-school Superintendent's Books, Class Books, Minute Books, Tickets, Catechisms, Question Books, Jacobus's Notes on the Gospels, and hope ere long to supply all other apparatus necessary for the complete conduct of the Sabbath-school.

Periodicals.—The circulation of the "Home and Foreign Record," is 17,650 copies. The "Sabbath-school Visitor," 58,000 copies.

II. IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.—The regular sales in Philadelphia have been 224,400 volumes; an increase of 32,407 volumes over last year. The sales of tracts have amounted to 1,490,650 pages. The Executive Committee have granted to ministers, ships, humane institutions, &c., 5,345 volumes, and 347,138 pages of tracts.

This Table will show the operations in this department for the past six years:—

The number of colporteurs in commission during the year has been largely reduced, owing to the pecuniary embarrassments of the country, which at the beginning, especially, of the year greatly affected the Colportage Fund. The number in commission last year was 263, the number this year 143. The Board is now again slowly and carefully increasing their number.

This Table will show the number of the Colporteurs for the past six years :—

The Committee on the report, Rev. ROBERT HETT CHAPMAN, D.D., Chairman, offered the following resolutions :—

I. Resolved, That the Assembly desire to record with gratitude the favour extended to this enterprise by the Great Head of the Church.

II. Resolved, That the great object of the Board's organization and efforts is the widest possible circulation of the pure, undisguised, complete truths of God's blessed word, in a literature through whose pages shall gleam the great and precious doctrines of our Confession and Catechisms—doctrines which have cheered the Church in the past, and which constitute the hope of the world in the future.

III. Resolved, That the Assembly would therefore earnestly urge on the churches under their care, the importance of the Colportage department, exhorting them to increased liberality in their contributions, that the operations of colportage may be enlarged, and that the publications of the Board may be more widely diffused.

IV. Resolved, That the General Assembly with great pleasure notice, among other publications of the Board, "The Letters of John Calvin."

V. Resolved, That the Assembly rejoices in the opportunity of expressing its approbation of the efforts made by the Board to meet the wants of the youth of our land as regards Sabbath-school libraries. The Assembly recommend, that in the purchase of libraries, either for gifts to feeble churches or for use at home, these books of the Board should have the preference.

VI. Resolved, That the Assembly would especially commend "The Home and Foreign Record" to a more general patronage throughout the Church. They also recommend "The Sabbath-school Visitor" as a most excellent publication to be circulated through our Sabbath-schools, and among the children of our charge.

Church Extension Committee.

THE Fourth Annual Report is presented to the Assembly:—

During the period covered by their Fourth Annual Report the Committee laboured under liabilities exceeding their means on hand more than $7000. The embarrassment arising from this source was greatly increased by the unprecedented influx of applications. The number received from April 1, 1858, to April 1, 1859, was one hundred and forty-one. One hundred and sixteen of these churches ask for aid, amounting to $51,257 25; the others would swell the aggregate amount of aid asked for during the year to $62,304. Besides these new applications, there were on file and undisposed of, April 1, 1858, sixty applications, calling for not less than $25,000. The Committee, therefore, had before them during the last year two hundred and one applications, asking for more than $87,000.

The Committee adopted the following resolution, viz:—

Resolved, That all applications for aid which have remained on file, or shall hereafter remain on file two years, without the applicants furnishing the additional information asked for by the Church Extension Committee, shall be regarded as withdrawn."

In accordance with this resolution, thirty-two applications, calling for aid to the amount of $13,370, have been stricken from the file. These applications, and any others that may in like manner be erased, will be treated by the Committee as though they had never been presented. They are not to be considered as declined, nor, if renewed, will they be looked upon with more or less favour than those presented for the first time. The action of the Committee simply renders it necessary for them to procure a new recommendation of Presbytery, and furnish the usual information in full, before an appropriation can be made to them. It is but just to new applicants that such a rule should be established. In making appropriations, the Committee must have some regard to the applications on file, and other things being equal, give the preference to those of longest standing. There ought, however, to be a limit to this, and surely no church ought to complain of losing this preference, if it fails within two years to furnish the information the Committee have asked it to give.

APPROPRIATIONS.—During the year ending April 1, 1859, appropriations amounting to $23,970 15 were made to eighty-three churches.

Seventy-six churches received their appropriations during the year. The amount paid to these churches was $20,504 90. Apart from special donations, no appropriations larger than $500, and but six larger than $400, were made during the year.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES.—The appropriated balance in the Treasury of the Church Extension Committee, April 1, 1858, was $8,991 70. The receipts from all sources, from April 1, 1858 to April 1, 1859, were $29,342 32. Of which $23,744 91 was from churches, $2,600 from legacies, $2,514 92 from individuals, $138 50 from Sabbath-schools, and $314 99 from interest and exchange. The available resources of the year were, therefore, $38,334 02.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement, appended to this report, were $23,538 68, leaving in the Treasury, April 1, 1859, an appropriated balance of $14,795 34.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.—It has always been our conviction that the gifts of the benevolent should not be used to build expensive churches, suited to pamper pride and gratify vanity. How far our practice has conformed to this conviction, will appear from the following facts:—Leaving out of view twenty special appropriations, for which we take no responsibility, the present Church Extension Committee, since its organization, July 1855, has made appropriations to two hundred and fifty-five different churches. As nearly as can be ascertained, the average cost of these two hundred and fifty-five churches is $2,097 each. Two hundred and eighteen of them ranged in cost from $500 to $3000; twenty-eight from $3000 to $5000; and nine from $5,000 to $10,000. Nearly all the more expensive buildings were in important points, where a large previous outlay by persons on the ground was saved to our Zion by a comparatively small sum from the Committee.

Of the eighty-three appropriations made during the year, ending April 1, 1859, nine were special appropriations. Of the remaining seventy-four church edifices, sixty-five cost from $500 to $3,000; eight from $3000 to $5,000; and one nearly $6,000. The nine houses costing over $3,000, could, in many parts of the Church, have been built for $3,000, or less.

CHURCH EXTENSION DESTITUTIONS AND WANTS.—Your Committee have continually felt it to be very important to obtain a full view of the destitutions and wants of the Church, in their department of labour. They, during the year under review, addressed a circular to all our churches with whose condition they were unacquainted. This circular contained, among others, the following inquiries, viz:—Does your church own a house of worship sufficient for its present wants, and free from debt? In building your house of worship, (if you have one,) did you obtain aid outside of your own community? If you are without a suitable church edifice, can you secure one without aid from the Church at large? The information we have derived enables us to report the condition of two thousand two hundred and sixty-seven churches. Of these 2267 churches, 553 have no house of worship; 26 churches worship in Union houses; 168 report their houses of worship as insufficient for their present wants; 190 are in debt; 777 had aid from abroad in building their church edifices; and 373 cannot build without aid from the Church at large.

These simple but startling facts show, more clearly than any thing else, the magnitude of the Church Extension work, and we commend them to the earnest attention of the Assembly and the Church.

The Committee on the report, Rev. HENRY J. VAN DYKE, Chair man, offered these resolutions:—

I. Resolved, That the Assembly commend the Church Extension Committee for the fidelity with which they have watched over the interests committed to them, and note with special satisfaction their efforts to elicit information in regard to the wants of the Church in their department of labour.

II. Resolved, That we regret the tardiness of the churches to obey the repeated requests of the General Assembly to take up collections for this important cause; and hereby solemnly enjoin it upon all the Presbyteries to take some action whereby our directions may be more generally and faithfully executed.

III. Resolved, That we desire and exhort all churches under our care, which are still in debt for their house of worship, to make strenuous efforts for removing this stumbling block, in order that their liberality towards new and feeble churches be not hindered.

PUBLICATIONS.—Annual Report of 1858:—3,400 copies were published in pamphlet form, and 19,100 copies as an extra number of the "Home and Foreign Record." Of the Foreign Missionary, 4000 copies in pamphlet form are published monthly, and 27,000 copies of the newspaper edition for children.

The Committee on this report, Rev. S. R. WILSON, D.D., Chairman, offered the following resolutions:—

I. Resolved. That it becomes us as a Church, humbly, yet with our whole heart, gratefully to acknowledge the goodness and grace of God in giving so signal an answer during the past year to the prayers of his people, in restraining the wrath of the heathen, taking obstacles out of the way of his servants, preserving their lives, and setting his approving seal to their labours by accompanying them with the marked and effectual influence of his Holy Spirit.

II. Resolved, That the Providence of God calls the Church, in tones that cannot but be heard, and ought to be heeded by all her ministers and members, to the exercise of increased liberality in contributing of their substance to the service of Christ in this particular department of that service; but especially that they should accompany the exercise of this grace with that of prayer to the Lord of the harvest that he would send forth labourers into the harvest, that he would abundantly shed upon them the Spirit of promise that they may be endued with power for their work, and then pour out the same Spirit in copious effusion upon the nations, that their hearts may be opened to receive the truth in the love of it, that they may be saved.

III. Resolved, That the General Assembly highly approve of the efforts made by the Board to enlist the interest of the children of the Church in the work of Foreign Missions; and they would urge upon all Pastors and Ruling Elders throughout the Church, to instruct the baptized members, in their respective congregations, in regard to their obligation in this matter as members of the Church, and upon parents, that they endeavour to train their children to the habitual discharge of their obligations.

To this Board were intrusted the Foreign Missionary operations of the Presbyterian Church, with such directions as may be given from time to time by the Assembly. They were directed to hold their first meeting in the First Presbyterian Church of Baltimore, Md., on Tuesday, October 3, 1837. This meeting was held according to appointment, at which time they elected their officers, &c., viz:—

President. Rev. SAMUEL MILLER, D.D.	Vice-President. Gen. WILLIAM McDONALD.
Executive Committee.

It was resolved that the City of New York be the seat of operations. They also received a transfer of the Presbyterian Western Foreign Missionary Society from the Synods of Pittsburg and Philadelphia, embracing the whole of its funds, missions, and papers, and it was dissolved after an active existence of over five years.

The importance of this Society warrants the following notice:— Previous to its organization the Presbyterian Church contributed men and money almost exclusively to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. This Board being a voluntary society, the arrangement caused much dissatisfaction, which manifested itself in various ways and on many occasions until November, 1831, when the Synod of Pittsburgh organized the Western Foreign Missionary Society. This proved to be the nucleus around which gathered in this Synod, and soon after in the old "Mother Synod" of Philadelphia, and eventually throughout various portions of the Church the sympathy and co-operation of those who were strongly (Old School) Presbyterian in their sentiments and views concerning Boards, preferring those under strictly ecclesiastical control, to the Independency of the voluntary society.

The Western Foreign Missionary Society issued an address to the ministers and elders, in which it was distinctly stated that it did not originate in any desire to diminish the resources of the American Board, or impair that measure of public confidence which it certainly and justly enjoyed, but it aimed at uniting those portions of the Presbyterian Church which prefer a strictly Presbyterian arrangement in a new, earnest, and persevering endeavour to fulfil the duty we owe to the heathen of our own and foreign lands.

Their officers were elected and plans matured with such promptness, that within a year they had under commission seven missionaries. The first missionaries appointed by the Society were Messrs. William Reed and John C. Lowrie; the next, Messrs. John B. Pinney and Joseph W. Barr. Mr. Barr was called to his rest while on the way to embark for his field of labour in Africa, and Mr. Pinney proceeded alone to that country in the fall of 1832. Messrs. Lowrie and Reed and their wives embarked for India in the spring of 1833; they were followed by Messrs. J. Wilson and Newton and their wives, and afterwards by others. The mission to Africa was reinforced, but met with heavy bereavements. Missions were commenced among some of the Indian tribes, and missionaries were appointed to China. The names of the ministers and their wives, who were appointed by the Society to these various Missions, will be found properly included in the list given in the following pages. It was their honour to have been the first missionaries to the heathen sent out by a purely Presbyterian organization. The success of the Society was so great that when its Missions were transferred to the Board, and the Society itself dissolved, it was supporting in various parts of the Mission field 8 stations, 16 missionaries and 22 assistant missionaries.

The receipts for the Western Foreign Missionary Society were as follows from its organization until May, 1833, $6,432; 1834, $16,296; 1835, $17,678; 1836, $19,123; 1837, $32,833.

The organization of the Board awakened new zeal in behalf of the cause of Foreign Missions so that at the end of the first year, 1838, they reported to the General Assembly, that they had sent out sixteen missionaries and their assistants, and the collection amounted to $48,606, including amount received from the Western Foreign Missionary Society of $3,107. The Mission stations were Northern India, China, American Indians, and Africa.

At the meeting of the Assembly, in 1839, the number of members of the Board was increased to one hundred and twenty. During this year other missionaries were sent out, and the amount collected during the year was $59,363.

In the autumn of 1838 two auxiliary societies, viz., the Central, under the care of the Synods of Virginia and North Carolina, and the Southern, under the care of the Synods of South Carolina and Georgia, dissolved their connection with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and by a formal vote resolved that henceforward they would contribute to the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. Therefore, in presenting to the General Assembly, in 1839, their Second Annual Report, the Board, in addition to the growing interest manifested by the Church, had this interesting fact to place before the Assembly.

PERIODICALS.—The value of the press was immediately acknowledged by the Board. “The Missionary Chronicle” of the Western Foreign Missionary Society, a monthly publication, was enlarged to 32 pages, and in their second report the circulation had increased, and 5000 copies were printed, besides various papers and tracts. They established, in 1842, “The Foreign Missionary” in addition to The Chronicle, and in 1843 they reported a circulation of 19,000 copies. By these and other similar means the Church has been kept fully conversant with the operations of the Board, and its growth has thus been healthful. The circulation of these papers has increased so that in 1859 they reported the circulation of “The Foreign Missionary” at 31,000 copies. The Chronicle was merged in “The Home and Foreign Record” in 1850, which is now the organ of all the Boards, and has a circulation of 17,659 copies. Of the Twenty-first Annual Report, 22,500 copies were published.

The career of the Board has been highly favoured, and though the usual difficulties attending great operations have surrounded its officers and members, they have been sustained by a higher power, and by the cordial co-operation of the Church. Death in its varied forms has consigned many of its faithful missionaries to their place of rest, and the crown of martyrdom is reposing upon the brows of some of their number who have died by violence under the power of the heathen's rage. In the unfathomed caves of the Chinese sea repose the shroudless remains of our brother Lowrie, and that company whose forms were scattered to the winds on the fearful parade ground at Cawnpore, were denied even a burial place, but in the memory and upon the heart of all who love the Lord will the names of Freeman, Campbell, Johnson, and McMullin be engraven as with the point of a diamond. Blessed is the Church upon whose bosom has been sprinkled the blood of the martyrs.

As year by year this Board comes up to the General Assembly with the result of their annual operations, in view of the facts presented, may we not reasonably anticipate continued evidences of Divine favour?

The following Table will show the names of all those ministers and their wives who have gone out from the Church to labour in the cause of Foreign Missions since the organization of the Board by the General Assembly, including those connected with the Western Foreign Missionary Society. The dates are arranged according to the reports to the Assembly. The Assistant Missionaries in their various departments are numerically given at the end of the Table:—

Names of Ministers and their Wives who have been connected with

Narrative of the State of Religion.

P. J. SPARROW, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, reported the Narrative of Religion, as follows:—

The meeting of the General Assembly may be regarded as the review of the armies of our spiritual Israel. It must be admitted that there is something interesting in such an assemblage of the representatives of so many Presbyteries and Churches, coming together from all parts of this vast country, agreeing to attend to the one great business assigned them by the Lord Jesus Christ—the proclamation of the glorious gospel, and the adoption of means and measures for filling the world with the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

The Assembly desire to render devout thanks to God, for the many tokens of his favour granted to them during the past year. At the time when the Assembly held its sessions last year, a number of churches were enjoying revivals of religion. Many other churches have since been visited by the outpouring of God's gracious Spirit. Of the one hundred and twenty-nine Presbyteries which have sent up Narratives to this Assembly sixty-three report revivals. A large proportion of the other Presbyteries, whilst they have not been visited by those marked displays of the power of the Spirit, which are usually denominated thus, have, nevertheless, been refreshed and strengthened. The Narratives we have received, present a number of facts worthy of record.

1. One of these is, that all the churches which were revived last year, still retain the spirit of those refreshing seasons. Perhaps there never has been a year in the history of our Zion, when the churches were so generally at peace, with so few roots of bitterness springing up to trouble them.

2. Another fact in our history the last year is the general prevalence of a spirit of prayer. This has been manifested in the multiplication of meetings for prayer, and in the unusually large numbers that have attended such meetings, and the interest with which they have attended them.

3. Another fact of interest is the great attention which has been paid by the Presbyteries and churches to the religious instruction of youth. With comparatively a few exceptions the Presbyteries report flourishing Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes; and many report catechetical instruction especially in the Catechisms of our Church. This we regard as a most important movement in the right direction. In confirmation of these views we remark that Presbyteries in which revivals have been enjoyed during the past year, state that the fruits of those revivals have been gathered especially from Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes.

4. We would especially notice the fact, that in addition to prayer the means employed during the revivals has been the plain and practical preaching of the doctrines of the word of God. Several Presbyteries mention expository preaching as a means which has been employed with evident good results. The Assembly take this opportunity of recommending this mode of preaching so well adapted to do honour to the word of God, and which the fathers of the preceding age employed with such good effect. The reports show an increasing attention to the spiritual interests of the coloured people. From the Narratives of the Southern Presbyteries it appears that the gospel is preached to them by nearly all their pastors.

5. The evidence before us, afforded by the Narratives, clearly indicates that the members of the churches are growing in the grace of giving to the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ. A considerable number of the Presbyteries report that, in obedience to the direction of the General Assembly, they have inaugurated plans of systematic contribution. We trust that the time is not far distant when every member of the Church shall have the opportunity of contributing to every good cause, and especially to all those schemes of benevolence in which our Church is engaged, and when all shall feel it to be their duty and their privilege to contribute in proportion as the Lord has blessed them.

6. There is one other important fact to which we refer, and which we cannot better designate than by denominating it the revival which has taken place among the elders of our Church. The Assembly rejoice that the elders very extensively are beginning to wake up to the immense responsibilities that rest upon them as office-bearers in the house of God, are beginning to seek for higher qualifications for the discharge of the duties of their office, and are beginning to enter upon the practice of those duties with increasing zeal, faithfulness, and efficiency.

Whilst the reports made by the Presbyteries present these encouraging facts, they contain others of a different character, which call for humiliation on the part of all those members of the Church to whom they relate. Many of the Presbyteries deplore a prevalent worldliness in some of their churches, and its practical consequence, worldly conformity. That professor of religion, who lives in pursuit of the vanities of a sinful world, is recreant to all the solemn vows which he made when he entered the Church; and without repentance, must be assigned to a far more fearful destiny of woe than that which awaits those who have never professed to belong to the kingdom of Christ.

Such is a brief history of the spiritual progress of our Church, during the past year. Like that of individual Christian life, it is marked by lights and shades. We have, as a Church, sins over which to mourn, and cause for humiliation in the presence of our Divine Master, and earnest supplication for pardon wherein we have failed to accomplish all the good which we might have accomplished. Still we have cause to thank God, take courage, and press forward in our work with renewed zeal and confidence. Our work is to give, as speedily as possible, to the perishing in our own and in heathen lands, the unsearchable riches of the gospel. For the accomplishment of this great work, we believe that our Church is duly equipped. With her Boards of Education, Domestic and Foreign Missions, Publication, and Church Extension—with her institutions of learning and Theological Seminaries—with her pious and educated ministry—with her thousands of holy and praying men and women—and with the silver and gold in the possession of her members, which they are bound to hold in trust for her, to be used as her Lord has need, there is no department in the great work of the world's conversion on which she may not immediately enter. What we need is individual action, together with combined action. We need that all our ministers, elders, churches, and church members should be fully awake to the responsibility that rests upon them, and that they should perform with diligence and activity the work which properly belongs to them in their several spheres and stations. Then, again, we need combination to carry out practically and fully the grand truth that our church is a unit—one great army of the Lord—organized and equipped to contend with one common enemy, and accomplish one great work.

What we need beyond all things else is believing prayer. We live at an era of prayer—a time of special prayer, and of special and direct answers to prayer. Presbyterians into whose system of faith Divine influences enter so essentially, should, beyond all others, be distinguished for prayer. Let them only act consistently with their avowed creed—let all our ministers, elders, churches, and members of the church, individually, and in their various organizations, wisely and faithfully perform the work assigned them by the Saviour, and let believing prayer continually ascend from all our studies, domestic altars, closets, and churches. Then, instead of a general, a universal revival will pervade the entire Church, far as she has extended her bounds in home and foreign lands. May the Lord breathe such a spirit into the hearts of all our ministers, and through all the churches!

DEMISSION OF THE MINISTRY.

Rev. N. L. RICE, D.D., from the Committee of Bills and Overtures, reported on the returns from the Presbyteries upon the Overture respecting the demission of the ministry, sent down by the last General Assembly,

That answers had been received from 108 Presbyteries; of which 19 by regular, and 5 by irregular answers, have replied in the affirmative; and 74 by regular, and 10 by irregular answers, have replied in the negative. By the rule in the book, therefore, the overture has been rejected.

This report was accepted and approved.

SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCE.

Rev. B. M. SMITH, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, made the following report:

By the roll-call of this Assembly, of 168 Presbyteries, 101 have reported a compliance with the injunction of the Assembly of 1854, by adopting some practicable method for securing the regular contributions of the people to the objects of Christian benevolence recognized by the Assembly. Of the remaining 67, many are newly organized, with extensive and sparsely-settled territories, or on foreign missionary ground; so that very few have appeared entirely negligent in this important matter.

While feeling that there is great cause for congratulation in view of this state of things, we do not believe it advisable for the Assembly to offer to the churches any specific method of making contributions; but to secure a more efficient operation of the Act of the Assembly, we respectfully propose the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Presbyteries be directed,

First, To require their Stated Clerks to enter on their Spring Docket the calling of the roll of ministers and churches, to ascertain whether they have adopted and carried out any plan for securing the contributions of the people to the objects of benevolence recognized by the Assembly.

Second, To report in writing in the Assembly—1. The number of contributions directed to be made by the Presbytery. 2. The number made—arranged under the names of the several objects directed.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Publication is directed to prepare, for the use of the Stated Clerks, blank forms suitable for facilitating these orders.

3. That the Board also prepare for the use of the churches, blank forms for contribution, not exceeding three varieties, making a selection for this purpose from such existing methods as may be commended to the attention of the Publishing Committee.

4. That the Board further prepare similar blank forms, not exceeding three varieties, for the use of Sabbath-schools, availing themselves of such methods as may be suggested by persons who have interested themselves in the preparation and use of suitable plans for training our youth to habits of Christian benevolence.

TER-CENTENARY IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Rev. A. T. MCGILL, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

Whereas, The Third Centenary of the Presbyterian Reformation in Great Britain approaches in the year next ensuing, and arrangements have been made by the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and the Presbyterian Synod of England, to have a meeting or meetings next May, attended by all Evangelical Presbyterian bodies in the world, through such representation as they may deem it proper to send; and whereas, brethren of our own body, who are honoured and trusted among us, may find it convenient to visit this interesting convocation, Therefore,

Resolved, That the Rev. Drs. Gardiner Spring, James W. Alexander, Nicholas Murray, Robert Davidson, C. Van Rensselaer, John Leyburn and B. M. Palmer, ministers; and James Lenox, Robert Carter, Thomas R. Cobb, C. Macalester, and Stephen Alexander, ruling elders, be appointed to represent our branch of the Church at that meeting, and any other of similar aims and principles in Europe, which may meet within eighteen months from the present date.

On motion of B. M. Palmer, the report was amended, by adding the name of Alexander T. McGill to the list of delegates.

It was, on various motions,

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the citizens of Indianapolis, for their kindness and generous hospitality to the members of the Assembly during its present sessions.

Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in Rochester, New York, in the First Presbyterian Church, on the third Thursday of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

JOHN LEYBURN,

STATED CLERK.

ALEXANDER T. MCGILL.

PERMANENT CLERK.

Ministers whose deaths are Reported.

We introduce the following table of the ministers who have rested from their labours during the year, ending with the last meeting of the General Assembly. The Biographies have been arranged from facts furnished by relatives, Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, physicians, and others, who were acquainted with those who have died. We thus give a complete though brief record of their ministerial career.

In Memoriam.

Bishop, Pierpont E.—Was born in Amherst Co., Va., in 1803. His widowed mother superintended his early training. She was a woman of ardent piety, refined manners, and brought up her family in the true Presbyterian way, drilling them well in the Shorter and Larger Catechisms.

He made a profession of religion when eighteen, and his thoughts were turned towards the ministry, but poverty interposed, he knew not how he could obtain an education; but his own and his pious mother's prayers were answered.

William Shields Reid, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg, Va., named him as a Beneficiary for a society of benevolent ladies of his Church to educate.

He entered Hampden Sidney College, Va., graduating in 1829, and studied Theology in Union Seminary, graduating in 1833; being licensed by the Presbytery of West Hanover, he commenced his labours in South Carolina, here he was ordained pastor of Ebenezer and Unity Churches, by Bethel Presbytery in 1834, and remained in Ebenezer until 1845; in 1845 he resigned his charge in Unity, and preached in Yorkville; during six of these years he was at the head of an Academy.

Soon after leaving Ebenezer, he preached at Bethesda, as stated supply until 1851, when he was installed pastor, in 1855, having organized Zion Church, he preached for them one fourth of his time. In 1856, he left Bethesda, and became pastor of Bennettsville and Great Pee Dee Churches, and preached to the destitutions of the neighbourhood. He died at Bennettsville, S. C., March 5, 1859, of Pneumonia.

He married Miss Adaline McKnight, of Statesville, N. C., who with two daughters and one son survive him. He was of an eminently practical turn of mind, a ready off hand speaker, a faithful and laborious pastor, and beloved by all. His funeral discourse was preached by Rev. John S. Harris, pastor of Bethesda Church, by request of the session, and published.

Broughton, Job—Was born July 15, 1791, at Coatsheath, England, he was the son of John and Mary Broughton. He studied for the ministry at Lutterworth, was licensed by an Association of Independents, and laboured as a missionary for seventeen years; his health declining he left England, and arrived in New York in 1829. For two years he supported himself by manual labour, ere he was able to go out to Ohio. Here he regained his health, devoting himself to farming, and preaching in a Congregational Church, he removed in 1853 to Bloomingburg, Ohio; receiving a call from the Greenland Church, and uniting with the Presbytery of Chillicothe, he was installed pastor. In 1856 he subsequently became pastor of Cynthia and Sinking Spring Churches, Ohio, in the same Presbytery; here he laboured till his death, which took place Nov. 1st, 1858, of Pleurisy. His widow and seven of his children survive him.

Brown, Joseph—The son of William and Mary (Campbell) Brown, was born in Robeson Co., N. C., Aug. 7, 1795. He received his early education at Philadelphia, N. C., and studied Theology at the Union Seminary Va. He was licensed by Fayetteville Presbytery, May 15, 1830, and preached at Centre and Laurel Hill Churches, N. C., until 1832, when he was ordained by the same Presbytery, May 19, 1832, and installed pastor of Ashpole and Philadelphia Churches, N. C., and Little Pee Dee Church, just over the boundary line in South Carolina. In 1838, he accepted a call to Hopewell Church, S. C. in Harmony Presbytery, here he laboured for over twenty years, having been released on account of increasing infirmity the April before his death, which took place May 19, 1859, of a Cancerous Tumor.

He was married Jan. 13, 1831, to Miss Eliza Caroline Graham; after her death, he was married to Miss Amanda C. Patterson, June 15, 1849, his widow and two sons, one by his first wife, survive him.

He was a plain but earnest preacher, a sensible and prudent man.

Burch, James K.—The son of Samuel and Mary (Kerr) Burch, was born in Albemarle Co, Va., Aug. 2, 1785. He graduated at Washington College, Lexington, Va., and studied Theology privately. He was licensed and ordained by Orange Presbytery in 1807, and preached for sometime in Newbern, and also in Washington, N. C., being a member of the General Assembly in 1809, he was quite popular as a preacher, and made such an impression, that after his return to North Carolina he was called to preach in 1810 for a Reformed Dutch Congregation, worshipping in the Fourth Street Academy, Philadelphia, but as they were unwilling to unite with the Presbyterian Church, he left them, and with a colony which was organized as the Fifth Presbyterian Church, commenced preaching until a house of worship could be erected in Locust Street. Here he remained until 1821, when he went to preach at Flemingsburg, and subsequently at Lexington and Georgetown, Ky. He resided several years in Danville, Ky., and whilst there, was connected with a seminary for Young Ladies. He was also Professor of Theology for one year, in 1829, being elected by the Synod of Kentucky. He was very fond of preaching, and during the later years of his life he preached in the destitute neighbourhood around Washington, Missouri, though he still retained his connection with Transylvania Presbytery. He died at the residence of his son-in-law, Rev. N. L. Rice, D.D., in Chicago, Illinois, July 28, 1858, of Inflammation of the Stomach. His ministry extended over half a century. His conversion when he was quite a youth, was attended with those outward manifestations which in the early part of the present century made such a noise throughout the land, and which are now attracting the eyes of the world to the revivals in Ireland. He was attending a prayer meeting, when walking across a room he fell suddenly to the floor, and it was sometime ere he was restored, at the same time many were stricken down, and though perfectly conscious, would be perfectly helpless for hours. He was called on during the progress of these revival meetings to speak, and being quite fluent, he was always an attractive exhorter.

He was married July 31, 1807, to Miss Helen Pollock Smith, of Raleigh, N. C., they had eight children, only three, one son and two daughters, survive. Mrs. Burch died May 19, 1858, a few weeks before her husband.

Burns, John—The son of David and Mary Burns, was born in Richland Co., Ohio, Sep. 2, 1819. He received his education at Ashland Academy, Ohio, and studied Theology privately with Rev. H. Hervey. He was licensed and ordained by Richland Presbytery in 1850, and settled over the Millwood Church, Ohio.

He was married to Miss Sarah H. Crabb, who with a family of four children survive him.

Mr. B. was a ripe scholar and a successful teacher, being Principal of a High School at the time of his death, he had also taught in the Academy at Martinsburgh, Ohio. He was somewhat retiring in his manners, though very companionable, being much beloved by his brethren; he died at Millwood, Ohio, April 13, 1859, of Inflammation of the Spine.

Carnahan, James—The son of Major Carnahan of the Revolutionary army, and Hannah (Mahon) Carnahan, was born Nov. 15, 1775, near Carlisle, Pa. His ancestors were from the North of Ireland, and settled in Pennsylvania about 1820. In 1780 his father removed to near Pittsburgh. August 10, 1793, he commenced his education at Canonsburgh. In 1798 he entered the College of N. Jersey at Princeton, where in 1800 he graduated with the highest honour, speaking the English salutatory. He returned to Canonsburgh and read Theology under John McMillan, D.D., for a year, when he became tutor in the College of New Jersey, where he remained until 1803, during which time he continued his studies in Theology under President S. Stanhope Smith. In April 1804 he was licensed by the Presbytery of New Brunswick, and laboured within the bounds of the Presbytery. Jan. 5, 1805, he was ordained pastor of Whitesborough and Utica Churches, New York, where he remained till 1814, when he removed to Georgetown, D. C., on account of his health, and opened a Classical Academy, which was quite prosperous. In 1823 he was chosen President of the College of New Jersey. For thirty years he remained at the head of this eminent institution of learning, but his health failing, and the usual infirmities of age appearing, he resigned in 1853. He remained a member of the Board of Trustees until his death, at which time he was also President of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J. He removed to the residence of his son-in-law, William K. McDonald, Esq., Newark, N. J., where he died March 3, 1859. Many of his Baccalaureate Addresses were published. He wrote for the early Numbers of the Princeton Review, and in 1856 edited the Life of Rev. Dr. Johnston of Newburgh, N. Y. Though a forcible writer, with great perspicuity of style, he was very reluctant to appear as an author, so much so that he expressly stated in his will that none of his lectures or other manuscripts, should be published. He married, December 1, 1803, Mary Van Dyke of Mapleton, N. J. Mrs. C. died August 15, 1854, leaving two daughters, one the wife of Rev. L. H. Van Doren, Pastor of the Spring street Presbyterian Church, New York; the other, Mrs. W. K. McDonald of Newark. His funeral took place at Princeton, N. J., and business in the town was suspended; the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. McDonald. At the grave, the Rev. Dr. Maclean, President of the College of New Jersey, made some remarks, and after a prayer and the benediction, the company departed, leaving beside the bodies of Burr, Edwards, Davies, Witherspoon, Smith, and Green, that of their venerated compeer, James Carnahan.

Center, Samuel—The son of John S. and Phoebe Center, was born in Hoosick, N. Y., June 14, 1794. He graduated at Middlebury College, Vermont, and studied Theology under Rev. John M. Mason, D.D., and subsequently in Rutgers' College, New Brunswick, N. J., where he graduated. He was licensed by the Classis of New Brunswick. He was ordained by the Presbytery of Albany, Sep. 19, 1828, and preached first at Herkimer, and afterwards at Moreau, N. York. He married Miss Isabella Jane Kirk of New York, a sister of Rev. E. N. Kirk, D.D., of Boston, Mass., they had two children. He was better known as a teacher, at one time (1837) being a Professor in the University in Monroe, Michigan, afterwards principal of a Classical Academy at Albany, N. Y., then Professor in the Albany Academy, and at his death he was Principal of the Academy at Angelica, N. York. He died at his residence in Angelica, Allegheny, Co., N. Y., January 27, 1859, after a short illness of congestion of the lungs. He was a faithful, laborious, and successful teacher.

Cornish, Samuel E.—(Coloured) was born in New York in 1793. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Oct. 31, 1819, and ordained by the Presbytery of New York in 1822, in 1823 he was called to the First African Church, Philadelphia, where he preached for some years. In 1845, he joined the Presbytery of New York, and preached as a missionary to the coloured people of New York city, and organized Emmanuel Church, here he laboured faithfully until 1847, when he resigned his charge. In 1855 he removed to Brooklyn, L. I., and became a member of Nassau Presbytery; here he lived, preaching occasionally until the autumn of 1858, when after a lingering illness he died.

Curtis, Joseph E.—The son of Levi and Rhoda Curtis, was born in Wethersfield, Conn., Oct. 9, 1789. His parents removed to Lenox, Mass., where some of his relatives still reside, here his academical studies were pursued, he entered William College, Mass., and graduated in 1815, and emigrated to Virginia, where he married Mrs. Elizabeth Lumpkin. During the first years of his residence in Va., he taught school quite successfully. He studied Theology under Rev. Dr. John H. Rice, and was licensed by Hanover Presbytery in 1828, ordained in April 1830, and installed pastor of Powhatan Church, Va., Dec. 3, 1831, this pastoral relation existed until 1842; during his pastorate the Church prospered exceedingly, from a faithful attention to all his duties. Soon after he left this charge, his throat became so much affected by bronchitis as to disable him from preaching. However, when his health permitted, he acted as agent for the Virginia Bible Society.

The last four years of his life were spent in the midst of the people of his first and only charge, where the influence of his example was felt for good. He suffered long from various diseases, bronchitis, disease of heart, and lastly pneumonia; under this complication he sunk and died at his residence in Montrose, Va, March 1, 1859. His remains were at his request carried to Richmond, Va., and buried beside those of his family, (all of whom died before him,) being his wife and six children. He bequeathed the greater part of his property to the Boards of the Presbyterian Church, and the Virginia Bible Society, in equal shares.

Condict, Edward W.—The son of Edward L., and Lucy A. (King) Condict, was born in Morristown, N. J., January 17, 1833. He graduated at the College of New Jersey; studied Theology in the Seminary at Princeton; he attended the full course, and left in 1856. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Passaic, and was dismissed to join the Presbytery of Lewes in Oct. 1858, as a missionary within their bounds. Being taken ill soon after reaching his field of labour, he returned home and died, Nov. 28, 1858, of congestion of the lungs.

Crabb, John M.—The son of John and Esther Crabb, was born in Garrard Co., Ky., in 1804. He studied in the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated. After studying Theology in the Western Seminary at Allegheny City, Pa., for six months, he went to Auburn Seminary, N. Y., where he finished the usual course. He was licensed and ordained May 15, 1838, his first Churches were Eaton and Alexandria, he subsequently became pastor of Lima, West Bethesda, and Union Churches, Ohio. He was a devoted labourer, one of the pioneers of the Church; he was the father of Presbyterianism in Maumee Valley, ever faithful to his calling, working long after disease had made sad havoc with a strong constitution. Dropsy, complicated with other diseases, with a tendency to paralysis, carried him to his grave; he died at his residence in Bryan, Ohio, March 17, 1859.

He married Miss Amanda R. Root, May 17, 1838; She died January 1, 1848. He married Miss Mahitable Ford, May 31, 1849; she died Oct. 9, 1853. He married Miss Catherine Reece, March 20, 1855, who, with four children of his first wife, survives him.

Davis, Samuel Hamner—The son of James L. and Elizabeth G. Davis, was born in Frederick Co., Md., Oct. 14, 1833. He entered Hampden Sidney College, Va., and graduated in 1853. He studied Theology in the Union Seminary, Va., and was licensed by the Presbytery of Baltimore in 1856, was ordained by the Presbytery of East Hanover, the first Sabbath in May 1857, and installed pastor of Amelia and Namozine Churches in Va. This relationship existed but a short season, he was taken ill at his residence at Amelia, C. H., Va., and died July 19th, 1858, of a fever.

He married Miss Elizabeth W. Carthers, a grand daughter of Rev. Samuel B. Wilson, D.D., Professor in the Union Theological Seminary. His wife and only son survive him.

During his brief career in the ministry he won the hearts of the people, who, in testimony of their affection, erected a costly monument to his memory. He was buried at his own request near the pulpit, "where he loved to proclaim salvation through the cross."

Dorrance, Benjamin C.—The son of Rev. John and Penelope Dorrance, was born Nov. 8, 1832, in Wysox, Pa. He graduated at the College of New Jersey, and studied Theology in the Seminary at Danville, Ky. He was licensed by Luzerne Presbytery in 1858, and was labouring as a missionary at Minneapolis, Min., but the continued failing of his health constrained him to return to his father's house in Wilkesbarre, Pa., where he died, February 2, 1859, of consumption.

His health began to fail ere his seminary course was finished; after his licensure, he preached for several months in the bounds of his Presbytery; his discourses were characterized by earnestness and simplicity. Descending from a Scotch-Irish lineage, he manifested many indications of power; and those who heard him preach during the short time he was permitted to labour in his master's cause, retain a lively and pleasant recollection of the faithfulness and sincerity of his sermons.

Evans, Samuel Newell—The son of Jesse and Hester (Newell) Evans, was born in Pulaski Co., Ky., Nov. 12, 1812. His father was one of the early settlers in Indiana, removing there in 1816; he gave his son, the eldest of his family, as good an education as the country afforded. He entered Bloomington College in 1827, the disruption of the faculty at Bloomington scattered the students, and Mr. Evans entered Hanover College, Ind.; here he remained six years, alternately teaching and labouring to assist in his education. In 1839 he entered the Theological Seminary at New Albany, in 1842 he was licensed by Salem Presbytery, (the name of this Presbytery was changed to New Albany in 1849,) and under a commission from the Board of Domestic Missions, he laboured in Missouri, first at Hannibal, and alternately teaching, preaching, and itinerating through Alabama and Mississippi for several years; he returned to Indiana, and was ordained by Salem Presbytery in 1845, and became pastor of Bedford Church, Ind.; in 1847 he removed to Thorntown, and laboured successively in Lebanon, Prairieville, Darlington, and Pisgah Churches. In 1853 he was called to Waveland, where he remained until 1855, when he went to Stillwater, Min.; he left Minnesota, fearing the rigorous climate, his health being impaired from his many missionary labors. In 1856 he was settled in Lane, Ill., here he attended to his calling with his usual zeal, the membership increased, and a neat comfortable house of worship built, which was dedicated the Sabbath previous to his death, during a communion season; a meeting of Presbytery was held in his Church the week succeeding the dedication of the Church, and whilst he was walking near his dwelling, he was killed by lightning, Sept. 30, 1858.

He married in 1845 Miss Mary Woodruff, of New Albany, Ind., who, with three children, survives him.

Mr. Evans was an active, self-denying minister, in "labours abundant," itinerating, teaching, always ready and willing to work, and though suffering from impaired health, he never spared himself in placing before sinners "the Way of Life."

French, John B.—The son of George and Maria French, was born at Eden Bower, a few miles from Georgetown, D. C., in 1822. After pursuing the usual elementary and academical studies, he entered Columbian College, D. C., where he graduated in 1842, he studied Theology at Princeton, and completed his course in 1845. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Baltimore, and by the same Presbytery ordained as an Evangelist on the 9th of June, 1846, and soon after sailed as a missionary to Canton, China, and became a member of the Presbytery of Canton. In 1851 he married Miss Mary H. Ball, daughter of Rev. D. Ball, M. D., missionary at Canton, they had two children. His constant attention to his missionary labours had broken down his health, and he started with his family on a visit to the United States, they left Canton Nov. 11th, but a few days after sailing, he was taken ill, and died at sea Nov. 30th 1858, of dysentery.

Galbraith, James—The son of Robert and Parthenia (Findly) Galbraith, was born near Hunterstown, Adams Co., Pa., in 1780. He attended Jefferson College, Pa., in 1797, being one of the founders of the Franklin Society. He studied Theology privately with the Rev. Dr. King of Franklin Co., Pa., and was licensed by the Presbytery of Redstone, ordained by the same Presbytery in 1807, as pastor of Mahoning and Indiana Churches, subsequently in 1828 he preached for Franks-town and Williamsburgh Churches, in Huntingdon Presbytery. In 1841 he was staired supply of Middle Sandy Church, New Lisbon Presbytery; in 1843, of Weathersfield and Rehoboth; for several years past he gave up preaching at any appointed station, but as his health permitted, he preached occasionally within the bounds of his Presbytery; as he increased in years his health gave way, until he quietly "fell asleep," March 28, 1858, owing to a gradual decline of nature.

He left one son who is a minister. He was a man of sterling integrity, faithful in the discharge of all duties.

Goodrich, Hiram P.—The son of Benjamin D., and Elizabeth (Plummer) Goodrich, was born in 1800, at Richmond, Mass. After receiving a good education, he graduated at Union College, N. Y., and studied Theology at Princeton, N. J., he was licensed by Albany Presbytery in 1825. On leaving Princeton in 1826, he was elected Professor in the Union Theological Seminary, Va., he also laboured as an evangelist through the destitute portions of the Presbytery of West Hanover, working earnestly for the good of souls. On resigning his professorship, he went to Missouri, and entered fully upon his Master's cause, first at Marion, where he was also President of the College, then Jefferson city, St. Louis, and Carondelet, winning souls to Christ, building churches, and working with apostolic zeal; whilst thus employed, his labours were ended; after a severe attack of Ills he died, May 19, 1859.

Greene, Zachariah—The son of Samuel and Jane Greene, was born Jan. 11, 1760, in Stafford, Conn. His grand-parents by his mother's side, were from Ireland, his mother was descended from Peregrine White, who was the first white child born in New England. When the revolutionary struggles began he joined the army, and was present on the Dorchester Heights, at the landing of the British at Throgg's Neck, at the battle of White Plains, N. Y., and in Nov. 1777, he was wounded by a musket ball in the shoulder, at the battle of White Marsh, Pa., which disabled him from further duty. On his recovery, he entered upon a course of liberal education, and in 1782, entered Dartmouth College, at Hanover, N. H. In the winter of 1782-3 there was a general awakening on the subject of religion, when he with about 50 others united with the Church under Rev. Sylvanus Ripley. His health failing, he did not remain in college to graduate, but having his thoughts turned towards the ministry, he studied Theology privately under Rev. Dr. Huntingdon, of Coventry, Conn., and subsequently with Rev. Dr. Green, of Hanover, N. J., the father of Rev. Ashbel Green, D. D., LL. D. He was licensed to preach by the Morris Presbytery, (a kind of Independent Presbytery) January 1, 1785, and by the same Presbytery ordained and installed over the Church in Cuthogue, Long Island, N. Y., June 28th, 1787. From the time of his being licensed until his installation, he preached as an itinerant missionary in N. York, Connecticut, and New Jersey. On June 28th, 1786, he married Miss Sarah Fleet of Huntington, Long Island, N. Y., she died in 1791, leaving four children. On Sept. 14, 1793, he married Miss Abigail Howard of Newtown, Long Island, N. Y., she died in 1849, in her 84th year, by his second wife he had five children. He remained in his first charge 10 years, when he was called to Setauket, Long Island, and was installed by the Suffolk County Presbytery, Sep. 27, 1797; here he remained until his death, as pastor for sixty-one years. The Rev. James S. Evans was installed junior pastor of Setauket Church, March 19, 1850.

On the death of his wife in 1849, he removed to Hempstead, L. I., N. Y., and resided with his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin F. Thompson. Here he died after a brief illness, on Monday, June 20, 1858, in the evening, aged 98 years, 5 months, and 10 days. His disease was a general breaking down of his system, though he retained his faculties to the last, calm, resigned, and even cheerful, his affairs all arranged, the text for his funeral sermon selected, no doubt or fear troubled him. The degree of A. B., was conferred upon him by Dartmouth College in 1800, and his name enrolled among its Alumni in 1858. He was the first President of the Old Suffolk Co. Bible Society, organized in 1815.

Hadden, Joseph B.—The son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Baker) Hadden, was born in Spartanburg District, S. C., July 25, 1804, and there received his early education, he was a student in the College at Nashville, Tenn., and studied Theology in the Princeton Seminary, and on completing his studies, he was licensed by New Brunswick Presbytery in 1838, was ordained in 1840 by the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, and preached in Marion, Bethany, Freedom, and Livingston Churches, Ky. In 1852 he removed to Iowa, and preached for the Church at Maquoketa, in the bounds of Cedar Presbytery, and in 1854, in Andrew and Farmer's Creek Churches. He was one of the original members of the Presbytery of Dubuque. He died at his residence in Andrew, Jackson Co., Iowa, July 11, 1855, of consumption.

He married Miss Eliza J. Elder of Ky., who, with five children, survives.

Hall, Nathan H.—The son of Rev. Randall Hall, was born in Franklin Co., Virginia, in 1783. His father, a Baptist minister, removed to Garrard Co., Ky., in 1799. During the revival of 1801, Nathan became happily converted, and placed himself under the teachings of Joshua L. Wilson D.D., of Cincinnati, and Thomas Clelland, D.D., with whom he studied Theology. In 1805 he was licensed by the Presbytery of Transylvania, and in June 1807 ordained and installed by the same Presbytery, over Springfield, Hardins Creek, and Lebanon churches, Ky.; here he laboured until 1822, when he became pastor of the first Presbyterian Church at Lexington, being installed, May 1823. In 1847 he resigned this charge and became an evangelist, in this position his labours were many and highly blessed of God; as a revival preacher he was never excelled. In 1849 he removed to Missouri, and in the winter of 1849-50 he preached in the Central Church, St. Louis, in 1851 he was installed pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Columbia, Mo., and became a member of the Presbytery of Missouri. He was pastor of this Church until a few weeks prior to his death, which took place at the residence of his son-in-law, R. L. Todd, June 22, 1858, of gravel, in connection with the infirmities of age.

He married twice; first, Miss Crawford; second, Mrs. Elizabeth Trotter, a sister of Gov. John Pope.

Hays, Oliver Bliss.—Was born in South Hadley, Mass., May 21, 1783. His father was Rev. Joel Hays, a minister of the Congregational Church; his early training was carefully attended to by his parents, and after going through College, he became a student of Law. On being admitted to the bar, he turned his attention to the south-west, and emigrated to Nashville, Tenn., and there began his career as a lawyer in 1808. For twenty years he laboured faithfully and successfully, and was at the head of his profession, when in 1830 he was led to devote his talents to the ministry, and on the 11th of October of that year, was licensed by the Presbytery of West Tennessee, and soon after ordained by the same Presbytery to preach the Gospel.

He entered into his new field of labour with his accustomed zeal, devoting his life to preaching to the poor and destitute portions in the vicinity of Nashville. His health gradually gave away, and being threatened with an affection of the heart, and an impairing of his vision, he for the last few years did little more than preach occasionally. He died of dropsy Nov. 1, 1858, in the 76th year of his age.

He married, Feb. 6, 1812, Miss Sarah E. Hightower, of Williamson Co., Tenn.; they had eleven children, six of whom, with his widow, survive him; he was well known and greatly beloved, and his death was felt as a public calamity by the citizens of Nashville.

Janeway, Jacob J.—The son of George and Effie Janeway, was born in New York city, Nov. 1774. Receiving the usual academical instruction for young men in his position, he entered Columbia College, and graduated in 1794. Having experienced a change of heart soon after leaving College, he gave up the study of medicine, and turned his thoughts to the ministry, and studied Theology at the Reformed Dutch Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J., under Rev. Dr. John H. Livingston. He was licensed by the Classis of New York in 1798. In 1799 he was ordained by the Presbytery of Philadelphia, as colleague pastor with Rev. Ashbel Green, D.D., of the 2nd Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia; these two ministers laboured together until 1812, when Dr. Green became President of the College of N. J. Dr. Thonas H. Skinner was called soon after to be colleague, which he retained until 1816, when Dr. Janeway became sole pastor of this Church, (which then stood in Arch Street.) until 1826. In 1818 he was elected Moderator of the General Assembly. In 1828 he was appointed by the General Assembly Professor of Theology in the Western Seminary, at Allegheny City, Pa., at that time just starting, where he remained until the following year.

In 1830 he accepted a call from the 1st Reformed Dutch Church in New Brunswick, and continued pastor two years. In 1833 he was elected Vice-President of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, which he retained until 1839. In 1838 he was President (Moderator) of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church. During the year 1839 he reunited with the Presbyterian Church, joining the Presbytery of New York 2nd, and in 1843 he joined the Presbytery of New Brunswick, he continued a member of this Presbytery, and thenceforth took an active part in all the various forms of benevolence in which the Presbyterian Church is so largely engaged, as a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions, as President of the Board of Domestic Missions, as President of the Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, and as Trustee of the College of New Jersey; he has by his wise counsels, his punctuality, and by his influence and example contributed largely to the prosperity of the Church, and her institutions. His liberality was marked, giving conscientiously one fifth of his annual income; he was always on hand for every good cause and work. He was kind, affectionate, easy of access, and was loved by all. His health, owing to increasing years, gradually declined, until he quietly fell asleep, at his residence in New Brunswick, N. J., June 27, 1858.

He married Miss Martha G. Leiper; his children, five sons and two daughters, survive him. He was the author of Letters on the Abrahamic Covenant, Mode of Baptism, Essays on the Inability of Sinners, Letters on the Atonement, Internal evidence of the Bible, Communicant's Manual, Questions on the Romans, The Hebrews, and the Acts, Review of Schaff on Protestantism, besides many pamphlets on miscellaneous subjects.

Large, James K—Was a licentiate of the Philadelphia 2nd Presbytery. His collegiate preparation was received at West Alexandria Academy, Pa., he attended the Western Theological Seminary one year, and Princeton Seminary two years; leaving the latter in 1857, he went to Iowa, labouring as a colporteur and preaching occasionally; but his frame, though robust, had been gradually undermined, and he died of consumption, March 18, 1858.

He was humble and industrious; having to work his own way, he revealed a great deal of energy, struggling nobly with adversity, especially that of poverty. But he felt that a full trust in God's providence was the highest mark of Christian duty, and prompted him to that complete consecration to the service of his Master, which his career, though brief, fully indicated.

Locke, William E.—Was born in the city of New York, where in early boyhood, showing a great thirst for knowledge, he received a good education at the High School in which he subsequently became an assistant teacher. At an early age he gave evidence of a change of heart, and on the 1st of August 1830, he joined the Oliver Street Baptist Church, then under the care of the Rev. Spencer Cone, D.D. His father wished him to engage in the mercantile profession, but such was his conviction that it was his duty to preach the gospel, that he had to refuse, thereby incurring his father's displeasure; when thus abandoned by his father, the Lord raised up friends who aided him in the prosecution of his studies. He took charge of the Mantua Manual Labour Institute in N. York, for one year, and on the 9th of March, 1833 he was licensed to preach in the Baptist Church. He entered the junior class of the Hamilton Institute, now called Madison University; there he remained until 1835. He received and accepted a call from the Church in Messina, N. Y., and was ordained Aug. 18, 1836. In 1837, he removed to Gro-venor Church, N. Y., and Aug. 13, 1837, he married Miss Harriet N. Kinne, of Chenango, N. Y. Early in 1839, he removed to Freemansburgh, and in 1843 to Sing Sing, N. Y. In 1848 to Scotch Plains, N. J., and in 1849 to Armenia, N. Y. During the winter his views concerning baptism underwent a change, and he felt it his duty to change his ecclesiastical relation, which he did Oct. 2, 1850, being received, after the usual examination, by the Presbytery of Elizabethtown. He was soon called to the Presbyterian Church at Springfield, N. J., here he was prostrated by a violent attack of typhoid fever, which broke up his system so that he never regained his health: he quit preaching, and took charge of the Female Collegiate Institute in Lancaster, Pa., he remained here until August 1857, when he removed to Missouri, and took charge of the Van Rensselaer Presbyterian Academy, under the control of Palmyra Presbytery, in Ral's Co., Mo. At the end of his first quarter in his new position, he was taken ill with typhoid fever, and died Nov. 15, 1858. His talents as a teacher were of a high order, and in the various places in which he was called upon to labour, he made warm friends.

Mackey, Elkanah D.—The son of William and Sarah (Martin) Mackey, was born in Colerain township, Lancaster Co., Pa., Sept. 16, 1826. His family were of Scotch-Irish descent. He was a graduate of the College of New Jersey in 1852, and received the first honours of his class, and pursued his Theological studies in the Seminary at Princeton, graduating in 1856. He was licensed by the Presbytery of New Castle in 1855, and spent the summer preaching in Chester Co., Pa. In 1856 he was ordained as a missionary to the American Indians in Nebraska Territory; previous to leaving, he married Miss Sarah E. Armstrong, of Cecil Co., Md.

In 1857 whilst on a visit to Maryland, he was called to the Snow Hill, Pitts Creek, and Newtown Churches, Md., which he accepted, and was installed. Whilst assisting the Rev. A. C. Beaton at Princess Anne, Md., during a communion season, he was seized with the malignant bilious fever, of which he died Sept. 6, 1858. He was a brother of Rev. James L. Mackey, missionary at Crisco, Africa, and Rev. William D. Mackey, who is his successor in Snow Hill, and Pitts Creek Churches, Md. His only child survived him but a short time, and they were buried together in the same grave. His brief career gave evidence of faithfulness and earnestness, being noted for his activity and zeal in the Master's cause, and he was rapidly gaining the affection of the people of his charge.

Maltbie, Ebenezer Davenport—Was born Jan. 20, 1799, in Stamford, Conn. His father David Maltbie, was a leading citizen of the town, and his mother was a descendant of John Davenport, D.D., of Puritan memory, for many years a minister in New Haven, Conn. His family removing to New York city, he entered into the mercantile business. In March 1817, he made a public profession of religion, joining the Brick Church, and became an active living Christian. At the age of 21, the term of his engagement in the mercantile house having expired, he devoted himself to preparing for the ministry, he pursued his preparatory studies under the charge of his uncle, Rev. Ebenezer Davenport, at his school in Stamford, Conn., and entered Hamilton College, N. Y., in the fall of 1821, and graduated in the summer of 1824; in the following autumn he entered the Theological Seminary at Andover, Mass., which he left at the end of his second year, 1826, to accept an appointment as tutor in Hamilton College, N. Y. In Sept. 1831, he married Miss Mary A. Davis, daughter of Rev. Dr. Davis, President of Hamilton College. He was licensed and ordained by the Oneida Association in 1832, and installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Hamilton, N. Y. Under the arduous labours he assumed, his health failed, and he resigned his pastorate. In 1841 he joined the Presbytery of Troy, and took charge of the Hudson River Academy, which he retained for two years, and left to become the principal of a Literary Institution, in Lansingburg, N. Y.; at the end of eight years he resigned on account of his health failing. He was one of the original members of Mohawk Presbytery, organized in 1851, when removing to Clinton, and afterwards to Syracuse, N. Y., where he died, of the disease of the Prostate gland. He was truly honoured and beloved by all who knew him, and where his efforts were unwearied in devising and furthering many works of charity and piety.

Mandeville, Henry—The son of George and Elizabeth Mandeville, was born in Kinderhook, N. Y., March 6, 1804. He was of Huguenot descent, and gave evidence of a change of heart when quite a youth, making a profession of religion in the sixteenth year of his age. Looking forward to the ministry, he commenced his education, graduating at Union College, N. Y., in 1826; studying Theology in the Seminary of the Reformed Dutch Church, at New Brunswick, N. J.; was licensed by the Classis of Orange, and ordained pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church of Shawangunk, N. Y., from thence he was called to Geneva, N. Y., where he organized a Church, and after establishing it, left, and was called to Utica, N. Y., as successor of Rev. Dr. Bethune. Here he laboured several years, and his success was marked. He was elected to a Professorship in Hamilton College, N. Y.; during this time wrote a work on Romans, The Primary Reader, the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Readers, also a volume on Reading and Oratory. These works were published in Albany, and whilst in that city attending to their publication, he was called to take charge of the 4th Presbyterian Church, (N. S.) This Church under his ministration was blessed with a revival. He identified himself with the Temperance Reformation, being Corresponding Secretary of the State Temperance Society. In the winter of 1852-3 he went to the South, and temporarily supplied the pulpit of the Government Street Church, Mobile, Ala. In 1854 the Church becoming vacant, he was called to become their pastor, which he accepted, and joined the South Alabama Presbytery; from that time until his death, he laboured faithfully and successfully, being blessed with many revivals in his Church. He died of yellow fever, Oct. 2, 1858. His death cast a gloom over the city, being viewed in the light of a public calamity, and all classes of citizens attended his funeral, the services being conducted by Rev. W. Meikle of the 3rd Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Mr. Collins of the Baptist Church.

He married Miss Harriet Kirtland, who with one son, Dorrance K. Mandeville, M. D., survives him.

He was a ripe scholar, a devoted and eloquent preacher, and a clear and patient thinker; as a pastor, he was loved by all; warm and affectionate, he will ever live in the hearts of those who knew him.

Marshall, John—Was born Jan. 13, 1813, in Washington Co., Pa. His father removing in 1831 to Ohio, his early education was received in St. Clairsville, O. In 1837 he entered Franklin College, O., and graduated in 1839; he studied Theology in the Seminary of the Associate Presbyterian Church, in Canonsburg, Pa.; he was licensed by the Associate Presbytery of Muskingum, June 27, 1843. Having received a call, he was ordained and installed pastor of the Associate Presbyterian Churches of Londonderry and West Chester, Ohio; in this connection he laboured faithfully and zealously. Owing to the discussion going on in anticipation of the union between the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches, his mind was directed to the prayerful and considerate investigation of their views concerning Psalmody and Intercommunion, which resulted in his changing his ecclesiastical connection, and joining in 1854 the Presbytery of St. Clairsville. He passed a year itinerating throughout the bounds of the Presbytery, and in Oct. 1855 he became stated supply for Woodfield Church, Ohio. He remained here until May 1857, when he was called to the Churches of Doddsville and Huntsville, Ill., in Schuyler Presbytery; he was taken ill, and after a protracted illness of typhoid fever, died, Aug. 24, 1858.

Mr. Marshall married, May 22, 1844, Miss Jane R. Donahy, of Washington Co., Pa., who died Aug. 25, 1849. On Oct. 22, 1857, he married Miss Sarah Lizzie Kerr, of West Greenville, Pa., who, with an only son, survives him. Mr. Marshall was a plain, practical, and zealous preacher; during the last year of his life, his labours were blessed with a revival in Doddsville Church, twenty four being added to the membership. He was social, affable, and his whole deportment that of a Christian gentleman.

Mayer, J. C.—Was born, May 4, 1835, in Korb, Wurttemberg. He was educated near Basle, Switzerland, and attended the Seminary at St. Christiana. He left his native land and settled in Texas, where he was licensed by the Lutheran Synod of Texas. On coming to New Orleans he organized a German Church, and was to have been ordained the day he was taken with his fatal illness, yellow fever. He died, Aug. 24, 1858.

Moore, James G.—Was born Nov. 30, 1813, near Johnsonburgh, N. J. He was a son of Josiah and Elizabeth Moore, but his father died and left his family in humble circumstances, and the training of the household devolved upon the mother. Mrs. Moore was a woman of decided piety, industrious and frugal, and brought up her children, six in number, in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord." At the age of eleven years, James was apprenticed to a tailor in Newton, N. J., and during his apprenticeship, he became interested in the subject of personal religion, and joined Rev. Dr. Shaffer's Church in Newton; through the influence of his pastor, he turned his attention to the ministry. At the age of twenty-one, he entered Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., and studied Theology at Princeton, N. J. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Newton, and ordained by Luzerne Presbytery in 1845, and installed pastor of the Church at Beaver Meadow, Pa. He resigned this charge for a Reformed Dutch Church at Montague, N. J., where he remained until the spring of 1849. He then took charge of a Presbyterian Academy at Blairstown, N. J., under the care of the Newton Presbytery, where the close confinement broke down his health, and in 1851 he removed to Croton Falls, N. York, in Bedford Presbytery, and took charge of a small select school, but he could not regain his health. He joined Passaic Presbytery, and in 1853 moved west, supposing that a change of climate might be beneficial, but all in vain; he sunk under consumption, and died at his residence near Philadelphia, Marion Co., Mo., May 28, 1858. The great desire of his soul was to regain his health, that he might preach the gospel. He was a liberal supporter of all the Boards of our Church.

He married, Sept. 1, 1845, Miss Mary L. Hommedieu, of Hamburg, N. J., who, with three daughters, survives him.

Morgan, Archibald M.—The son of Enoch and Elizabeth Morgan, was born in 1820, in Dallas Co., Ala. He received all the education afforded in the vicinity of his birth, and graduated at Madison College. He studied Theology at Princeton, N. J., and was licensed by the Presbytery of New Brunswick in 1842. In 1843 he returned home and joined the Presbytery of South Alabama, and became stated supply for Fairview and Newbern Churches, until 1846, when he was ordained pastor of Newbern Church; this relation existed until 1856, when owing to his failing health he resigned his charge; in 1857 he became a member of Ouachita Presbytery. His disease being a spinal affection, gradually produced paralysis, and after protracted suffering, he died at his residence near Washington, Ark., Nov. 18, 1858. He was much beloved by all who knew him. Earnestly anxious to be useful, after being laid aside from preaching, he superintended the Sabbath-school. He left behind him a character for devoted piety and Christian gentleness.

He was twice married, first to Miss C. E. Chapman; his second wife was Miss Quintilla Dobbin, who, with an only son, survives him.

McCullough, Robert—Was born in Ireland, and received a classical education in the College at Belfast, coming to this country, he entered Princeton Theological Seminary. In 1848 he was licensed and ordained pastor of Mt. Grove and Hopewell Churches, Ohio, in Zanesville Presbytery, here he remained until 1856, when he went to California; on his return from the Pacific coast, he became connected with the New Lisbon Presbytery, but of late he preached very little; he died,.....

McQueen, Jr., George—Was born at Schenectady, N. York, in 1826. Studied at Union College, N. Y., where he graduated in 1849, and entered the Seminary at Princeton, N. Jersey. He was licensed and ordained by the Presbytery of Albany in 1852, in the Church at Schenectady, and soon after sailed for Africa, as a member of the Corisco Mission; here he labored until 1859, when owing to impaired health, he was about to leave for the United States, when he was attacked with the African fever at Ugovi, Africa, and died March 25, 1859.

He married Miss Georgiana M. Bliss, who, with an infant son, survives him.

Nelson, J. S.—Was born in New York in 1820. He became a licentiate of Huntingdon Presbytery in 1855, having previously been residing in Maryland. He was a teacher of some note. He went out west, locating first in Lancaster, Ohio, and subsequently in Boone Co., Ky., where he commenced the establishment of an Academy. His health gave way under the labour and exposure to which he subjected himself, and he died of typhoid pneumonia, Feb. 6, 1859.

Ogden, John W.—Was born Dec. 24, 1793, near Bardstown, Ky. His father was the Rev. Benjamin Ogden, a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, who superintended the early education of his son. During the war with Great Britain, of 1812, he was in the army under General Harrison. On leaving the army he was licensed by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and ordained in 1817 as an Evangelist. In 1844 he changed his Church relation, by joining the Presbytery of Nashville. He soon after entered upon the work of a missionary, under a commission from the Board of Domestic Missions, and as such laboured faithfully and zealously. Blessed with a large frame and vigorous constitution, he travelled continually, preaching from place to place in the destitution of Presbytery. He was thus employed when called to his rest—dying at Nashville, Tenn., of pneumonia, April 5, 1859.

He married four times, and had a family of eight children.

Pickard, John H.—Was born in March 1783, in Orange Co., N. Carolina. His early education was limited, he studied privately, and was not a graduate of any college. In 1816 he was licensed by the Orange Presbytery, and installed over Stony Creek and Bethesda Churches, in N. C. Here he laboured devotedly and patiently for upwards of thirty years. During the later years of his life he preached in the destitute portions of the neighbourhood, which, owing to his failing health and partial loss of sight, was only occasionally. Though energetic, he was known as an humble and fervent Christian, but the infirmities of increasing years grew upon him, and he died in his 76th year, Sept. 11, 1858. His wife was a Miss Anna Forrest, who still survives him; they were childless.

Post, Reuben—Was born in Cornwall, Vermont, in 1792. His parents were blessed with a son who loved the Lord in his youth; as soon as his academical studies were completed, he entered Middlebury College, Vermont, and graduated with honor in 1814. He studied Theology at the Seminary at Princeton, and completed his course in 1818. On leaving the Seminary, he spent some time as missionary in Virginia, having been licensed by Presbytery. He received and accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., and was ordained in 1819, and installed by the Presbytery of District of Columbia, here he laboured with success; during two sessions he was chaplain to the Senate of the United States.

In 1836 he received a call from the Circular Church, Charleston, S. C., which he accepted, and became a member of Charleston Union Presbytery. Here he laboured faithfully and zealously for twenty-three years, when he was taken ill, during the prevalence of yellow fever, and died Sept. 24, 1858. He left one son and a daughter.

He was a very attentive pastor, visiting all the members and families of his congregation once a year, and always on hand to soothe the widow and fatherless. Although absent from the city when the yellow fever broke out, he hastened home to relieve the sick and dying, and attend to his other pastoral duties; during these labours he was himself stricken down. He was a noted man in the community of Charleston. His funeral sermon was preached by J. L. Kirkpatrick, D.D., pastor of Glebe Street Church, and published.

Ryars, Alfred—Was born on Long Island, N. Y., in 1812. His parents dying when he was a little child, nothing is known of his ancestry. He came under the notice of the venerable Dr. Steel of Abington, Pa. who aided him to acquire an education, and who took a father's interest in his welfare. Having perfected his academical studies, he entered Jefferson College at Canonsburg, Pa., where he graduated in 1835, and became tutor in Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., where he spent one year. In 1836 he was elected Professor of Mathematics in the Ohio University, at Athens, Ohio. During this time he was studying Theology privately, and in the fall of 1838, he was licensed by the Presbytery of Philadelphia 2nd, he retained his Professorship in the Ohio University until 1844, when he was elected Professor of Mathematics in the Indiana University, at Bloomington, Ind. During this period he was ordained to preach the gospel, but was never installed as pastor over any Church. He remained at the Indiana University until 1848, when he was recalled to the Ohio University, and elected President, which office he held until 1853, when he left for the Indiana University, and became stated supply of the Church at Madison, Ind., until June 1854, when he was elected Professor of Mathematics of Centre College, at Danville, Ky. He was also stated supply for New Providence Church, Ky., and was co-pastor (elect) with Professor Green of the Second Church, Danville, Ky. He died of erysipelas, May 8, 1858.

His wife, who is still living, was a Miss Louisa Walker, daughter of Hon. Judge Walker of Hocking, Ohio. He left a family of three sons and two daughters. His eldest son is preparing for the ministry under the care of Transylvania Presbytery.

He was a careful writer, a good man, and as a Professor, was eminently distinguished for his attainments, and for the success with which he taught his classes.

Simonton, L. A.—Was born in Newton Co., Geo., in 1830. He was a graduate of Oglethorpe College, Geo., and studied Theology in the Seminary at Columbia, S. C. In the spring of 1855, the Presbytery of Flint River licensed him, and he supplied the pulpit of Rev. Mr. Flinn of Milledgeville, during the following summer. In 1857 he was ordained by Hopewell Presbytery, and installed pastor of Sparta and Mount Zion Churches, Geo.

He married Miss Annie Peck, of Columbia, S. C., they had three children. His health was frail, and he died in Sparta, Geo., of consumption, March 31, 1859.

Smalley, Elam—The son of Ezra and Mary Smalley, was born at Dartmouth, Mass., Oct. 27, 1805. He graduated at Brown University, Providence, R. I. He studied Theology privately, and was licensed by the Mendon Congregational Association of Mass., and ordained by council according to Congregational usage, June 17, 1829, as colleague with Rev. Dr. Emmons, over the Church at Franklin, Mass. In 1838 he was pastor of the Union Church, Worcester, Mass., and in 1854 was installed pastor of the 2d Presbyterian Church, Troy, N. Y., as successor of Rev. Charles Wadsworth. He was the author of several small volumes and pamphlets, and published, "The Worcester Pulpit," in one volume, 12mo. He was a man of decided piety, and his churches were greatly blessed with revivals and conversions; he was affable and cheerful. He died July 30, 1858, of cancer in the stomach.

He married Miss L. J. Washburn, of Mass., who, with two children, survives him.

Spilman, Benjamin F.—The son of Benjamin and Nancy (Rice) Spilman, was born in Garrard Co., Ky., Aug. 17, 1796. His parents were from Virginia, and emigrated to Kentucky among the early pioneers. He graduated at Jefferson College, Pa., in 1822, and studied Theology with Rev. Dr. G. Wilson, of Chillicothe, Ohio. He was licensed by Chillicothe Presbytery in 1823, ordained and installed by Muhlenburgh Presbytery pastor of Sharon Church, Ill., in 1824. Here he laboured, dividing his time among the counties bordering on the Ohio and Wabash rivers, for two years, when he became an itinerant missionary in middle and southern Illinois. In 1826 he organized the Church at Shawneetown, Ill.; and having no house of worship, they occupied warehouses and private dwellings until 1832, when the "Old Log" Church was erected; this was followed in 1842 by a neat brick Church. Having laboured for seventeen years as an itinerant, his health began to give way, and the people at Shawneetown prevailed upon him to settle, and become their pastor, which he did, being installed by Kaskaskia Presbytery in April 1842. In 1844 he became pastor of Chester Church, where he remained until 1851; he also laboured at Edwardsville, where his old congregation at Shawneetown called him back, and he remained with them till his death, which took place May 3, 1859, of pneumonia.

He married in 1826, Miss Cannon, of Canonsburgh, Pa., she died in 1835. He married in 1840, Miss Potter, of Mass., who, with two children, survives him.

Mr. Spilman was a hard working missionary; for over thirty years he laboured faithfully; possessing a robust constitution, a warm heart, and a holy zeal in the cause of Christ, he was never idle, and seldom sick, his influence for good will long be felt in the southern part of Illinois. At his death he was a member of Saline Presbytery.

Stirrat, James A.—The son of Alexander and Anna Stirrat, was born in Rush Creek, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1820. He turned his attention to religion in early years, being endowed with great energy, and perseverance, a clear head and generous heart, he worked his way through his academic and collegiate courses, graduating at Athens College, Ohio. He spent some time in teaching, and entered the Theological Seminary at New Albany, Ind., where he pursued a regular course of study, graduating in 1851. He was licensed and ordained by Marion Presbytery in 1852, as pastor of Little Mill Creek and Milford Centre Churches. Previous to his ordination, he continued his vocation as teacher in the academy at Marysville and Kingston, Ohio, under the care of the Presbytery of Columbus. Whilst thus engaged, he was very abundant in missionary labours, in the destitute neighbourhoods of the Presbytery. In 1854 he removed to Prescott, Pierce Co., Wisconsin; here he was followed by a number of Presbyterians, so that he was soon enabled to organize the Church of Pleasant Grove, Wisconsin. He was one of the original members of the Presbytery of St. Paul. Returning to Kingston, Ohio, in 1858, he purchased the Academy, and commenced teaching on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 25, 1858, he was taken ill in church, with a violent attack of inflammation of the bowels, and died Nov. 28, 1858.

Wilson, Thomas B.—The son of Henry and Jane Wilson, was born in Washington Co., Pa., Nov. 22, 1822. His early education was carefully attended to; he entered Jefferson College, Pa., and graduated in 1849. His Theological studies were pursued in the Western Seminary. He was licensed and ordained by Ohio Presbytery in the fall of 1852, and installed pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh; here he remained until 1855, when he accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church, Xenia, Ohio, in Miami Presbytery. During a visit to his relatives in Western Pennsylvania, he was taken ill of typhoid fever, and died Sept. 21, 1858.

He married Miss Margaret B. Sanders, of Baltimore, Md.; they had two sons.

His manners were kind and affectionate. He was warm hearted and generous, a most prayerful and conscientious Christian, a devoted and zealous minister.

Wylie, William—Was born July 10, 1776, in Washington Co., Pa. His father, a native of Ireland, was a half brother of the late Rev. Samuel B. Wylie, D.D., of Philadelphia. His mother was eminently pious, and trained her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He became early interested in the subject of religion, and his thoughts were turned towards the ministry. He attended the school taught by Rev. T. Dod, in Washington, Pa., and continued after the school was removed to Canonsburg, Pa., where, under the control of Mr. David Johnston, he pursued his classical studies successfully. On leaving college he was prompted by Rev. James Welch to emigrate to Kentucky. Here he remained several years, studying Theology, and supporting himself by teaching, and was in due time licensed by West Lexington Presbytery. In 1800 he returned to his former home, and itinerated within the bounds of Ohio Presbytery; in 1801 he received a call to supply Upper and Lower Sandy, Fairfield, Westfield, Lower Neshannock, and Union Churches. After supplying the churches for some time, he was received as a member of Ohio Presbytery, and March 5, 1802, was ordained and installed pastor of Upper and Lower Sandy, and Fairfield Churches, at the same time he with a number of others were set off (by virtue of an act of the Synod of Virginia) and formed the Presbytery of Erie; here he laboured until the close of 1804. February 6, 1805, he joined the Presbytery of Redstone, and was shortly after installed pastor of Rehoboth and Round-hill Churches, this connection remained until 1810, when he removed to Uniontown, Pa. During his residence here, Mr. Wylie preached in the Court House, and in the orchards and groves in the vicinity, and thus worked faithfully and zealously until, when he left, there were the elements out of which there was shortly gathered a vigorous and growing Church, with house of worship, and a strong Presbyterian influence pervading the whole community. In 1823 he removed to Wheeling, Va., and became a member of Washington Presbytery. He laboured as stated supply for the Wheeling and West Liberty Churches, until 1832, when he accepted a call from Newark Church, Ohio, in Lancaster Presbytery, (the name of this Presbytery was changed to Zanesville in 1844.) In 1854 he resigned his charge. During a visit to his son in Port Gibson, Miss, he fell and fractured his thigh, which rendered him a cripple. He resided in Wheeling, Va., where he died of old age, May 9, 1858.

He married in 1803 Miss Smith; she died in 1837. After several years his children having all married and left him, he married Mrs. Moody; this lady was highly intelligent and pious; she died in 1854 during their visit to Port Gibson, Miss.

Historical Sketch of the Third Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis.

THIRTY-NINE years ago Indianapolis was selected as the capital of Indiana, then in its infancy as a State. Only two years prior to this selection, the first immigrant settled upon grounds which are now occupied by the city, then famous for game, and frequented by numerous Indians. Long since, long when we measure time by the rate of Western progress, the red man and the forest disappeared; and now behold in their place a beautiful city, with a population of more than twenty-seven thousand, a centre of trade, of social and religious influences, a city extending its iron arms in no less than eight different directions, to grasp the traffic or the travel of as many different sections of the country! Nor has the progress of Presbyterianism been less rapid or less remarkable; and in order to understand the present posture of affairs, and the position and relation of the Third Church, it will be necessary to speak somewhat of the commencement and progress, of the planting and culture of that germ which has now developed into five churches.

The first Presbyterian minister who preached in Indianapolis, was Mr. Gaines of Ohio, in August 1821. In May 1822, Rev. D. C. Proctor, of the Connecticut Missionary Society, spent a short time preaching here; and, upon the invitation of the people, returned in October, devoting three-fourths of his time to Indianapolis, at an annual salary of four hundred dollars. The First Presbyterian Church was organized July 5, 1823, and joined the Louisville Presbytery. The number of members at the organization was fifteen, three male, and twelve females, seven of whom were admitted on examination; the place of worship had hitherto been a cabinet maker's shop, belonging to Caleb Scudder, (one of the fathers of Presbyterianism in Indianapolis; and he as well as some others are still with us to rejoice in the progress of the Church they love so well,) in summer time, and a private dwelling in the winter; but now a Church building, costing some twelve hundred dollars, and quite large for those days, fifty-four feet by thirty-four, was completed. Mr. Proctor resigned at the expiration of a year.

In July 1824, Rev. George Bush, by invitation, visited the Church, and in March 1825—except an absence of a few months in the services of the Home Missionary Society, laying the necessities and the claims of the West before Eastern churches—Mr. Bush ministered unto the people without interruption until June 1828: when the pastoral relation was dissolved in consequence of his holding and habitually expressing sentiments directly at variance with the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church. The Church was but feeble, and this was a sore trial; but she preserved her integrity, and remained firm in her adherence to Presbyterianism. For the fidelity with which the Church adhered to its views of Church Government, the credit is especially due to the late Isaac Coc, M. D.

The next pastor was the Rev. James R. Moreland. Mr. M., had been a boatman upon the Ohio river, and having had but few and meagre educational opportunities, his preaching was unpolished, but full of warmth and energy, and often productive of deep and lasting impressions; the first year of his ministry the membership was doubled. After labouring about three years in the pastorate, he died.

The Rev. James W. McKennan was installed pastor, June 1835, and laboured until 1839.

In December 1838, fifteen members withdrew for the purpose of organizing a new Church, known as the Second Presbyterian Church.

In 1840 the Rev. P. D. Gurley became the pastor, and continued to minister to the people until he removed to Dayton in 1849.

His successor was the Rev. John A. McClung, whose installation occurred in December 1851. In 1855 Mr. McClung was compelled by ill health to resign his charge. The Church was without a pastor until May 1857, when the Rev. Thomas M. Cunningham, the present pastor, was installed.

The First Church has greatly prospered. So young, and yet she has nourished and brought up children that have gone forth from her bosom to break the bread of life to others.

The Third Church colonized from the First, and was organized in September 1851; the colony numbered twenty-one, only ten males. The elders were Caleb Scudder, James Blake, and H. C. Newcomb. In October, the Rev. David Stevenson was called to the charge of the Church, and has ever since laboured in this growing field, zealously and faithfully, and his labours have been greatly blessed. In less than eight years the twenty-one have become two hundred and fifty-four; and those who held their prayer meetings in a private house, and had their preaching in a public hall, are now permitted to praise God in their own Sanctuary. And this beautiful temple wherein they may worship the God of their fathers, erected at an expense of some twenty-eight thousand dollars, has been paid for almost entirely by themselves, only some fifteen hundred dollars having been contributed by persons not connected with the Church or congregation; in fact, the enterprise has been self-sustaining from its very inception. And while thus bearing a heavy burden, it has been liberal in its contributions to the various Boards of the Church, and in other beneficent works. The Church building is comfortable and commodious. The eldership consists of James Blake, Caleb Scudder, John W. Hamilton, S. T. Bowen, William Stewart, and H. C. Newcomb. The deacons are William Blake, James Wilson, and J. D. Carmichael.

The Sunday-school connected with the Church is under the charge of Mr. James Blake. Commencing in October 1851 with nine teachers, and twenty-five scholars, it now numbers upwards of thirty teachers, and nearly three hundred scholars. The first Sunday-school in Indianapolis—and this was a union school, enlisting all the churches in its behalf—was organized April 6, 1823, in Mr. Scudder's shop, and it numbered at the expiration of a year one hundred scholars.

When we contemplate the success that has crowned the efforts in behalf of Presbyterianism in Indianapolis, and especially when we look at the progress the Third Church has made in all the elements of spiritual growth, we may well exclaim, "Truly the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, (N. S.)

THE SIXTY-FIFTH SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, assembled according to appointment, in the Central Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Delaware, Thursday, May 19th, 1859, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and was opened with a discourse by REV. M. L. P. THOMPSON, D.D., the retiring Moderator, of which the following is a brief outline.

Sketch of the Rev. Dr. Thompson's Discourse.

"This is a true saying—If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work."—1 Tim. iii. 1.

The topics to which I would call the attention of my brethren from this text, are the bishop's office, and the bishop's good work.

I. The Bishop's Office. Who, in the sense of the New Testament, are bishops? What is the office spoken of in the text? and to whom in the church of God, according to the word of God, does that office appertain?

I desire to address, not exclusively ministers—so called; nor exclusively elders—so called; but ministers and elders—all ministers according to the New Testament, and all elders according to the New Testament—all bishops.

I must show then, that according to the New Testament the bishop's office is held in common, both by those whom we call ministers, and by those whom we call elders. I must develope, in its largest extension, as it lies in the inspired record, the true doctrine of parity in the Presbyterate.

Now, an elder is not a layman any more than I am a layman, and I desire to assert here the true and proper dignity, according to the divine meaning an intent of the elder's calling, that he is a minister, holding an office between which and mine, whatever distinction usage may have established, or may have grown up by custom to be law in the church, the word of God makes none, and none was in the beginning.

Undoubtedly, in our book, this distinction is recognized; but I do not think that our book recognizes it as based upon a generic, or organic difference. The book defines what the minister's and elder's offices are, as settled by common law according to apostolic precedents, in the Presbyterian Church. If it goes farther in its intent, and affirms an original organic difference, I have not so understood it, and could not now subscribe to its teaching.

I do not want, as of original divine appointment for perpetuity in the church, the three distinct offices of Bishop, Elder, and Deacon.—The arrangement has an order of prelacy about it; and besides, cannot be justified by any fair argument from the Bible. For in the place from which the text is taken, where Paul instructs Timothy as to the ordering of the churches, that he might know "how to conduct himself in the house of God," I find no allusion to three kinds of official men. There are the bishops and the deacons and no more.

Bishop and elder, as every one knows, in the New Testament, referring to office-bearers in the Christian church, are convertible terms: all bishops are elders, and all elders are bishops.

From Miletus, as Paul journeyed to Jerusalem, he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church, to whom, in the address which he delivered to them after their timely arrival, he said among other things, "Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his blood."

The elders, then, of the church of Ephesus, were its bishops. They were all bishops, having the Episcopacy or oversight of the flock. They were all pastors, whose business it was to feed the church of God; for we do not find the apostle taking notice of any difference or distinction among them; we do not find him recognizing any two kinds of official men, as bishops, or ministers, or pastors, on the one hand, and elders or lay delegates and representatives of the people on the other. He sends for the elders of the church, and when they, the elders, are come, he addresses them all as bishops, ministers, pastors, burdened with a common responsibility, having a common office, and a common work. He does not send for the deacons, because deacons have no spiritual charge, it is strictly a lay office for secular and common uses. He sends for the spiritual fathers, the office-bearers in the church proper, the elders, and when they are come, his address to them as a body is descriptive of their common office and their common work.

II. I invite your attention, secondly, to the bishop's good work.

And for the work itself,—where shall we find a description of it, in brief, better suited to our purpose, than in Paul's address to the Ephesian elders, in which he sets forth in an inimitably beautiful and impressive manner, the work for all time of all bishops?

The work is to preach the Kingdom of God, it is universal as to its objects. It is to preach the kingdom of God to every man.

It is a work to be done not alone with them that resort to the preachers, but by the preachers resorting to them, seeking them out, going after them where they are, "from house to house." We must carry the Gospel to them that will not come for it. I know of no scripture that will justify Christ's ministers in setting themselves up for gentlemen, and establishing depots of the word of life, from whence alone they will dispense it to applicants.

The end of the bishop's work in every case of Greek or Jew is nothing less than a true conversion—"repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." It is to bring every man to the saving obedience of the truth.

And, finally, we are furnished, in the apostle's address to the Ephesian elders, with a description of the loving patience, and tender persuasive earnestness with which this work is to be performed, showing men, and teaching them, or as it is elsewhere expressed, "in meekness instructing them that oppose themselves, if God, peradventure, will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth."

After the discourse the Assembly was constituted with prayer, the Committee on Commissions reported the following as

Bills and Overtures,

The Committee, GEORGE A. LYON, D.D., Chairman, reported the following :

OVERTURE No. I.—A memorial from the Presbytery of Dakotah, to send missionaries to the Southern States to establish churches, and to instruct the missionaries not to receive slaveholders to the Church until the sin of slaveholding shall have been renounced.

This was referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

OVERTURE No. II.—A memorial of Rev. Benjamin Mills of the Synod of Cincinnati, and others of the Synod of Kentucky, expressive of their attachment to us, and their desire to return to our connection, if, with their views on the subject of slavery, the way may be open to receive them. The Committee recommend that these ministers and churches, and others similarly situated, be referred to the Presbytery of Cincinnati, or any other border Presbytery, and that such Presbytery be authorized so to extend their jurisdiction, as to receive any such ministers and churches situated near them, whose principles and practices harmonize with the position of the Church, expressed and published by the former Assemblies.

OVERTURE No. III.—From the Presbytery of Philadelphia 4th, on Lay Agency, which was referred to a Special Committee, D. W. Poor, D.D., Chairman, which reported that no action be taken, excepting to declare it as our unanimous judgment, that the liberty conceded by our polity for the free exercise of all spiritual gifts in an orderly manner, renders the organization of any lay agencies superfluous, and to urge on pastors and sessions that they exert themselves for the development, employment, and direction of all the lay talent existing in the churches, unto the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom, and the glory of his name.

OVERTURE No. IV.—Inquiring as to the right of minors to vote in the election of elders and deacons.

The Committee recommend that it is not in accordance with the principles and usages of the Presbyterian Church to distinguish between members of the Church as to their ages when voting for officers in the Church. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. V.—A memorial from the Presbytery of Kansas on slavery.

The Committee recommend no further action on the subject. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. VI.—A petition signed by C. Van Rensselaer, B. J. Wallace, and George H. Stuart, asking a recommendation of a collection for the Presbyterian Historical Society.

The Committee concur in the recommendation. Adopted.

The Committee, J. F. STEARNS, D.D., Chairman, reported.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. I.—A paper from the Presbytery of Milwaukee, touching a case of a minister supposed to have been irregularly received, and asking for new rule in the case.

The Committee recommend that no new rule appears necessary. Adopted.

JUDICIAL CASE, No. II.—From the Presbytery of Keokuk, asking if they have jurisdiction over the case of J. H. Smith, deposed by the Presbytery of Des Moines.

The Committee recommend a negative answer. Adopted.

Purity of the Church.

The Committee, SAMUEL H. GRIDLEY, D.D., Chairman, reported :

PAPER No. I.—From Presbytery of Kansas, asking to be attached to the Synod of Indiana.

The request was granted so as to read Synod of Iowa.

PAPER No. II.—Touching the condition of such churches in Kentucky as seek connection with us.

Recommend that such churches join contiguous Presbyteries.

PAPER No. III.—What shall be done with Church members who ask to be released from their Church obligations, without any charge being made against their moral character ?

The Assembly decided that the Book of Discipline provides for all cases, and that no new order be taken in this case.

PAPER No. IV.—A petition from the Presbyterian Church, Bainbridge, Ind., asking a transfer from the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, to the Presbytery of Green Castle.

The Committee recommend that this be postponed for one year.

PAPER No. V.—On the adjustment of the roll.

The Committee recommend that the Synod of Mississippi having notified this Assembly of their withdrawal from our connection, be stricken from the roll.

Also that the Synod of Kentucky being dissolved, and that the Synods of East and West Tennessee having abjured the jurisdiction of this Assembly, that these Synods be stricken from the roll.

PAPER No. VI.—A paper from the Presbytery of Philadelphia 3rd, on the demission from the ministry.

The Committee recommend the appointment of a committee, E. F. Hatfield, D.D. Chairman, to report to the next Assembly.

PAPER No. VII.—From the Presbytery of New York 4th, on amending the Book of Discipline.

The Committee recommend that action on this subject be indefinitely postponed.

PAPER No. VIII.—Regarding the action of the Synod of Geneva, and Presbytery of Ithaca, in transferring a Church from one Presbytery to another.

The Committee judge that the matter does not come in due form before this Assembly.

PAPER No. IX.—Report of the Committee on Formulas ; when it was resolved that the formula of doctrine, etc., be referred to the Publication Committee, and that copies be sent down to Presbyteries, and that they express their views on the subject, and report to the next Assembly.

The recommendations of the Committee were, in all the foregoing cases, adopted.

Synodical Records.

The reports on the Records of the Synods of Albany, Cincinnati, Genesee, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Onondaga, Pennsylvania, Peoria, Utica, Western Reserve, West Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, were adopted without exception. The Synod of Geneva was referred. The Records of the Synod of Alta California, Indiana, Michigan, and Susquehanna, were not sent up for review.

Church Extension Committee.

The Fourth Annual report was submitted to the Assembly.

During the year the number of missionaries under commission was twenty-one. Owing to the Committee being largely in debt at the beginning of the year, it was resolved not to appoint new men until the debt was paid—this has been accomplished, the receipts being largely in advance of any previous year, amounting to $10,358 57.

The Committee had in commission Rev. Samuel Day, of the South Church, Milwaukee, who soon after his appointment joined the CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION of Wisconsin, taking his Church with him. The Committee refused to pay to Mr. Day any of the salary voted to him, and they also requested the Church to repay the amount of one thousand dollars granted them by the Committee; they have received no reply from Mr. Day or the Church. Rev. D. T. Packard, and Sidney H. Barbeau, who have been labouring under a commission, have left for the Congregational Church.

The Committee have been obliged to confine their operations on account of their indebtedness; but in view of the vast field, they are sure they speak the voice of a large part, if not the whole of the Church, in asking the Assembly to take so emphatic a position on this subject, that no one can doubt of our obligation to our own brethren who cry to us in distress from the West and North-West.

The Committee, P. H. FOWLER, D.D., Chairman, reported :

The Annual Report of the Church Extension Committee, impresses us more deeply than ever with the vast importance of the work in which they are engaged; the denomination of Christians represented by this Assembly has hitherto principally employed the American Home Missionary Society, as its agency for prosecuting Domestic Missions; that society was formed in the bounds, and by the members of our Church. Its origin, and the capital it has accumulated, make it impossible as a matter of feeling, of interest, and justice, that we should abandon it to those whom we have received as partners in it; we can leave it only on the dissolution of the firm, and the setting up of its members in new establishments. Several overtures were in the hands of the Committee, most of them referring to the course of the American Home Missionary Society; and the Committee recommend that a commission of this General Assembly be now raised, J. F. Stearns, Chairman, to ascertain by a thorough investigation of the facts in the case, and to procure such other information as may be in their power, relating to the history of our connection with the work of Home Missions, and our present relation to it, and to learn the mode and principles of administration of the American Home Missionary Society, over the entire field of its operations; and to submit the whole, well authenticated, to the next General Assembly.

OFFICERS OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE.

The Publication Committee.

The Seventh Annual Report is presented to the Assembly.

The publications of the year are largely in advance of any in the past, being fifty-one tracts and volumes. Of the Church Psalmist, 7,215 copies have been issued; the Supplement and the Tune Book are in course of preparation, and will be published soon. The Digest of the Acts of the Assembly is ready, and will be issued as soon as the funds will permit.

The donations are a little more than last year, but with this difference, instead of being raised in the third and fourth Presbyteries of Philadelphia, they have come from abroad; last year the amount contributed by churches out of Philadelphia, was $622 11, whilst this year it was $6,795 06.

The report of the Treasurer is as follows: Balance in hand from last year, $1,115-90. Donation from churches, $8,588 27. Bequest, $350. Sales at Store, $6,984-11. Total, $17,038 28. Expenditures, $16,298 26. Balance, $740 02.

The Committee, Rev. A. T. NORTON, Chairman, report: That the trust committed to the Publication Committee is of great importance, and considering the small means at their command, they have done well and nobly. The Church which in our day neglects to employ the Press, is unfaithful to her trust; though the receipts during the past year have been encouraging, they bear no suitable proportion to the ability of the denomination, or the magnitude of the cause, that in the great work of Christian education, and spiritual training to which we are called, we should give the preference to our own pulpit, and our own press; we therefore recommend that it be enjoined upon all our churches to take up a collection for the Publication cause, in October, and that churches making their annual collections be permitted to order for their own use any publications of the Committee, to the amount of one half their respective collections, and that we would specially urge upon pastors and Sabbath-school teachers the duty and privilege of placing our own publications in our families, and Sabbath-school libraries.

The Church Erection Fund.

The Fifth Annual report is presented to the Assembly.

The whole number of grants during the past year is thirty-seven, and the amount $13,950, of these, eight were donations, the average being $180, and twenty-nine were loans, the average being $431. The average amount of donations has decreased from year to year, whilst the loans have increased, as follows:

The average donations in 1857,	$191.	The average of loans in 1857,	$396.

Much permanent good has been done through this fund, and since its organization it has made twenty-eight donations, the aggregate amount being $5,250, and ninety-one loans, the aggregate amount being $37,868, making a total of $43,118, and by this amount of aid, over $300,000 dollars worth of church property have been secured, thus enabling one hundred and nineteen congregations to worship God in their house free from debt, for one of the rules of the Fund is, that churches aided by it shall be free from all incumbrance.

The Committee, P. H. FOWLER, D.D., Chairman, report: That this fund has been managed with faithfulness and diligence, that in connection with the report they have had several papers to examine, two from the Presbytery of Harmony, for itself and Synod of Kentucky, and one signed A. H. H. Boyd, in behalf of a body styled the United Synod of the Presbyterian Church, asking for the payment to them of the sums allotted to their Synods in the first apportionment of the Church Erection Fund. The Committee would reply definitely, that the charter expressly declares that this Fund is to aid feeble congregations in connection with the General Assembly, as the only bodies to which grants can be made.

Also from the Presbyteries of Winona, Iowa city, and Knox, asking that the portions of the fund allotted to the different Synods, may be paid over to the Synodical Committees for distribution at their discretion, and the Presbytery of Kansas prays that $3,000 may be paid over to it, to be distributed at its discretion, &c., &c.; to all these we would reply, that the charter constitutes the Trustees the sole custodians and managers of the Church Erection Fund.

Education Committee.

The Committee, HENRY KENDALL, D.D., Chairman, report: That there is evidence of increased interest on the subject of education in our Church; but though our candidates increase as well as our contributions, they yet fall far short of the demands and necessities of the Church. Large numbers of young men have been converted, and a deeper interest is felt in the welfare of the world. In addition to the report of the Permanent Education Committee, your Committee have had a prolonged conference with the representatives of the various local societies in our bounds, in order to secure if possible an adjustment of their operations, with those of the Permanent Committee of the Assembly; and though the subject is still attended with difficulties, all parties have been made more fraternal, harmonious, and hopeful.

Foreign Missions.

The First Annual report is presented to the Assembly.

The Committee, JOHN JENKINS, D.D., Chairman, report: That the thanks of this Assembly are due to the Permanent Committee on Foreign Missions, for the lucid and deeply interesting narrative they have furnished in their Annual Report, besides this report, your Committee have had various papers laid before them. First, from the Synod of Minnesota, asking that a closer relation be secured between our Foreign missionaries and the General Assembly. Second, from the Presbytery of Newark, in favour of forming Presbyteries in the foreign field. Third, from the Third Presbytery of Philadelphia, stating that one of their members in the foreign field, has been recommended by his Presbytery, to propose to his Presbyterian brethren of the same mission, to form themselves into a Presbytery; refused, because it was understood, that it was the business of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, through their Presidential Committee, to arrange the missionaries and the churches in the foreign field. They are convinced that a proper missionary spirit cannot be kept alive without our having a closer relation to our missionaries, and bringing home to the churches that this is our own work. That after having contributed millions of money, we have not a solitary mission church—or but one, in the whole foreign field. Fourth, from the Presbytery of New Castle, to secure the direct control of our ministers labouring in foreign lands.

The Committee recommend that the time has now come, when, in order to a more thorough development of the missionary spirit, the prayers of their memorialists, now enumerated, demand action. They ask not for any cessation of the co-operative principle in conducting the work, but simply for a closer connection with it, by means of Presbyteries, whenever numbers and circumstances will allow of such a course. The Assembly cannot overlook the fact, that after many years of connection with the Foreign Missionary department of evangelical labour, we have at this time but one Presbyterian Church of our connection in the foreign field. Therefore, it is to be distinctly understood, both here and abroad, that the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, interpose no obstacles in the way of the formation of foreign Presbyteries. That a special Committee, Rev. Albert Barnes, Chairman, attend the next meeting of the Board in Philadelphia, for the purpose of conveying to the Board the views of the Assembly. That candidates for the missionary work going out from our body, give their attention to those fields where Presbyteries are or may be formed; and that the Synod of New York and New Jersey, be empowered to receive foreign Presbyteries whenever constitutionally requested to do so by our foreign missionaries.

OFFICERS OF THE COMMITTEE.

President.—EDWIN F. HATFIELD, D.D., Secretary.—REV. JOHN McLEOD.

Narrative of the State of Religion.

The Committee, Rev. JAMES EELS, Chairman, report: That they have received reports from but sixty-five Presbyteries, being only two thirds of the Presbyteries now in our communion. The prominent feature in all of the reports is the great revival, a history most cheering and hopeful.

The result of these revivals is shown in the elevated level of piety in our churches; there has been a more general attention to the religious training of the young. There has been a new disposition among the laymen of our churches to engage in active labours for the conversion of men; there has been a permanent increase in prayer; there has been a better observance of the Sabbath; there have been larger numbers of young men ready to begin a preparation for the ministry, and more interest in our plan of ministerial education. There have been most commendable efforts in Church erection, and the removal of Church debts; and there has been hearty support given to general systems of benevolence. These facts should encourage us to hope, labour, and pray; but there are others which require attention, that there may be improvement or reform.

It appears that our churches have a little more than 400 pastors, and a little more than 600 stated supplies; this in a Church, the success of whose system must depend largely on the permanence of its ministry, needs no comment: and our churches should be earnestly advised to remedy what is so manifestly an evil.

The large number of "vacant churches," and of ministers "without charge," nearly 300 of each being reported, is a most lamentable and alarming fact. In quite a number of Presbyteries there is a manifested lack of interest respecting infant baptism, and there is also an increase of intemperance in many regions.

These are the prominent items contained in the Presbyterian Reports, both as to what may encourage us, and engage our efforts to remove what works harm to our Church. In view of all, however, praise should be our inscription on the Ebenezer which we here erect. Our Church has never been in a more hopeful position, or possessed more elements of strength than at present. May God give us grace to enter upon our mission afresh, with the right spirit, and in the adoption of proper means to secure the salvation of men.

ROBERT W. PATTERSON, Moderator.

Miscellaneous Resolutions.

FREE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

The Committee, Rev. J. F. STEARNS, D.D., Chairman, report: That they have read and considered the document from this body, proposing an organic union, provided slaveholding was made a term of membership, and they listened to the statements of their delegate, Rev. A. B. Bradford, and having carefully considered the whole subject, they recommend that we cordially reciprocate the expression of fraternal kindness of our brethren, but our position on the subject of slavery has been explicitly and fully declared, and to these declarations we refer for a full understanding of our views, and the ground on which as a body we stand. That a Committee, Samuel C. Aiken, D.D., Chairman, be appointed, to hold such further correspondence with the Synod as may be deemed desirable, and report to the next Assembly.

M. L. P. THOMSON, D.D., was appointed to represent this Assembly in the proposed TRI-CENTENARY CELEBRATION of the introduction of Presbyterianism into Great Britain.

The first Monday in January 1860, was recommended as a day of fasting and prayer for the conversion of the world, and the last Thursday in February, as a concert of prayer for colleges and other institutions of learning.

On various motions, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to Mr. J. R. Latimer and wife, for the invitation and social entertainment given to the members at their residence. To the citizens of Wilmington for the large hearted hospitality so generously bestowed, rendering their sojourn so pleasant, and so greatly memorable; To the Railroad Companies who consented to a reduction of the ordinary rates of fare; To the Committee of Arrangements, and the Central Presbyterian Church, for the use of their beautiful house of worship, and ample accommodations; To the Journal, and Statesman, for their daily reports, and to the Moderator, for the admirable manner in which he presided.

The business of the Assembly having been finished, the vote having been taken for dissolving, the Moderator, with prayer and the apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., on the third Thursday of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

In Memoriam.

Brittan, Thomas S.—Came to this country from England in 1850, and soon after joined Brooklyn Presbytery, preaching as a stated supply to a Church in the city of Brooklyn, N. Y. He laboured in this capacity for some years. He finally gave up, and was without charge until his death, which took place in the fall of 1858.

Crawford, George M.—Was the son of Rev. Edward Crawford, was born in Abingdon Co., Va., June 4, 1796. His training was carefully attended to, receiving a good education. He was licensed and ordained by Abingdon Presbytery in 1822, and laboured for sixteen years in Virginia and Kentucky. In 1839 he removed to Lexington, Missouri, joining the Lexington Presbytery, and preaching to the Church, and visiting the destitute portions of the neighbourhood, organizing churches, and performing other missionary labours with great zeal and fidelity.

His health had never been good, suffering from dyspepsia, brought upon him by his sedentary habits whilst at college; and though he pursued the occupation of a farmer in connection with his pastoral duties, he never regained his health. He died at his residence, June 4, 1858, of dyspepsia, complicated with other diseases. His widow and five children survive him.

He was a man of decided character, good talents, and much beloved by those who knew him.

Huggins, Morrison—Was born in Marion, N. Y., Aug. 3, 1817. He was educated at Union College, N. Y., graduating in 1837, and studied Theology in Auburn Seminary, finishing his course in 1842, when he was licensed by the Presbytery of Chemung, ordained, and installed pastor of Havanna Church, N. Y. Here he labored until 1856, when accepting a call to the Presbyterian Church, Rockford, Ill., he joined the Presbytery of Belvidere. His Church was quite small, but by combining prudence with zeal and industry, he was increasing his influence, and adding to his congregation. During a ministry of seventeen years he had not lost a Sabbath by sickness, but a violent attack of inflammation of the lungs brought his long and useful ministry to a close. He died February 15, 1859.

He married Miss Abigail Fleming, and after her death, he married Miss Isabella G. Simpson. His widow and three children survive him. During his illness, he had the people of his charge, his elders, deacons, and Sabbath-school teachers and scholars brought to him, and gave them his parting blessing, and taught them by example how a Christian dies.

Hunt, Thomas P.—(Coloured.) Was pastor of the Coloured Presbyterian Church, Newark, N. J., in 1836, and was a member of Newark Presbytery. In 1841 he resigned his charge, and in 1851 he removed to Schenectady, N. Y. Here he remained until 1853, when he was called to the Coloured Presbyterian Church, Reading, Pa., he joined the Fourth Presbytery of Philadelphia. He was quite a zealous preacher, and after a lingering illness, he died June 3, 1858.

Johnson, Leonard—The son of John and Sally (Derming) Johnson, was born in Chester, Vermont, Nov. 9, 1798. He entered Hamilton College, N. Y., in 1820, and the following year he left for Amherst College, where he finished his three years course. He studied Theology with Rev. Mr. Chapin of Woodstock, Vt. He was ordained by the Congregational Association of Vermont, at Weathersfield, Vt., in 1825, and became pastor of the Congregational Church, Manchester, Vt., and Leraysville, Pa. In 1831 he joined the Presbytery of Troy, and became pastor of Brunswick and Hoosick churches, N. Y. He resigned in 1833, and subsequently preached in Bennington, Vt., Marsborough, Greenbush, North Granville, and Chenango Forks churches, N. York. In 1851 he was a member of Tioga Presbytery, in 1853 he was called to Triangle Church, Chenango Presbytery. In 1856, owing to failing health he resigned his charge, and after a lingering illness he died at Triangle, Broome Co. N. Y., Nov. 21, 1858, of consumption.

He married Miss Harriet Narcissa Hatch, who, with several sons, and a daughter, survives him.

Montgomery, Alexander—The son of James and Sarah Montgomery, was born in Westfield, N. Y., 1808. He was educated in Amherst College, Mass., and graduated in 1837. He studied Theology first in Union Seminary, New York city, and afterwards in Auburn Seminary, N. Y. He was licensed by Hampden Congregational Association, Mass., and ordained in 1839 as pastor of Maryville Church, N. Y., where he remained until he removed West, and joined the Presbytery of Chicago, and was agent for some time. He finally settled at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, here he laboured until he was stricken with paralysis, which resulted in his death, February 18, 1859.

He married Miss Laura A. Bliss, who, with a large family, survives him.

He was an earnest Christian, and an indefatigable worker, a good theologian, and fervent preacher.

Platt, Adams W.—The son of Alexander S., and Anna (Wakeman) Platt, was born in Weston, Conn., Oct. 28, 1790. In 1799 his parents removed to Galway, N. Y., where they became members of the Presbyterian Church. They trained their children in the true Presbyterian manner, and they all six in number gave evidence of early piety, Adams joining the Church in his fourteenth year. After receiving an ordinary education, he commenced the study of medicine, when his brother Jarvis, who was studying for the ministry, died, and he immediately turned his thoughts in this direction, and entered Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., where he sustained a character of high-toned Christian integrity, and graduated with the second honours of the class in 1817. He studied Theology at Princeton, graduating in 1820, and was licensed by Albany Presbytery the same year, and entered upon his duties as a missionary in the new states of Ohio and Indiana; here he thought of settling, but it was so far west, that on his return, he accepted a call and was ordained as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Rutland, N. Y., Jan. 20, 1824, by Watertown Presbytery. He laboured until July 7, 1829, when he resigned his charge; he became pastor of the Church at West Galway, N. Y., in Albany Presbytery. His attention to his varied duties impaired his health, so that in 1833 he gave up the Church and rested for a few months; he then became stated supply for the Church in West Fayette, N. Y., until 1836, when he became pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Hector, N. Y., in Ithaca Presbytery. But his health had become quite feeble, and at the end of twelve years (1848) he ceased his pastoral labours; he would occasionally preach in the destitution of the vicinity. In 1856 he removed to Clinton, Iowa, and assisted in the organization of the Clinton Church, Iowa city Presbytery, and supplied the pulpit for one year. He died May 2, 1859, of disease of liver and lungs.

He married Miss Sarah McAlister of Antwerp, N. Y., who, with a large family, survives him.

He was an humble, laborious, and self-denying minister, preaching to churches receiving aid from the Home Missionary Society, often without a suitable study or ministerial library. Still he worked on, preaching Christ and him crucified, which to him was the Alpha and Omega of all preaching. He was a man of marked prudence of character, thinking twice before he spoke once. His end was peace.

Rice, John H.—The son of David and Elizabeth Rice, was born at Sharon, N. Y., March 9, 1800. He received a good education, and studied Theology in Auburn Seminary, N. Y., he was licensed by Black River Association (Congregational) and ordained in 1832, and preached for Cambria Church, N. Y., he subsequently became connected with the following churches, Beamensville, and Grimsby, C. W., Rutland, N. York; Barton, C. W.; Grand Haven, Mich; Gowanda, and Sheridan, N. York; Wattsburgh, and Wayne, Pa.; Clymer, N. York; Middlebrook, and Green, Pa. It was in this latter place, (Green,) where in a ministry of one and a half years the congregation was doubled. It was here he died, being subject to attacks of the heart disease. He had preached twice on Sabbath, June 20, 1858, in the midst of a revival of religion, and the next day passing along the street he felt the approach of his disease, sat down at the foot of a tree, and died immediately.

He married Miss Phoebe C. Eastman, who died in 1845; on Nov. 6, 1849, he married Miss Louisa N. Doty, who, with two sons and a daughter, survives him. He was at one time an Agent for the American Tract Society, and in 1837, at the time of the rebellion in Canada, he was labouring there among the feeble Presbyterian churches of that Province, when he had to leave for the United States.

Streit, Lawrence—The son of Lawrence and Margaret Streit, was born in Washington Co., Pa. His was a goodly lineage, his father and grandfather having been Presbyterian ministers. He was raised by his pious mother in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He entered Jefferson College, Pa., in 1831, and graduated in 1834. He studied Theology privately under Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Erie, June 28, 1838, and ordained by the same Presbytery June 1839, as pastor of Wattsburgh Church, Pa.; he subsequently became connected with Sunville and Fairfield churches; he died at Aug. 5, 1858, after an illness of ten weeks of typhoid pneumonia.

He married Miss Sarah Dodd, who, with three children, one of whom is studying for the ministry, survives him.

He was a faithful labourer, and devoted servant of Christ; he often laboured with his hands to sustain himself and family. The last year of his ministry his labours were blessed with a gracious revival.

Strong, John D.—The son of Samuel B., and Susan Strong, was born in Rockaway, N. J., Jan. 26, 1821. He was educated at Millville Academy, N. Y., and at Williams College, Mass., where he graduated in 1848, and the same year he entered the Auburn Theological Seminary, N. Y. He finished his course in 1851. He was licensed by Cayuga Presbytery in 1850; soon after he left the seminary he went out West, and preached at Fort Madison, Iowa, and became a member of Des Moines Presbytery. He received a call, which was accepted, to become pastor of the Stone Church, Iowa city, here he laboured faithfully for nearly three years; when removing to Springfield, Iowa, he laboured as an evangelist in the bounds of the Presbytery; he subsequently laboured in Fairplay, Jamestown, Lowville, and Leeds churches, Wisconsin. He died at Lowville, Wis., May 14, 1859, of acute inflammation of the liver, extending to the heart and head. During his ministry, two churches were organized under his care, and his pastoral labours were highly blessed of God, many revival seasons being granted to his prayers and labours; his preaching was practical, and his intercourse with the people, wise and prudent.

He married Miss Julia C. Chase of Auburn, N. York, who, with an only son, survives him.

Thompson, John—Was born near Chambersburgh, Franklin Co., Pa., Nov. 11, 1772. His father had been a ruling elder in a Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and trained his family well, carefully instilling into their minds the truths of our holy religion. In 1793 his parents removed to Kentucky. Mr. Thomson soon began a course of study for the ministry, his literary studies being obtained at the Kentucky Academy, in Lexington. He studied Theology privately under Rev. Dr. Blythe of Lexington, Ky., afterwards President of Hanover College, Indiana. In 1799 he was licensed by Transylvania Presbytery, and ordained in 1801 by Washington Presbytery, at Springdale, Ohio.

Shortly after his ordination he became identified with the New Light schism, and gathered around him a large number of followers, but they soon incorporated many errors into their system, and Mr. Thompson left them and returned to the Presbyterian Church; and for a period of over one third of a century, he was an eloquent and successful minister. He was a pioneer missionary in South-western Ohio, and an earnest revival preacher; he organized many churches, and many persons were hopefully converted under his labours. He was pastor of Glendale Church from 1801 until 1833, when he removed to Indiana, and became a member of Crawfordsville Presbytery, though he never became a pastor, but preferred labouring as an evangelist, whilst his strength lasted.

He married Miss Nancy Steel of Lexington, Ky., their family consisted of eight children, seven sons and a daughter. Four of his sons became ministers, viz: James Thomson, for many years pastor of the Church in Crawfordsville, Ind., and is now at Mankota, Min.; Rev. John Thomson, Professor in Wabash College, where he died in 1842; Wm. M. Thomson, D.D., for twenty-five years a missionary of the American Board in Syria, and author of "The Land and the Book," and Rev. S. S. Thomson, Professor in Wabash College, Ind.

During the later years of his life he lived with his son Alexander Thomson, Esq., a ruling elder in the Church at Crawfordsville, Ind., where he died of paralysis, February 15, 1859.

STATISTICAL HISTORY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES FROM 1828 TO 1859.

[NOTE.—In the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1858, will be found the first effort made to classify the ministers so that we can tell how many were Pastors, Stated Supplies, &c. In the following Table we have given a synopsis of the amounts as they are published. In 1858, the Appendix was omitted. After the division of the Church we follow the New School Minutes. In 1831, 1842, 1844, 1845, 1847, and 1848, the Assembly did not hold an annual session, but they met triennially, viz: 1843, 1846, and 1849. The first column shows the number of ministers who are Pastors; the second, the Stated Supplies, Teachers, Agents, Editors, &c.; the third, those Without Charge; the fourth, the Total number of Ministers; the fifth, the Total number of Churches; the sixth, the number of Communicants; the seventh, the Total number of Communicants reported by the number of Churches given in the sixth column; the eighth, the Number of Churches reporting Infant Baptism; the ninth, the Number of Churches giving to Missions; the tenth, the Amount given; the eleventh, the sixth column; the eighth, the Number of Churches giving to Missions; the tenth, the Number of Churches giving to Education; the eleventh, the Amount given; the twelfth, the Number giving to Theological Seminaries; the thirteenth, the Amount given; the fourteenth, the Number giving for Publication; the fifteenth, the Amount given; the sixteenth, the Number giving for the Contingent Fund; the seventeenth, the Amount given; the eighteenth, the Number given for General Assembly; the nineteenth, the Amount given; the twentieth, the Total Receipts reported each year by the Presbyteries.]

Historical Sketch of the Central Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

THE Central Presbyterian Church was organized by the Presbytery of Wilmington, on the 6th of December, 1855. The number entering into the original organization was 23. The application to Presbytery was made by a number of the members of the Hanover Street Church, who believed that more ample accommodations were needed for those whose choice might be to worship in the Presbyterian Church, and that more might thus be done for the cause of Christ in this city and the world. The movement was greatly encouraged by a resolution passed unanimously by the Hanover Street Church, to the effect that—"We approve the separation proposed, and bid those who are engaged in it God speed; that although it will take away from us much of our wealth, and the greater portion of the youth and vigour of this Church, instead of deploring, we rejoice over it; because it will form so energetic a nucleus, not only to make the enterprise strong in its outset, but to impart character to the accessions that will be made to it."

The congregation thus organized, worshipped together for the first time on Sabbath, December 23rd. Rev. George Duffield, Jr., pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Northern Liberties, Philadelphia, preached on that occasion. On the first of January 1856, the Church extended a unanimous call to Rev. George F. Wiswell of the Second Presbyterian Church of Peekskill, N. Y., to be their pastor, which call was at once accepted, and the newly elected pastor entered upon his new field on the first of March, the congregation meanwhile being supplied by pastors from Philadelphia and elsewhere; and on the 8th of May, Mr. Wiswell was installed pastor by the Presbytery of Wilmington, to which he had been duly transferred.

The Church celebrated the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper for the first time on the 16th of March, when the whole number of communicants was 93. Since that time the growth of the Church has been rapid, both in numbers and spiritual strength; 161 have been added, 111 on profession of their faith, and 50 by certificate of dismission from 25 different churches in eight different States.

Revivals.—There have been three special seasons of revival. The first commenced in the autumn of 1856, and continued with more or less power until the following spring. The second and third in the winters of 1858 and 1859. All these have been seasons of marked and peculiar interest in the Church, though perhaps, to an unusual extent, through its entire history, there have been cases of conversion under the preaching of the word, and in answer to faithful and prevailing prayer.

The Church owes very much of its prosperity under God to an excellent and efficient board of elders, who were chosen immediately upon the organization. This board consists of Lewis P. Bush, M. D., who had officiated as a ruling elder in the Hanover Street Church, and with him were chosen and duly ordained Charles Sterrart, Edward T. Taylor, and Joseph W. Day. Few churches are more fortunate in the choice of their spiritual rulers and guides than this has been; men without reproach in the community, who prayerfully study the welfare of Zion, and the glory of her exalted Head.

The Sabbath-school.—Early in the history of the Church, a Sabbath-school was organized, consisting of 51 scholars, under the intelligent superintendence of Mr. Edward T. Taylor. This School has increased, until now nearly 800 scholars are enrolled on its list, with about 40 teachers. There are two branch schools in other parts of the city, numbering about 100 each.

A Young Men's Christian Association was formed early in the spring of 1858, which now numbers about 60 young men, who have under their special care the two branch Sabbath-schools, sustain in connection with each of them a weekly prayer meeting, also a weekly tract distribution, and a meeting on Sabbath afternoon at the county almshouse. In addition to these, they conduct a prayer meeting on Sabbath evening.

The weekly services of the Church are, a prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, and a lecture on Friday evening.

Church Edifice.—The Church worshipped at first in an ancient and venerable stone building, on the corner of 5th and Walnut streets, erected originally for the Second Presbyterian Church, and hallowed by many pleasant associations with the early history of Presbyterianism in the city.

In January 1856, steps were taken for the erection of a suitable edifice to accommodate the growing congregation. A board of trustees was elected, consisting of Messrs. Edwin J. Horner, Chairman; George T. Clark, James Anderson, George W. Bush, John C. Price, Leonard E. Wales, George Baird, George B. Kinkead, James Stephens. And a building committee, consisting of Messrs. John R. Latimer, Chairman; William Bush, Jourdan W. Maury, Henry S. McCombs, Lewis H. Coxe, Philip Quigley, George F. Peterson.

Lots were purchased on King near Eighth Street, and the work of building the house of the Lord vigorously entered upon. The corner stone was laid June 18, 1856, on the 15th of the following February, the congregation commenced worshipping in the lecture room, and on the 10th of November 1857, the completed structure was solemnly dedicated to the worship and service of God.

It is built in the most substantial manner of the best materials. The front and tower is of Portland brown stone, and the back and side walls of brick.

The style of architecture is Romanesque or Lombard. The extreme length is 106 feet, and the width 60 feet, with a tower 20 feet square, rising 100 feet, with an octagonal finial 45 feet high, making the entire elevation from the pavement 145 feet. The main audience room is 76 feet by 56 in width. The whole number of pews is 144, capable of seating about 1000 persons. There is a lecture room seating over 400, and a Sabbath-school room with semi-circular forms for classes, seating about 300 scholars.

The pastor's study is in the tower, a beautiful room 12 by 14 feet, overlooking some of the finest scenery in this country.

The organ, costing over $2000, was built by Mr. J. C. B. Stanbridge, and is a remarkably sweet-toned and powerful instrument.

The entire cost of this edifice, which is one of the most convenient and elegant in the country, was not far from $50,000; including the ground.

The congregation gratefully acknowledge their obligation to the Chairman of their building committee, John R. Latimer, Esq., and his excellent lady, for most efficient and unwearied services in the completion of this splendid and costly house of worship. Their constant devotion to the work from first to last, with their liberal expenditure of means, tended greatly to stimulate the entire congregation to carry the enterprise through.

There are few churches in the denomination that have been more highly prospered by the Master, or done more efficient service in his cause than this, through these first years of its history. With His blessing, who has hitherto helped it, there remains a hopeful future for still more important work in the city of its location, and in the lost world its Redeemer came to save.

THE UNITED SYNOD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

THE UNITED SYNOD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, met in the Second Presbyterian Church, Lynchburgh, Va., Thursday, May 19, 1859, at 11 o'clock, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, of which the following is a very brief outline.

Discourse by Rev. Charles H. Head, D. D.

2 Cor. iv. 5. "For we preach not ourselves but Christ Jesus the Lord."

The lessons of church history are humiliating, in respect to the treatment which the preachers of righteousness have received from the world. Under this general remark, allusion was made to the treatment of Moses by the Israelites—and to the fact that our Saviour, who was made like unto Moses, was condemned by the popular voice, while Barabbas was released. Paul needed in his arduous work all the support of the divine principles which he preached, to sustain his heart amid opposition, persecution, and misrepresentation.

In developing the sentiment of the text, he dwelt, 1st. Upon self-preachers. Under this head the assumption of those, who undertake in their preaching to lay down a set of dogmas as the truth, to which all must become subservient, or be not received and acknowledged as brothers in Christ, was commented upon—such attempts to bring the human mind into entire uniformity upon the non-essentials of religion, was shown to be productive of a servile spirit in those who submit, not consistent with the "liberty of the Gospel." And it was shown that in the course of the Reformation, so long as the minds of the great Reformers were occupied about the great cardinal doctrines of Christianity—they acted in harmony, whether separated by country or any other circumstances—but when at a later period, minor points in the creed of christian belief became matters of controversy, the great work stood still, and the lovely spirit of charity that bound the early Reformers together, departed from the churches.

2nd. Christ Jesus the proper theme of the Gospel preacher. "We preach Christ," said Romaine, "because we have nothing else to preach." Faith in Christ and its fruits are the only hope of the world—and constitute the only principle for moral reformation. The testimony of distinguished servants of God upon this head, was exceedingly interesting, and illustrative of the truth that Christ, and Christ only is, and ought ever to be the great theme of the Gospel preacher.

Apt quotations were cited from the writings of the apostle Paul, to show that in his precepts, whether to wives, children, servants, or upon other questions of moral and social duty, the relation of the duty to Christ was given in connection with the command that enforced it.

Under the third division of the sermon, the preacher, briefly, but with much earnestness, dwelt upon the love of a common Saviour as the tie that binds the hearts of the people of God together. "My brother," said he, "do you love Christ? are you his? Then if I love him too, no power can keep us apart"—separated for a while, even though we should be, and walking apparently away from each other, we shall at length meet each other face to face—that this love so productive of harmony and all good fruits, might fill the hearts of members of Synod, and animate all its deliberations was the closing wish of the speaker.

The Synod was constituted with prayer, and the Clerk announced the following as Members of the Second Annual Session.

Rev. J. J. ROBINSON, D. D., of Maryville, Tenn., was elected Moderator, and Rev. I. W. K. HANDY, of Portsmouth, Va., Temporary Clerk.

The Stated Clerk reported:

That the last Synod directed the Stated Clerk to send the overture proposing certain alterations in the Form of Government to the several Presbyteries, which was done, and the following Presbyteries have reported their action:—Clinton, Hanover, Holston, Kingston, Newton, New River, North Alabama, Union, Winchester, nine in all.

All of these have answered the overture as far as it relates to the ratio of representation in the United Synod, and to numbers necessary to constitute a quorum of this body, in the affirmative; and with reference to the change of name of the highest ecclesiastical body of our church, from the General Assembly to the United Synod, all have answered in the affirmative except New River, the constitution is legally altered in the form specified, and the present United Synod is constituted upon the basis of representation.

C. H. READ, D. D., Chairman of the Committee of Conference with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, (O. S.) reported:

The Assembly having been advised by an official certificate of our appointment, and that we waited such action as it might deem expedient in the premises, proceeded, after some discussion, to appoint a committee, consisting of C. Van Rensselaer, D. D.,

The S. Werner - del. G. Franklin Davis - fecit

John J. Robinson.

President of Marysville College, Tennessee.
Moderator of the United Synod of the Presbyterian

Published by Joseph M. Wilson No. 1111 South 10th St. Phila.

B. M. Palmer, D.D., and Rev. Mr. Cunningham, to meet us, and to receive the proposals which had been sent by the United Synod.

These papers were reported to the Assembly, together with a simple recommendation that they should be put on the docket in the consecutive order of business.

When the Assembly came to act, the paper, submitted by R. J. Breckinridge, D.D. was passed without a dissenting voice, declining our proposal.

This action of the Assembly, covering, as it did, all the terms and parts of the proposals submitted by us in behalf of the United Synod, and appearing to us to be intended as comprehensive and final, relieved us from any further responsibility in the premises, towards the establishment of a "mutual correspondence" between us as ecclesiastical bodies.

A. H. H. BOYD, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Conference with the General Assembly, (N. S.,) reported :

That he attended the meeting of the General Assembly at Chicago, Ill., for the purpose of conferring with that body in regard to a proper division of the funds belonging to the Church, viz :—a just distribution of the Church Erection funds, and the necessity of an arrangement in regard to Church property, by which all litigation might be avoided ; on this latter point nothing was done by the Assembly.

In presenting the claims of the United Synod for a portion of the Church Erection fund, it was strongly urged that the position taken by the New School Assembly, was, that the funds of the Church belonged to the whole Church, and should be distributed according to the numbers in each body.

The result of the conference was the reference by the Assembly, of the whole subject of the division of the Church Erection fund to the Assembly's Committee on Church Erection, to report at the meeting of the Assembly in May, 1859. This course was pursued, because it was thought desirable that the legal effect of distributing, as proposed, any part of the fund, upon the remainder, should be first determined, and also to ascertain what Presbyteries and Synods adhere to the United Synod.

F. A. ROSS, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on THE POLITY OF THE CHURCH, made the following report :

That the Northern boundary of North Alabama Presbytery be extended to the Northern boundary of the State of Tennessee ; the boundaries of Osage Presbytery to be co-extensive with the bounds of the Synod of Missouri, and include the State of Arkansas : that the Synod of Mississippi include the Presbyteries of Osage and North Alabama ; and the Synod of Virginia include the States of Maryland and Delaware.

A. H. H. BOYD, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Church Extension, reported :

That, under the existing circumstances, it is desirable that the Presbyteries in connection with this Synod should first disburse the funds collected by them for Domestic Missions within their bounds, and that they be requested to pay over to the Board of Missions whatever may be collected for this object, which may not be necessary for their own missionary work ; that we also urge upon the churches the importance of increasing their contributions to the cause of Foreign and Domestic Missions, and to be more particular in complying with the request of the United Synod made at its first meeting ; to direct their Committees on Missions to correspond with the Board of Missions with respect to the wants of their churches and destitute fields ; and that a missionary meeting be held, and a collection be taken up in behalf of the Missions of the Board, at each spring meeting of Presbytery.

That the attention of the churches should be especially directed to the Mission in Greece, which is sustained by the United Synod, and that they are earnestly requested to take up, annually, a collection for this missionary station.

The following persons constitute the Board of Missions, viz :

Bagly, George	Howard, P. F.	Price, S. M.
Gaines, W. F.	Kerr, Alexander	Read, D.D., Charles H.
Gennett, Charles	Knowles, B. W.	Reannie, Joseph

Rev. I. W. K. HANDY, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Education :

Reported in favour of the establishment of Parochial schools, and the appointment of a committee of nine to take under their care young men who have the ministry in view. That each minister preach one sermon annually, at which time a collection shall be taken up and forwarded to the committee, and that an annual report be made to the Synod ; also that the last Thursday in February be observed as a day of prayer for colleges and students, having the ministry in view.

The members of the Board of Education are as follows :

Armistead, A. II.	McMahon, Rev. J. J.	Seabury, P. Treas.
Goggin, Jno. L. Sec.	Mitchell, J. D. Pres.	Sloat, Rev. A. II.
Leftwich, P. L.	Payne, D. B.

Dr. Handy also reported concerning Maryville College, as follows :

That the United Synod accept of Maryville College upon the terms proposed by the Synod of Tennessee.

Synod to appoint a committee of seven, who shall advocate the claims of this College among our churches and receive contributions in its behalf.

This committee to inquire into the condition of the buildings at the Institution and report a plan for their improvement, or the erection of new ones, and to report any changes needed in the course of study ; and that the United Synod endeavour to place Maryville College upon a firm basis, and so supply the present wants of the Institution, as to commend it to a large public patronage.

Dr. HANDY was appointed Chairman of this Committee.

A. H. II. BOYD, D.D., Chairman of the Special Committee on the establishment of a Theological School, reported :

1. That the United Synod establish a Theological School, to be called the "Theological Seminary of the United Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the United States."

2. That this Institution be located in the vicinity of the University of Virginia.

3. That the sum of $100,000 be raised ; that not less than three Professorships be endowed—each endowment to be at least $25,000 ; and that suitable buildings, a library, &c., be purchased.

4. Subscriptions to be paid annually in five equal instalments.

5. A Board of Directors to be appointed by the United Synod, to consist of eight ministers, and seven ruling elders, five of whom shall constitute a quorum ; all of their acts to be subject to the approval or rejection of this body.

6. Each Professor shall, at his inauguration, adopt the Confession of Faith as it is adopted by ministers—embracing in such adoption the reception of the "Declaration of Principles" of the United Synod.

7. Provides that a committee shall be appointed to procure a charter from the Legislature of Virginia.

8. Provides that the funds collected for this purpose be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the United Synod.

9. Provides that this Synod proceed at this Session to elect a Professor of Pastoral and Systematic Theology ; and that the Board of Directors elect a Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Biblical Literature, as soon as the Endowment fund is increased to $50,000.

10. Provides that the institution be opened the 2d Monday in October, provided the endowment fund for two professorships is complete by that time.

An election for Professor was held, and JOSEPH C. STILES, D.D., was unanimously chosen. The Directors of the Seminary are

We find a cause of sadness in the facts that temperance is at a stand, if not generally retrograding. And finally the cause of Domestic Missions has received too little attention during the year, something has been done by the Eastern churches, but from the South and West nothing encouraging has been received. Some of our Presbyteries have not ministers sufficient to supply one half of their churches with the regular means of grace. It is a goodly land the Lord has given us, let us go up at once and possess it.

On motion of Rev. R. McLain, the Synod recommend the CHRISTIAN OBSERVER, edited by Rev. A. Converse D.D., and published in Philadelphia, and the PRESBYTERIAN WITNESS, edited by Rev. George W. Leyburn, and published at Knoxville, Tenn. to the prayers and patronage of the churches.

The vote having been taken for dissolving the Synod, the Moderator, after prayer and the benediction, dissolved the Synod, and authorized another Synod to meet in the Presbyterian Church, Huntsville, Alabama, on the third Thursday of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

A Sketch of the Second Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg, Va.

THIS Church was organized by the direction of West Hanover Presbytery, on Wednesday the 19th of May, 1830. It consisted of twenty-four members, all of whom except three, had belonged to the First Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg.

The Church has been supplied with gospel ministrations as follows :

Rev. D. L. Russel, stated supply from May until October, 1830.

Rev. J. D. Mitchell, pastor, from Dec. 1830, to Dec. 1835.

Rev. J. L. Kirkpatrick, pastor, from Nov. 1837, to April, 1841.

Rev. E. H. Cumpston, pastor, from Nov. 1841, to Oct. 1846.

Rev. E. J. Newlin, pastor, from 1847, to June, 1852.

J. D. Mitchell, D.D., (2nd time,) from August, 1852, to the present.

The whole number of members in full communion during the last 29 years is 325; of these, 94 have been dismissed, and 59 have died; leaving now in communion 172. Their first house of worship was exceedingly plain and small, but sufficiently large for their accommodation. The congregation, having increased in size and ability, erected the present beautiful Church edifice in the year 1852. It stands in the very centre of the city, on the corner of Third and Market streets.

This congregation did, by a formal act, adhere to that branch of the Church, denominated New School, in March 1842.

The following are members of the Session:—Charles L. Morby, Anderson H. Armistead, David B. Payne, Jno. O. L. Goggin, J. Newton Gordon, John H. Winsten, James F. Payne; and the Deacons are: Thos. Ferguson, Peleg Seabury, James M. Armistead, Wm. S. Bowman.

There is preaching twice on Sabbath, one lecture, and one prayer meeting in the week.

The congregation is divided into districts, and it is the duty of the elders to visit the congregation once a quarter.

The Sabbath-school is quite flourishing and successful. Doctor Mitchell, the pastor, is always in attendance, though James F. Payno is Superintendent.

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA, met in the First United Presbyterian Church, Xenia, Ohio, according to the appointment made at the first meeting held in Pittsburgh, Pa., May 26th, 1858, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, of which the following is a brief outline:

Discourse by Rev. John C. Pressly, D. D.

Deut. 12: 32. What thing soever I command you observe to do it; thou shalt not add there to nor diminish from it.

Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shalt thou serve. That God is to be worshipped by all his rational creatures, is not only the doctrine of the Bible, but the dictate of sober reason. But in what particular manner our religious homage shall be expressed, it is the prerogative of God alone, and not of human wisdom to determine. Accordingly, in an exposition of the second commandment, which is of acknowledged authority among all Presbyterians, it is taught, that "The Second Commandment forbiddeth the worshipping of God by images, or any other way not appointed in his word." If this exposition is correct, it follows as the necessary consequence, that in every act of religious worship in which we engage, we should be prepared to give a scriptural answer to the question, "Who hath required this at your hand?" As it respects the worship of God, the question with which we are concerned, is not, "Is this particular act not forbidden?" but, "Is it divinely appointed?" For that which is not appointed in the worship of God is by implication forbidden. Of those who in ancient days, set aside divine appointment by human traditions, our Lord has said, "In vain do you worship me teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

It is proposed to consider the principle involved in the text, in its application to the subject of social praise. The doctrine maintained by the United Presbyterian Church is expressed in the following article: "It is the will of God, that the songs contained in the book of Psalms be sung in his worship, both public and private, to the end of the world: and in singing God's praise these songs should be employed, to the exclusion of the devotional compositions of uninspired men."

We therefor maintain:

- I. That the songs contained in the book of Psalms should be used in the worship of God to the end of the world.
- II. That, in singing God's praise, these songs should be employed to the exclusion of the devotional compositions of uninspired men.

In support of the first proposition, I observe:

I. These songs were given to the Church by her glorious Head, to be used in singing God's praise. The inspiration of the book of Psalms is universally admitted. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable, that the man of God may be thoroughly furnished unto all good works. But the especial design for which these sacred songs were given, is that the man of God might be furnished with a suitable system to be employed in the good work of praise. This appears—

(1). From the title which the Holy Spirit applies to this collection of sacred songs; it is called "the book of Psalms." Luke 20; 42.

(2). From the official character of the author of this book. He is styled "the Psalmist of Israel." "David, the son of Jesse, said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet Psalmist of Israel, said; the Spirit of the Lord spoke by me, and his word was in my tongue." 2 Sam. 23: 1, 2. Here David is styled not merely a psalmist, but the Psalmist of Israel, the church of God. And for this office he was raised up and anointed.

(3). From the fact that these songs were employed by the church with divine approbation. For example, at the dedication of the temple. 2 Chron. 5: 12-14.

And while these considerations prove the divine appointment of these songs to be employed in singing God's praise, their matter plainly indicates that they were designed for the use, not of one people or of one age, but for all nations and for every age. See Psalms 67 and 100, among many others.

But it may be said that while these considerations prove the propriety of employing the songs contained in the book of Psalms, they do not prove the unlawfulness of employing the devotional compositions of uninspired men. I reply that our object thus far has been simply to establish the propriety of using the songs contained in the book of Psalms. The divine appointment of these songs being established, I proceed to the consideration of our second proposition.

11. These songs should be used to the exclusion of the devotional compositions of uninspired men. The question is not, Has God expressly forbidden the use of the devotional compositions of uninspired men in social praise, but has he commanded it? The doctrine of my text is, Whatsoever God has commanded, we must do; but we may not "add thereto, nor diminish from it." Have we then in the New Testament the Divine appointment to sanction the use of evangelical hymns composed by uninspired men? It devolves upon them who maintain the affirmative to produce the proof.

In support of our proposition, I remark,

1. There is no book of sacred songs furnished in the New Testament. The duty of singing God's praise is recognized every where in the New Testament, but there is no system of sacred songs provided.

2. God has not raised up, nor anointed any one under the New Testament to fill the office of the psalmist of Israel.

3. There is no promise in the New Testament, of that divine assistance which is necessary to qualify any man to perform the office of the psalmist of the Church.

The argument may be briefly summed up in the following words. It is not only a commanded duty to sing psalms—to sing praise; but he has provided and given to his church a book of Psalms. He raised up and anointed a man endowed with the Holy Spirit, to fill the office of psalmist of the church, who composed a great variety of songs; and these songs were used in his Church with divine approbation. The divine appointment of the use of these songs is thus established.

But while the duty of singing God's praise is inculcated in the New Testament, it contains no book of psalms or hymns; no psalmist was raised up and anointed to perform the office of providing songs for the use of the church; nor is there a promise of divine aid to qualify any man to perform this important office. We fail, therefore, to discover divine appointment for the use of evangelical hymns composed by uninspired men.

Rev. P. BULLIONS, D. D., was elected Moderator, Rev. JAMES PRESTLEY Principal Clerk, and Rev. THOMAS H. BEVERIDGE, Assistant Clerk.

Reports were received from the Presbyteries, and were referred to the appropriate committee.

The Committee, JOHN T. PRESSLY, D.D., Chairman, reported:

OVERTURE No. I.—From Washington Presbytery, on the ratio of representation in the Assembly; it was resolved that it shall be as follows:

Each Presbytery with two ministers, shall send one minister and one elder.

Each Presbytery with five ministers, shall send two ministers and two elders.

Each Presbytery with eight ministers, shall send three ministers and three elders.

Each Presbytery with fourteen ministers, shall send four ministers and four elders.

Each Presbytery with more than fourteen ministers, shall send one minister and one elder for each additional four ministers.

OVERTURE No. II.—From Rev. R. W. FRENCH, on the simplification of the standards of the church; the Committee recommend: That the interests of the United Presbyterian Church demand not the preparation of a new creed, either in form or fact, but the faithful application of the principles contained in her standards. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. III.—A memorial from David Jackson and others, complaining of difficulties in the way of their entrance into the fellowship of the United Presbyterian Church, arising out of the vagueness of our profession, &c.; the Committee recommend: That on the subject of the distinctive principles of the United Presbyterian Church, no further deliverance than that which is contained in her Testimony for the truth is at present necessary.

OVERTURE No. IV.—In reference to a temporary directory ;

The Committee recommend : That it be left to the discretion of each Presbytery to adopt for its use, either the Associate, or the Associate Reformed Book of Discipline, until one shall be prepared by the United Church. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. V.—On establishing the boundary between the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Big Spring ; the Committee recommend : That the Western boundary of Philadelphia Presbytery, be a line drawn from the Southern boundary of the State of Pennsylvania, Northward along the Susquehanna river to the place where it divides, and thence along its Eastern branch indefinitely, comprising Maryland, and the Eastern portion of Pennsylvania.

That the Big Spring Presbytery comprise that portion of Pennsylvania lying west of Philadelphia Presbytery, and the summit of the Allegheny Mountains. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. VI.—From the Presbytery of New York on ministerial support ; the Committee recommend : That the regulation of ministers' salaries belongs to Presbyteries, and does not properly come before the General Assembly. Adopted.

OVERTURE No. VII.—A resolution offered by Rev. R. N. Fee, relating to a division of the Synod of Illinois, which was on motion, indefinitely postponed.

COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee, JOSEPH T. COOPER, D.D., Chairman, reported :

That they have had the subject of correspondence with other churches under consideration, and would recommend, that the subject of a correspondence with other Evangelical churches in this country be kept under consideration, with a view to some future action.

That this Assembly cordially reciprocates the fraternal regards expressed by the delegates from the Presbyterian Church, (N. S.)

That a letter be sent by the hands of Revs. J. S. Easton and J. McGill, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, to meet July 4, 1859.

That Rev. Dr. Kerr be appointed a delegate to visit the Free Church of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church of England, and the United Presbyterian Church, Scotland, at their sessions of 1860.

They also report, that they have forwarded per order of this Assembly, copies of the basis of Union between the late Associate and Associate Reformed Churches to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in Philadelphia, and to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in Allegheny city, Pa., with an earnest request that it may lead to their union with the United Presbyterian Church.

Organization of the Board of Foreign Missions.

THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNODS having through their respective committees proffered their Foreign Missions, &c., J. B. Dales, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

That this General Assembly now receive from the Associate and Associate Reformed Synods, their various Mission Stations, missionary funds, and all their concerns, to be subject to the direction and control of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Joint Committee of the two Synods, Rev. W. Davidson, Chairman, to whom was referred the Benevolent Operations of the Church, reported the constitution for all of the Boards, which were adopted, as follows :

There shall be a BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA, appointed by, and amenable to the Assembly. That it shall consist of nine members, five of whom shall constitute a quorum.

That it be located in the city of Philadelphia, and that this Board shall be intrusted, with such directions and instructions as may from time to time be given by the Assembly, the superintendance of the Foreign Missionary operations of the Church, and that the following persons are

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Anderson, T. D.	Church, Rev. F.	Huey, S. C.
Arnold, Rev. G. C.	Cooper, D.D., J. T.	Pressly, D.D., J. T.
Blair, Rev. H. H.	Dales, D.D., J. B.	Rich, T. B.

Organization of the Board of Home Missions.

There shall be a BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS; it shall be chosen by the Presbyteries, and shall be under the control of the Assembly; it shall consist of one member from each Presbytery of the Church, elected annually by the Presbytery.

It shall be located at Xenia, Ohio. To this Board shall be intrusted the carrying out of the plan of Home Missions, to provide for any emergencies which may arise, they being responsible to the Assembly for the exercise of this power. Nor shall they encroach upon the rights of the Presbyteries. The Assembly appointed an Executive Committee to carry on the operation of Home Missions until the Presbyteries appoint their members.

Secretary of the Ex. Com., Rev. R. D. HARPER. Treasurer, J. FLEMING.

Organization of the Board of Publication.

There shall be a BOARD OF PUBLICATION appointed by, and under the control of the Assembly, consisting of nine members, five to be a quorum. To be located in Pittsburgh, Pa. To this Board will be intrusted the selection and publication of such tracts, papers, periodicals, and books, as shall be suitable literature for families, Sabbath-schools, ministers, congregations, and the community at large. Also to take proper measures to insure a wide spread circulation of its publications, and to publish whatever the Assembly shall direct, and to furnish its publications at the cheapest practicable rates.

THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Arbuthnot, C.	McCandless, J.	Rodgers, D.D., J.
Brown, Rev. J. G.	Prestley, Rev. J.	Stevenson, W.
Kerr, D.D., D. R.	Robb, J.	Vincent, Rev. G. C.

Organization of the Board of Church Extension.

There shall be a BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION appointed by the Assembly, and under its control, composed of nine members, five to constitute a quorum. It shall be located in Allegheny, Pa., and its object shall be to extend the United Presbyterian Church, by aiding systematically the erection of church edifices, and in subordination to the Assembly, have the direction and oversight of the work of Church Extension—provided, that no appropriation be made to any church not under the control of one of our Presbyteries, nor without a recommendation of the Presbytery to which the church belongs; and that they shall require a certificate from the trustees of the church, that the church and lot is fully secured to the United Presbyterian Church, and that the amount granted by the Board will complete the church, and leave the property free of debt, and that every appropriation not properly called for in two years, shall be withdrawn.

THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Dean, John	McCagne, G.	Reed, Rev. S. B.
Dyer, Wm.	McLean, D.D., D. H. A.	Taggart, John

Organization of the Board of Education.

That a BOARD OF EDUCATION shall be established by, and under the control of the Assembly, consisting of nine members, five of whom shall be a quorum, to be located in Monmouth, Illinois; the object shall be to assist in the education of pious young men in their studies for the ministry, to cherish and diffuse an educational spirit throughout the church, and to co-operate in the establishment of Institutions of learning, and to take such measures as may be judged proper for increasing the funds of the Board, and promoting the general cause.

THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Brown, Rev. J.	Macdill, D.D., D.	McLanahan, John
Edie, Rev. J. A.	Millen, Rev. S.	Nash, William
Findley, James	Miller, James	Scott, Rev. J.

In order that there may be a system, the Assembly recommends, that a collection be taken up for Foreign Missions, the 1st Sabbath in January. For Education, 1st Sabbath in July. Publication, " " February, " Church Ex. " " Oct. Home Missions, " " April, or as near these times as practicable.

NEW VERSION OF THE PSALMS.

The Committee, D. R. KERR, D.D., Chairman, reported:

That the subject is one of interest and importance to the welfare of the United Church, and in respect to which it becomes us to move with great caution; they recommend that the version of the Book of Psalms now used, be retained, without any change that would affect its integrity. That to be used in connection with this, it is desirable to have an entirely new version of equal fidelity, and up to the present state of literature and laws of versification. That a Committee, Rev. G. D. Archibald, Chairman, be appointed to take charge of the work, and report to the next Assembly, and that this version when reported to the Assembly, if deemed worthy, be overtured to the Presbyteries.

Presbytery of Cairo.

J. B. DALES, D.D., offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Rev. James Barnet, Gulian Lansing, and Thomas McCagne, missionaries in Egypt, under the care of the General Assembly, together with Rev. James A. Frazier, and John Crawford, similar missionaries in Syria, be authorized to form themselves into a Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery of Cairo, under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in North America, and to report to the next Assembly.

Narrative of the State of Religion.

The Committee, J. B. DALES, D.D., Chairman, reported, as follows :

That in the examination of the reports of the forty-one Presbyteries under the care of this General Assembly, they have found much that calls for thanksgiving, at this the close of the first year in the History of the United Presbyterian Church. During the past year, twenty-three persons have been licensed, viz :

Anderson, A. R.	Foster, James B.	Marks, Lafayette	Robinson, W. J.
Anderson, T.	Frazier, James I.	McCartney, Jos.	Timmins, J. H.
Bain, J. W.	Hutchinson, J. C.	McCartney, Thos.	Welch, Jas.
Barr, W. W.	Jamieson, W. M.	McKie, W. R.	Whittle, J. L.
Conner, A.	Jeffers, W. H.	Nevin, J. C.	Wilson, W. L.
Ewing, S. C.	Kennedy, T. J.	Niven, D. C.

Adair, J. M.	Currie, W. P.	Henry, A.	Ormond, B. K.
Clark, J. A.	Ewing, R. B.	Mercer, T.	Pollock, W. A.
Clarke, J. L.	Grimes, Wm.	McCartney, A.	Proctor, F. M.
Coleman, W. M.	Haggarty, Jas.	McElwee, W.	Robertson, G. H.
Collins, J. A.	Harper, John	McSurely, W. J.	Williamson, R. D.

From all parts of the Church, and in nearly every report, mention is made of the most happy results of the union between the Associate, and Associate Reformed Churches. Hearts and hands long alienated, have flowed together in love and good works.

In many of the reports, pleasing evidence is given of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit during the year, reviving his work, and making his word and ordinances more effectual to the appointed end.

Attendance upon public worship is largely increased, and family worship is more generally and fervently observed, large gatherings for prayer have been held ; and prayer meetings in congregations and destitute neighbourhoods have greatly multiplied, roots of bitterness have been kept down, and brotherly love has continued ; pastors and elders have watched more earnestly for souls.

While, however, this has been witnessed and mentioned with devout thanksgiving, it has not been so with all. Churches and church members, less impressed with a sense of their personal responsibility, have neglected family duties, and taken little interest in the spiritual training of children, ready to be carried about by every wind of doctrine ; over such there should be earnest, godly mourning, and every member of this United Church should say, " We will serve the Lord."

The reports also record that seven of the brethren have been laid aside, viz : Joseph Banks, A. P. Bell, Thomas Gilkerson, James Laing, A. Lowman, McArthur, P. James, William Pringle,—they died at their posts with the harness on.

Encouraged and admonished by the past, cheered with the present, and animated with a well founded and joyous hope of a useful and honoured future, as a branch of the church of the living God, let ministers, elders, and people be roused to go forward in the work and way of the Lord. Then shall we be a blessing indeed, and this United Presbyterian Church be a light unto the world.

RESOLUTIONS ON INTOXICATING DRINKS.

The Committee, Rev. S. ANDERSON, Chairman, reported the following :

Resolved, That the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks for drinking purposes, is injurious to the best interests of society, and, therefore, inconsistent with the law of God.

That the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, has a tendency to lead to intemperance in a greater or less degree, and is, therefore, inconsistent with the law of God.

That Church Sessions have full authority, and it is their duty to enforce the principle of total abstinence, where they believe the safety of the individual, and the honour of religion require it.

That the practice of renting houses, to be occupied in the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, is utterly inconsistent with the honour of the Christian religion.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR COLLEGES.

On motion, the last Thursday of February, 1860, will be observed as a day of prayer in behalf of the youth of our Church, and of Colleges and Institutions of learning.

On various motions, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to the citizens of Xenia, and vicinity, for their hospitality. To the various Railroad Companies, which granted half-fare tickets. To the Xenia News, Cincinnati Gazette, and Xenia Torchlight, for their faithful reports of the proceedings of the Assembly.

On motion of J. B. DALES, D.D., it was resolved :

That this General Assembly be now dissolved, and that another be similarly constituted, be called to meet in the Second United Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, May 1860, at 7½ o'clock, P. M.

P. BULLIONS, Moderator.

JAMES PRESTLEY, Principal Clerk.

In Memoriam.

Banks, Joseph—Was born at Florida, N. Y., July 27, 1806. His early education was received in Philadelphia, where his father, John Banks, D.D., was Professor in the Associate Presbyterian Theological Seminary; here he studied theology until his father's death in 1826. He was licensed by the Associate Presbytery of Philadelphia, October 1, 1828. Soon after his licensure he went South, and was ordained, Oct. 15, 1831, by the Associate Presbytery of Carolina as Pastor of Bethany and Sardis Churches, South Carolina, and Pisgah and Nob Creek, North Carolina. He subsequently settled in the congregations of Northfield, Stow, and Springfield, Ohio; but his health became enfeebled, he resigned and accepted an appointment as Chaplain in the Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania. He was appointed a missionary to the Island of Trinidad, July 27, 1843, and for eight years he laboured earnestly in the cause. On his return in 1851 he established a semi-monthly paper, called "The Friend of Missions," and thus devoted his time to advance a cause which was very dear to his heart. He was for many years a sufferer from consumption, of which he died at his residence in Mercer, Pa., April 8, 1859. He was an accomplished scholar and a good theologian. He married June 2, 1831, Miss M. J. Roseburgh. She died July, 31, 1840. He married January 22, 1852, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Walker, widow of Rev. Houston Walker of Ohio, who with four children survives him.

Bell, A. P.—The son of Richard and Sarah Bell, was born in Washington Co., Pa., March 10, 1831. He attended College in Madison, and at the Miami University, and also at Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated in 1844. He studied Theology in the Associate Reformed Seminary at Allegheny city, Pa., and was licensed by the Second Presbytery of Ohio in April 1857; he preached when his health permitted, and died, May 3, 1859, of consumption.

Gilkerson, Thomas—Was born in Caledonia Co., Vermont, in 1814. His parents removed to western Pennsylvania, where his education was received; he gave evidence of early piety, and made a profession of religion in the eighteenth year of his age, and turned his attention to the ministry. He graduated at Jefferson College, Pa. in 1834, and entered the Theological Hall of the Associate Presbyterian Church, located in Canonsburg, Pa., where he completed the usual course of studies, and was licensed as a probationer by the Associate Presbytery of Chartiers in 1839. He soon received a call from the United Congregations of Conemaugh and Warren, in Blairville Presbytery, and was installed pastor in 1840, this was his only charge. For 18 years "he went in and out before his people," teaching by precept and example the great lesson of a Christian life. His disease was congestion of the lungs, and he died after a short illness, at his residence in Apollo, Pa., February 10, 1859.

He married Miss Maria Hart, a daughter of Mr. James Hart, a ruling elder of Conemaugh Church.

Laing, James—The son of John and Elizabeth Laing, was born in Perthshire, Scotland, in 1788. His parents removed to Fintry, Stirlingshire, where he received his early education. Looking forward to the ministry, he entered the University of Glasgow in 1811, where in due course he graduated with distinction, and commenced the study of Theology in 1816, and was licensed by the Relief Presbytery of Glasgow in 1825. He laboured in the bounds of Presbytery until 1830, when having married, he emigrated to this country; on his arrival, he joined the Re-formed Dutch Church, and was ordained by the classis of Washington in 1832. In the following year he connected himself with the Associate Reformed Church, and laboured at Argyle, N. Y. He subsequently became pastor of Andes and Cabin Hill Churches, New York, and after a pastorate of nearly twenty-five years, he was called to his rest. He died, Nov. 18, 1858, of congestion of the lungs.

He married Miss Mary Gardiner, who, with a large family, six sons and two daughters, survives him.

Lowman, Abraham—The son of George S. and Rosanna Lowman, was born in Indiana Co., Pa., in 1835. His parents instilled into his mind the saving truths of our holy religion, and were blessed by the evidence their son gave of a change of heart. He made a profession of his faith in his sixteenth year, and joined the Associate Reformed Congregation at Jacksonville, Pa., under the pastoral care of Rev. M. H. Wilson. In 1854 he determined to devote his life to the ministry, and entered the Theological Seminary of the First Associate Reformed Synod, where he finished a full course of studies. In the Spring of 1857, he was licensed by the Presbytery of Westmoreland. In the Spring of 1858, he received a call from the Associate Reformed Congregation at Brookville, Pa., which was accepted, and he was preparing to enter upon the active duties of his calling, when he was seized with inflammation of the bowels, and died after a short illness, at Brookeville, Pa., Nov. 27, 1858.

Arrangements had been made for his installation at the time of his death. He was married, Aug. 11, 1858, to Miss Mary Phillips.

McArthur, James P.—The son of Peter and Eleanor McArthur, was born in Jackson, Washington, Co., N. Y., Oct. 22, 1827. He graduated at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and studied Theology first in the Associate Seminary, Canonsburg, Pa., and subsequently in the Seminary at Xenia, Ohio. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Miami. He was connected with the Presbytery of Cambridge at the time of his death, which occurred, April 15, 1859, of typhoid fever.

Pringle, William—Was born in Perth, Scotland, in 1790. His father was the Rev. Alexander Pringle, D.D., who for more than sixty years was senior minister of the Associate Congregation of Perth; his mother was a Moncrieff of Culfargie, a family distinguished for piety and faithfulness, and self-denying zeal for the truth as they understood it in the beginning of the Secession Church.

His parents paid great attention to the culture of their son, and after a successful study at the best schools, and at the Academy of his native city, he finished his collegiate studies at the University of Edinburgh. He then studied medicine, and as soon as admitted to practice, he emigrated to Canada; but he concluded not to practise, but returned to Scotland, and studied Theology in Glasgow under Rev. John Dick, D.D. He was licensed by the Associate Presbytery of Perth, April 15, 1823; he entered upon his labours as a probationer, and as such preached for some time in Scotland, when he again left his native land and came to the United States in the Autumn of 1827, and soon after joined the Associate Presbytery of Cambridge. He received a call from the Associate Congregation of Ryegate, Vermont, and was ordained and installed pastor by the Presbytery of Cambridge, June 29, 1830. He laboured faithfully in behalf of this his only charge, and when his health failed him he resigned his charge, June 21, 1852, after a ministry of twenty-two years. He passed the latter years of his life on his farm, near Ryegate, Vt.

In the Autumn of 1829, he married Miss Margaret Bullions, a daughter of Rev. Dr. Bullions of Cambridge, she died, June 26, 1846, leaving two sons and two daughters.

For a number of years, Mr. Pringle laboured under an organic disease of the heart, of which he finally died quite suddenly, at the breakfast table, on the morning of Dec. 14, 1858. He was engaged during the last few years of his life upon a work called "The Cosmography of Scripture," and was about finishing the work when he died, the last sentence being left incomplete, and ends in the middle of a word, the last two letters being imperfect, as if he had been obliged to stop. Mr. Pringle was a good writer, and some of his sermons bear marks of scholarly attainments, but they were marred in their delivery by a mouthing kind of elocution common in days that are happily passing away.

An Historical Sketch of the First United Presbyterian Church, Xenia, Ohio.

THE first notice of this congregation is found in the minutes of the Presbytery of Kentucky, of a meeting held at Cynthiana, Ky., Sep. 28, 1808, being a petition from certain persons in Xenia, O., for supplies of preaching from the Presbytery; accordingly, Rev. Abraham Craig preached for them the last Sabbath of October, and the first Sabbath in November, 1808. The following year preaching was had four times. In 1810, Rev. John Steele was appointed to preach four Sabbaths in Xenia, previous to a meeting of Presbytery, which was held at Millersburgh, Ky., April 24, 1810, when he was re-appointed to preach and preside at the election and ordination of elders; this was done.

An extract from the diary of this good man, will show the extent of the destitution in that portion of Ohio at this early period.

"April 17, 1798, set out from a point near Maysville, Ky. after crossing the Ohio river, lay out in the woods all night, and reached Chillicothe on the evening of the 20th. Preached at Chillicothe to the Associate Reformed Congregation, from Rom. x. 4, also Rom. xiv. 17. May 13, crossed the little Miami river in a canoe, making my horse swim by its side, and preached at the house of Mr. Morrow, (afterwards Governor of the State.) May 17, preached at the house of Mr. Beckel. May 20, preached at the house of Mr. Shaw on Clear Creek. May 21, preached at the house of Mr. McKnight, near Bell Brook, from Jer. xxxi. 31, 33. On the evening of May 23rd, tarried at the house of Mr. Galloway, near old Chillicothe."

In 1811, Rev. Adam Rankin, and Wm. Baldrige preached. In 1812, Rev. James McCord, and Mr. Wallace preached. In 1813, a call was made for the pastoral services of Rev. James McCord, but Mr. McCord joining the Presbyterian Church, this call was returned to the congregation. In 1814, Rev. Messrs. Rankin and Craig preached, and on the second Sabbath in August administered the Lord's Supper, being the first record of the observance of this holy ordinance by this congregation. In 1815, and 1816, Rev. Messrs. Risque, McFarland, and Steele, preached frequently to this Church, which still remained "vacant," but in 1817 a call was presented to Rev. John Steele, and accepted; this was their first pastor, and the relation existed until 1836, when Mr. Steele resigned, and shortly after died, viz: January 11, 1837.

The Church remained "vacant," with such preaching as could be obtained by Presbyterianial supplies until October 1845, when a call was presented to the Rev. R. D. Harper, and accepted the following year. In 1846 he was ordained and installed pastor, and is at this time holding that relation with this Church.

The first building was erected in 1811, which was in accordance with the primitive state of this newly settled region. In 1817, it became necessary to increase their accommodations, and a new house of worship was erected. This in 1847 gave way to the commodious building, an engraving of which we give.

In an historical discourse delivered Oct. 31, 1858, the pastor in bearing testimony to the success of this enterprise, acknowledges the following as the means by which the Lord had helped them in times past:

I. By inciting a few individuals, fifty years since, to seek for the stated administration of the ordinances of the Church in this place.

II. We were blessed with a Christian immigration.

III. We were blessed with faithful office-bearers, pastors, elders, and deacons.

According to the principles of Presbyterianism, God has ordained in his Church these three classes of office-bearers: pastors to teach and feed the flock, elders to bear rule in the house of God, and deacons to superintend the wants of the poor, and the temporalities of the Church in general.

IV. We have been blessed in being preserved from internal discord and strife.

THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA.

THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, IN NORTH AMERICA, met in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, and was opened with a sermon by Rev. Gavin McMillan, May 25, at 7½ o'clock, p. m., from John xvi. 14. "He shall glorify me, for he shall receive of mine and show it unto you."

The sessions were constituted with prayer, and the following were Members of the Thirty-Sixth Session of the Synod.

Rev. JOHN NEVIN of Shenango, Pa., was elected Moderator, JOHN N. MCLEOD, D.D., continued Stated Clerk, and Rev. W. STERRETT, Assistant.

The Presbyterial Reports were presented, which were referred to a Committee, Wm. WILSON, D.D., Chairman, which reported: That having examined all the reports of our Presbyteries, seven in number, they find in their statements, evidence of a good degree of peace and prosperity in our beloved Zion. They cannot but note the remarkable fact that there is no reference, nor protest and appeal coming up to this General Synod from the courts below. This too does not arise from any laxity of discipline, but from those under our jurisdiction walking worthy of their heavenly vocation.

The ordination of a native minister in Northern India, by the Presbytery of Saharanpur, is highly cheering—the Rev. T. W. J. Wylie, we regard so far as respects our Presbytery there and this Synod, as the first fruits of India to Christ. Our missionaries with their institutions and property, have been safe during the late mutiny in India. This is the Lord's doing, and it is wondrous in our eyes.

The Committee on the SIGNS OF THE TIMES, HUGH McMILLAN, D.D., Chairman, reported: That the history of our Church during the past Synodical year, presents many causes of thanksgiving. The revival of religious experience in many of our churches, the great interest manifested on religious subjects, the palpable conversion of thousands to Christ, call loudly for thanksgiving to God.

The prospect of an increased ministry in all departments of the Reformed Presbyterian Church is calculated to encourage her friends, and soon many men can be spared from the home service, to plant the Church in heathen lands; and we would recommend the 4th Thursday of November, 1859, as a day of thanksgiving to God, and the 3rd Thursday of February, 1860, as a day of humiliation, fasting, and prayer. Your Committee suggest that as there are many causes of a local kind, which ought to be remembered on days of thanksgiving and humiliation, each minister shall select, in addition to general causes, such as shall most interest and instruct his people.

The Committee on the UNION with the UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, JOHN N. McLEOD, D.D., Chairman, reported: That they recommend that this Synod respectfully decline the proposal of an incorporating union with the United Presbyterian Church. That a fraternal letter be written to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, informing them of our action, and assuring them of the high consideration of this Synod. That whereas—this General Synod, in retiring from the convention of Reformed Churches in 1847, did declare: "That before making any further direct movement in the matter of Church Union, time be taken and measures adopted to settle among ourselves the ground on which the whole church of God may be, and ought to be united in one organic body," and as the time seems to have arrived, when an attempt should be made to answer this question, we invite the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church to appoint a committee on this subject. Rev. Dr. McLeod was appointed Chairman of a Committee for this purpose.

Theological Seminary.

The Superintendents of the Seminary respectfully report to the Synod: That during the past year, meetings were held to consider the interests of the Seminary, and communications were received from J. N. McLeod, D.D., and A. W. Black, D.D., Professors elect, stating their readiness to enter at the appointed time on the labours assigned them by Synod; but God, by a sudden providence, removed by death one of the professors, Rev. Dr. Black.

The Board held a meeting to consider the proper course to pursue, and it was deemed inexpedient to open the Seminary at the time appointed. Being deeply impressed with the absolute necessity of a Theological Seminary for the welfare, extension, and permanence of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, they recommend that the General Synod elect a Professor in the place of the late Rev. Dr. Black; that the Board of Trustees be directed to raise an endowment of $20,000, and that the students be directed by their Presbyteries to wait on the instruction given in our own seminary. The report was adopted, and the General Synod unanimously elected as Professor, THEODORUS W. J. WYLIE, D.D.

Board of Education.

The Board would present the following report to General Synod:

That during the year eleven young men have received aid. One of the young men committed to the care of the Board was licensed during the year. Seminaries, Education Boards, &c., are offshoots—necessary ones—of Christian benevolence, and Church extension, not coming within the direct vision of charity; and unless to a considerable extent funded, must continue to be supported through the personal solicitation of agents; other denominations found this course necessary. For all these purposes there is abundant surplus wealth within our Church; and if as a separate body we continue to march under our own distinctive banner, while fighting the battle of the Lord, our recruiting and drilling must be kept in the best possible order. Our present prospects are encouraging, and we have a good hope for an adequate supply for the ministry.

Board of Domestic Missions.

The Board would respectfully report to General Synod:

That the three separate interests which the Church has confided to our care, viz: The Domestic Missionary, The Jewish Mission, and the Sustentation Fund, have each had that degree of attention, which it was possible to give. Of the first, little has been done, owing to the fact that we have no young men under our supervision, and very few in the ordained ministry. Of the second, but little has been done; Rev. S. Bonhomme has, we believe, laboured with diligence, in the midst of self-denial. Of the third, the Treasurer's report will show that the contributions of the Church are not on the increase, only sixteen congregations having contributed. The Board feel the importance of meeting two days before the meeting of Synod when information could be obtained from each Presbytery, and their wants more fully known.

Board of Foreign Missions.

The Board would respectfully report to General Synod:

That it is now almost twenty-four years since our first missionaries were sent out to India. At that time it was doubtful whether the Church would support one missionary; it was found that our people would cheerfully sustain not only one, but five, and as their number increased, the means came with less difficulty. The Board earnestly desire to submit the following inquiries:

Shall we adopt measures to send out during the year five missionaries?

Shall these be sent to India, or shall other fields be occupied?

It was Resolved, That the questions propounded by the Foreign Board be held open for future consideration, and that the Board report at the next meeting of the Synod.

The Committee on the TRI-CENTENARY CELEBRATION, T. W. J. WYLIE, D.D., Chairman, reported: That a committee be appointed to prepare an address to the churches on this subject, with power to recommend some suitable plan for the observance of that important era in our history. This committee was subsequently appointed, with Dr. Wylie as Chairman.

It was on various motions resolved: that the thanks of General Synod be gratefully tendered to the citizens of Philadelphia for their kind hospitality during the Session. To the various Railroad Companies who politely reduced their fare to the delegates. To George H. Stuart for his entertainment of the Synod at his residence. To the Trustees of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, and also to Mr. James Jones, sexton, for the accommodation and special attention rendered to the members.

It was on motion Resolved: That General Synod adjourn to meet in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Allegheny city, Pa., on the third Wednesday in May, 1860, at 7½ P. M. After prayer, and singing the 133rd Psalm, the Synod adjourned.

JOHN NIEL McLEOD,
Stated Clerk.

JOHN NEVIN,
Moderator.

Ministers whose deaths are Reported.

NAME.	PRESBYTERY.	YEAR OF ORDINA'N.	YEAR OF DEATH.	AGE.	DISEASE, &c.
BLACK, A. Watson	Pittsburgh.	1832	1858	50	Dysentery.
Cooper, Ebenezer	Ohio.	1827	1858	63	Dropsy.

In Memoriam.

Black, Andrew Watson—The son of Rev. John Black, D.D., and Elizabeth Watson Black, was born near Pittsburgh, Pa., April 24, 1808. Receiving at the hands of his parents the most careful training, his literary education was pursued under the eye of his father, and for some time at the Academy in Pittsburgh, under Rev. Dr. Robert Bruce. He entered the Western University of Pa., and graduated in 1825. He soon after commenced the study of Theology in the Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, at Philadelphia, where he remained through the whole course. In 1828 he was licensed by the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, and spent some time travelling in the South and West; on his return, he was ordained and installed pastor of Shenango and Neshanock Churches, January 18, 1832. By excessive labours his health became impaired, and in 1838 he resigned his charge and returned to Pittsburgh; but he could not remain unemployed, and in the following year he accepted a call from the Church in Allegheny city, Pa., being a colony from his father's congregation. While pastor in Allegheny, he accepted the appointment of Moral Instructor in the Western Penitentiary. In 1855 he felt called upon to resign his charge, and became agent for the American Bible Society. In 1857 he visited, as a delegate from the Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Evangelical Conference at Berlin, Prussia. In 1858 he was elected Professor of Exegetical, Historical, and Evangelistic Theology, in the Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church at Philadelphia, and was preparing for the duties which devolved upon him by the unanimous wish of the Church, when he was taken ill, and died, Sept. 10, 1858, at his residence near Pittsburgh, Pa., of dysentery. He married Miss Margaret Roseburgh of Pittsburgh, who, with several children, survives him.

Dr. Black wrote many articles for the press, and was a noted man in the Church, as well as in the community in which he lived. He took a prominent part in the literary, benevolent, and religious institutions of his locality and country, and was a ready offhand platform speaker. He sent a dying request to Rev. John Niel McLeod, D.D. of New York, to preach his funeral discourse, which he did; it has since been published.

Cooper, Ebenezer—Was born Aug. 1795, in Chester District, South Carolina. He was the son of John and Mary Cooper, who were very attentive to the training of their children. Giving evidence of early piety, after attaining the proper academical education, he entered the South Carolina College, having the ministry in view, where he graduated. He studied Theology in the Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church at Philadelphia, under the control of that eminent man of God, Rev. Dr. S. B. Wylie. In 1827 he was licensed and ordained by the Pres. of Philadelphia, and entered upon the active duties of the ministry in West Tennessee, taking charge of Hephzibah Church; here he remained some years, but resigned on account of his failing health. He removed to Ohio, being a member of Ohio Presbytery at the time of his death, which took place at Cedarville, Ohio, Nov. 13, 1858, after a lingering illness, of dropsy.

He married Miss Jane McMillan; they had seven children, six sons and a daughter; two of his eldest sons are studying for the ministry, and his whole family bear witness to the godly manner in which they have been instructed.

An Historical Sketch of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

REV. MR. REID of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Scotland, who had been sent on a mission to the United States in 1790, spent some time in Philadelphia, preaching to a few individuals and constituting a society; shortly after Rev. W. Gibson brought on from New York, where an organization had already been made, two elders, Messrs. Andrew Gifford and David Clark, and having constituted a session, organized the society into a congregation, and ordained as elders, Messrs. Thomas Thompson, and Stephen Young; this took place on Sabbath, January 28, 1798, in the house of Mr. Thompson, where the meetings for worship were held. For a long time Mr. Thompson's humble abode in Lombard Street below Front, was the resort of all those who were attached to the Covenanted cause, and its hospitable proprietor, as far as he was able, gave a welcome to every friend of the Redeemer; he with his wife were emigrants from the county Down, Ireland—staunch Covenanters, who had been in communion with Mr. Stavelys' congregation near Belfast. They were poor in this world's goods, but rich in faith. In this house met for the worship of God, Messrs. John Stewart, James McGowan, and Stephen Young from Scotland, Charles Huston, John Wallace, William Atchison, Andrew Atchison, and Samuel Radeliff from Ireland, to these were shortly added John McKinley from Desertown near Derry, Joseph McClurg from Coleraine, Robert Orr from Strabane, John Black, Thomas McAdam, John Reilly, and Samuel B. Wylie. The meetings of the society were held on Wednesday evening, and on such Sabbaths as they could not obtain preaching; this society with their families, Rev. W. Gibson organized into the FIRST REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF PHILADELPHIA; they were industrious, economical, and well-behaved, and though poor and but few in numbers, they furnished a comfortable support to Mr. Gibson for the half of his time.

In 1798 the Reformed Presbytery, which had been dissolved at the formation of the Associate Reformed Church in 1782, was re-constituted by Rev. James McKinney, and W. Gibson. In the summer of 1797, Mr. McKinney had obtained a lot in St. Mary Street above Sixth, on which to erect a Church, but the yellow fever breaking out in the city, the work was suspended, and he left for Galway, New York; but the year following, when Mr. Gibson came to the city, he returned, and organized the Reformed Presbytery. The congregation at this time met in a school house in Gaskill Street below Fifth, and it was here also that the first meeting of the Presbytery was held.

The congregation increasing, the eldership was enlarged by the election, Aug. 5, 1801, of John Stewart, Wm. Henry, Thomas McAdam, and John Reilly; Mr. Stephen Young, one of the first elders, having returned to Scotland: he was a worthy and excellent man.

In 1802, the communion was dispensed by Rev. Messrs. McLeod and Wylie to thirty-five persons, and in the fall of this year a call was presented to Rev. S. B. Wylie, which was accepted on condition that he would be allowed to spend a year in Europe, which was granted. During his absence he collected money for his young and feeble church, receiving nearly 250 dollars; this assistance was gratefully acknowledged by a formal vote of the congregation, being at that time few in numbers, and with very limited resources, they were yet engaged in erecting a church edifice.

On the return of Mr. Wylie, he was installed by Rev. Mr. Black. In 1805 an effort was made by the united Presbyterian Churches of Galway and Duanesburgh, N. Y., to obtain his services, but after prayerful consideration, he remained at his post. The cause, which had been very discouraging, became more hopeful, twenty-five being added to the Church at the subsequent communion, and in 1808 an increase of the session was ordered, and John McKinley, James Robinson, and Robert Orr, were set apart to that office. In 1809 Mr. John Reilly, one of the elders, was licensed to preach, and his connection with the congregation terminated. Their Church accommodations being too limited for their numbers, about this time the house and lot in St. Mary Street was disposed of, and a lot in Eleventh Street below Market was purchased; the erection of the building occupied a considerable time, during which, the congregation were allowed by the Trustees of the Second Associate Reformed Church in Thirteenth Street above Market St., the use of their house. Their new building was dedicated to the worship of God, June 21, 1818, during this year the Church was chartered by the Legislature of the State.

In 1819 the congregation still increasing, the eldership was enlarged by the ordination of Isaac Campbell, John Murphy, and Samuel Bell, and in 1820, Caleb Gray, who had been ordained in the Associate Reformed Church, connecting himself with the Church, was recognized as an elder. In 1824 Hugh Hardy, an elder in the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Ohio, was added to the number, and in 1829, Henry Stirling, an elder in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, was also acknowledged as an elder in this congregation. During this year more room becoming necessary, the Church was enlarged.

About this period, at what was called a pro re nata meeting of the Eastern subordinate Synod, several acts were passed by which ministers were suspended, this attracted a good deal of attention at the time, and a number of the congregation left and organized another Church. After the storm blew over, the atmosphere as usual became more clear, and the prosperity which had heretofore marked the progress of the Church, soon returned, and in 1835 they colonized the Second Reformed Presbyterian Church, near Fairmount, and the same year an addition was made to the eldership, by the election of James Craig, Robert Guy, Robert Lowry, and Charles Bruster; this was necessary, Mr. Gray having died, Mr. Bell having removed from the city, and Mr. Murphy becoming connected with the Second Reformed Church. The popularity of the pastor, and the manifest usefulness of the congregation, caused it to prosper exceedingly, and in 1842, Messrs. Clement McCune, Wm. Montgomery, John Alexander, and George H. Stuart, were set apart and ordained as elders.

In 1843, in view of an increasing congregation, and the advancing age of their pastor, it was decided to call a colleague pastor; and Oct. 26, 1843, his son, Rev. Theodorus W. J. Wylie, was unanimously chosen. In 1846 a second colony was set off, and organized the Third Reformed Presbyterian Church, Kensington; this took place July 6, 1846.

In January 1850, it was resolved to sell the Church and lot in Eleventh Street, and the proceeds to go towards the erection of a new Church. A Building Committee was appointed, consisting of George H. Stuart, Chairman, Hugh Clark, David W. Denison, George Gordon, Jas. Graham, Jr., Robert Guy, James S. Martin, Matthew McBride, William Ray, and Marshall Scott, to whom was intrusted the management of the whole affair; they reported progress from time to time.

Oct. 13, 1852, the senior pastor, Rev. S. B. Wylie, died full of years and honours; the whole charge of the congregation now devolved upon his son, who assumed the entire duties of the pastorate.

A congregational meeting was held Feb. 13, 1853, when it was decided to purchase the lot on the East side of Broad Street above Pine Street, this was done, and arrangements made with John McArthur, Jr., Architect, and John McClure, Builder, to erect a Church edifice. The corner stone was laid April 28, 1853, on which occasion the Rev. John McDowell, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church, (O. S.,) Rev. Wm. Sterrett of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Rev. Wm. Ramsey, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church, (N. S.,) Rev. Richard Newton, D.D., of the Episcopal Church, Rev. A. A. Willets, of the Reformed Dutch Church, Rev. Henry A. Boardman, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church, (O. S.,) and Rev. John Chambers, Independent, assisted the Pastor and Building Committee.

The Church is in the Byzantine style, with a front on Broad Street of seventy feet, with bell towers on the angles, eighty-two feet high. A cloistered porch in front, forming a cover to the entrance, from which gallery stairs start to the towers; the audience chamber is sixty-three feet wide, by seventy-one feet six inches deep, single galleries on either side and double galleries in front, access to which is by four stairways, two in front, and two in the rear, communicating with the Sabbath-school room; the ceiling is thirty-two feet from the floor, is ornamented with exposed principals filled with perforated panel work. The glass of the windows is of a fawn colour, enamelled. The pulpit stands upon a platform, richly pannelled and ornamented, the recess behind it is circular, groined in the ceiling and surmounted by perforated scroll ornaments. The lecture room in the rear of the Church is forty feet nine inches wide, by forty-eight feet six inches in depth, with an infant school room and pastor's study, the latter connecting with the pulpit by a private stairway. The entire second story of this building connecting with the Church galleries, is occupied by the Sabbath-school, its dimension is forty-nine feet six inches, by sixty-three fect six inches, thus making the roof one hundred and fifty feet in depth. The Church was finished and dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Sabbath, April 30, 1854. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. T. W. J. Wylie, preached from 1 Kings viii. 57. "The Lord our God be with us as he was with our fathers." In the afternoon, John N. McLeod, D.D., of New York, preached from Luke xii. 32. "Fear not little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." In the evening, Alexander Duff, D.D., of Calcutta, India, preached from Psalm xcvi. The Sabbath-school was opened in the afternoon, the exercises being conducted by Alexander Duff, D.D., J. N. McLeod, D.D., Rev. R. Patterson, Rev. S. L. Finney, F. A. Packard, Esq., Rev. J. W. Faires, and Rev. W. T. Wylie. The collections taken up during the entire day were $800, which were devoted to the cause of Foreign Missions.

This Church has always been liberal; during the past year the collections were for Foreign Missions, $3,788; Domestic Missions, $150; Congregation, $4,511. Total, $8,299.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL.

This was established in 1824, and has been an important feature in the internal economy of this Church. It has been a prolific nursery from whence many precious children have been transplanted into the garden of the Church. The first Superintendent was Mr. Thomas McAdam, who devoted many years of prayerful labour in its behalf. His successors were, Messrs. Robert Orr, J. Craig, and J. Alexander. The present Superintendent, Mr. George H. Stuart, has devoted his time and talents in perfecting the organization of the school, and bringing it up to the topmost round of success and consequent usefulness. They have three mission schools under active supervision

THE RULING ELDERS.

The Church from its organization has been highly blessed in the important department of the eldership. The following have served in that capacity :

Elders.		Elders.
Alcorn, Andrew	Gray, Caleb	Murphy, John	Sterling, Henry
Alexander, J.	Guy, Robert	McAdam, Thomas	Stewart, John

A brief memoir of those who were identified with the early history of the Church, and laboured faithfully in its behalf, is here placed upon record.

Thompson, Thomas—Was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1747. Immigrating to this country, he took up his residence in Philadelphia. Being born in an humble condition of life, he had formed habits of industry and economy, and being trained in Rev. Mr. Stavely's congregation near Belfast, Ireland, he was a thorough Presbyterian; consequently when any friend of his faith came to Philadelphia, he was sure to find his way to the lowly dwelling of Mr. Thompson, in Lombard street near the river Delaware, and he would receive a welcome prompted by a true Irish heart. It was in his house the Church was organized, with himself as its first elder, and from that time until his death, he proved himself a consistent, persevering friend of the Reformed Church. He died July 19, 1806, and was buried in the little graveyard in St. Mary street. For this man the Rev. Dr. Wylie had a most warm affection, and often has been seen shedding tears at the grave of his friend.

McAdam, Thomas—Was born April 10, 1777, near Ballymena, County Antrim, Ireland. His parents were very respectable members of the Irish Presbyterian Church, then called the Synod of Ulster. He was an ardent friend of liberty, and the oppressive measures of the British Government at that time, led him to take an active part in the efforts made to obtain freedom in Ireland. Incurring the suspicion of the officers of the law, and being in danger of losing his life by a summary trial, he left his native land, and in company with the late Rev. Dr. Wylie, and Rev. Dr. J. Black, who were his intimate friends, he arrived in America on the 10th of October, 1797. During the principal portion of his life he was engaged as a teacher in Philadelphia or its vicinity, being for a considerable period at the head of the mathematical and English school connected with the University of Pennsylvania. Shortly after his arrival in Philadelphia, he became a member of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, and in 1801 was ordained a ruling elder, an office which he discharged with great ability during the remainder of his life. He was for many years Superintendent of the Sabbath-school, and was also Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. He was an active, liberal, and judicious member of the congregation. He died Nov. 16, 1844, after an illness of a few hours. He was a man of noble and generous disposition, dignified and kind in his manners, intelligent, sensible, and truthful.

Craig, James—Was born at Leiter, near Derry, Ireland, in 1799. About the age of eighteen he experienced, as he was well persuaded, that change of heart, without which no one can enter into the kingdom of God. He immigrated to America, and shortly after became connected with the Scots Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, then under the care of Rev. W. L. McCalla. In 1828 he joined the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, in which he became a ruling elder in 1836. He was for many years a very efficient teacher in the Sabbath-school, and for some time its Superintendent. When the subject of Foreign Missions began to attract attention in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, he became deeply interested therein, and in addition to his other efforts he offered himself as a missionary to Northern India. Being accepted by the Presbyterian Board, in company with his wife, he arrived in Saharunpur in 1838, and shortly after took charge of the English school, which he continued to teach until his last illness. He died August, 16, 1845. The faith which he had cherished from his youth sustained him in his dying hour. He was a man of eminent integrity and truthfulness; reserved in his manners, yet kind; serious, thoughtful, and prayerful.

Henry, William—Was born near Newry, County Down, Ireland, Oct. 22, 1768. He immigrated to America in 1793, and shortly after connected himself with the First Presbyterian Church, then under the care of Rev. Dr. Ewing. Soon after the organization of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, he became connected with it, and in 1801 was ordained a ruling elder. He was a wise counsellor, a man of peace, willing to spend and be spent in the service of his Lord. In pastoral visitation, and in the prayer meeting he was especially useful; while in the secular employments of life, as a mechanic, and afterwards as a merchant, he was noted for his integrity, his industry, and his intelligence. He constructed in 1816 the first apparatus used in America to supply gas, which was used in Peale's Museum, Philadelphia, with great success. From conscientious principles he declined lighting a theatre in this mode. His death occurred after a long and painful illness, April 29, 1846. His last days were peculiarly serene. Shortly before his death, he assembled his family around his dying bed, and commending them to the God in whom he had so long trusted himself, like aged Jacob, he tranquilly resigned his soul to God. He was a man of truth and uprightness, unspotted by the world; kind, peaceable, generous, and an intelligent, humble, consistent Christian.

McKinley, John—Was born at Desertown, near Derry, Ireland, in 1772. The warm impulses of an intelligent and noble mind led him to connect himself with those who sought to disenfranchise his country from British bondage. In consequence he became obnoxious to the government, and was obliged to leave his native land. He arrived in America in 1797, and shortly after obtained employment as a teacher, in which occupation he continued till near the close of his life, being for many years at the head of the Charity schools of the University of Pennsylvania. Being a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Ireland, he became connected with the congregation in Philadelphia on his arrival here. He was ordained a ruling elder in 1808, and was pre-eminently useful in this office. His warm-hearted kindness, his sincerity, his earnestness, his judiciousness, his unweariedness, his extensive information, his remarkable gifts in prayer and exhortation, made him a most valuable member of the session and the congregation. He died in 1852, sustained by the strong consolations of an unwavering faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

PASTORS.

Samuel Brown Wylie, D.D., LL.D., the first pastor, was born in Moylagh, County Antrim, Ireland, May 21, 1773. He was endowed by his Creator with a mind and body of great firmness and vigour. He commenced a student's career in early life. His purpose was to master every subject of which he laid hold, and his perseverance seconded his purpose. He entered the University of Glasgow, where his diligence and ability won the approbation of the professors, and passing through the several classes, he graduated with distinguished honour, as Master of Arts. In 1797, soon after his graduation, he emigrated to this country, and landed at New Castle, Delaware, Oct. 18, 1797, after a passage of seventy days; owing to the prevalence of the yellow fever in Philadelphia, when the passengers landed at New Castle, they scattered in various directions, Mr. Wylie in company with Mr. McAdam, started on foot to the city, where they arrived on Saturday Oct. 31, at sundown, and stopped at No. 208 North Second street. His fellow passengers had been Messrs. John Black, John Reilly, and Thomas McAdam, they were all well educated, and were earnestly engaged seeking employment. Mr. McAdam, being the first to obtain a situation, generously divided his earnings with his less successful companions. In about six weeks they were all at work: Mr. Reilly as teacher near Darby, and through the kindness of a venerable friend, Messrs. Black and Wylie in the same capacity, in Lower Dublin and Cheltenham, about ten miles north of the city. They remained here until the fall of 1798, when they were appointed tutors in the University of Pennsylvania.

They belonged to that noble band which met in Brother Thompson's humble dwelling, and were both recognized as students of Theology by the Reformed Presbytery; on June 25, 1799, at a meeting of Presbytery, held in Coldenham, New York, they were licensed to preach the gospel. Mr. Wylie preached some time in Walkkill, N. Y. and assisted Mr. McKinney at a communion in Galway, N. Y., and in the winter of 1800 he returned to Philadelphia. June 25th of this year, he was ordained as a minister of the gospel at Ryegate, Vermont, and was one of a committee appointed to visit the churches in the South in relation to slavery, as the Reformed Presbytery had decided against slaveholders remaining in their communion. The committee descended the Ohio river as far as Maysville, Ky., when they commenced their journey on horseback through Kentucky, Tennessee, and South Carolina; in this latter State they found all their members willing to relinquish slaveholding. On their return they reported to Presbytery, and soon after Mr. Wylie received a call to this newly organized congregation; this call he accepted, but previous to settling, he went to Europe, and was absent a year. In 1803 he was installed, and for a period of fifty years he by a godly example illustrated the Christian life. Whilst labouring as pastor, he was Professor of Greek and Latin in the University of Pennsylvania, and subsequently he became Vice Provost of the same institution. He was also Professor of Theology and Hebrew in the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

In 1847 the fiftieth anniversary of his arrival in this country, his many friends in his congregation and out of it, held a public meeting in the Church, at which, arrangements were made to commemorate the event, which was done by presenting him in a public manner with a service of plate, and a purse of five hundred dollars in gold.

Owing to increasing years Dr. Wylie resigned from the Professorship in the University, and was elected Emeritus Professor.

Thus full of years, honoured by the Church, blessed by his heavenly Father, did this great and good man go down to the grave, surrounded by friends in every department of life; for the Alumni of the University were always ready to speak in glowing terms of their Professor. Visit them where you might, in the various departments of educated life, at the bar, upon the bench, in legislative halls, in the chair of State, in professors' chairs, or in the abode of suffering humanity, where medical skill meets disease, or in the sanctuary, where God's minister proclaims the language of heaven—all bear willing testimony to the worth of this distinguished man, and in the dwellings of the poor his beloved name was a household word. Without any apparent disease, his robust frame gradually gave way, and he quietly slept in Jesus, Oct. 13, 1852.

He was buried in Woodland Cemetery, his funeral being attended by crowds of mourning friends from all ranks and professions of life. It was a noticeable event, and the papers of the day recorded his death as a public calamity.

His son, THEODORUS W. J. WYLIE, D.D., who was the colleague pastor for some years, succeeded his father, and is now the pastor of the Church.

THE SYNOD OF THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA.

THE SYNOD OF THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH met in the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Allegheny city, Pa., May 24, 1859, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., and was opened with a discourse by the Moderator's, alternate, Rev. J. R. W. Sloane, from 2 Tim. iv. 2. "Preach the word." After the discourse the Synod was constituted with prayer, and the following were members of the Rev. JAMES M. WILLSON of Philadelphia was elected Moderator, Rev. S. BOWDEN, Clerk, and Rev. J. W. SHAW, Assistant Clerk.

The Committee on PRESBYTERIAL RECORDS, Rev. A. M. MILLIGAN, Chairman, have examined the records of the Presbyteries of Illinois, Lakes, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Rochester, and find nothing in them contrary to the law and order of the Church.

The Committee on the SIGNS OF THE TIMES, Rev. A. STEVENSON, Chairman, reported: That an attentive observation of God's dealings with his Church and the nation, is always necessary and useful. Isa. xxii. 12-14. Among ourselves, we have many causes for fasting, viz: The weakness of grace in our hearts. The strength of our corruptions. The prevalence of sin among us. The spirit and manner of our attendance upon the ordinances of grace. God's providential dealings with us. And when we look at the condition of other religious denominations, we see many things which call us to mourning before God. For these and many other causes, the Synod appoints the first Thursday in Feb. 1860, as a day of fasting, humiliation, and prayer, to be observed by all the people under its care.

When we look at the providences of the Mediator in the light of his word, we find many things to call forth our gratitude. The blessing of civil and religious liberty which we enjoy. Our educational advantages. That the true character and abominations of the great evils of the day are being more and more exposed. The progress of the Lord's work among ourselves, and throughout the world. For the continuance of gospel ordinances amongst us. The hope we have from God's promises, the light of prophecy, and the signs of the times, that the day of Zion's troubles draws near its close. For these and other reasons, Synod appoints the fourth Thursday of November 1859, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer by all the people under its care.

The Committee on FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE, Rev. W. L. ROBERTS, Chairman, reported a letter from the Irish Synod, to which they have replied.

The Committee on SLAVERY, Rev. J. R. W. SLOANE, Chairman, reported: That slavery, the holding of men as property, to be bought and sold as "chattels personal," is a malum per se, (an evil in itself,) wholly at variance with the Divine word.

That we are more firmly convinced that the Constitution of the United States is the great stronghold and bulwark of this system of violence and oppression, and that, therefore, we will continue to testify against it, refuse to swear the oath of allegiance to it, or obey its unholy requirements.

That those who attempt to defend slavery from the Bible, to impose upon the community the enormous lie that God by his word sanctions a sin so heinous, are guilty of one of the worst and most dangerous forms of infidelity exhibited in this age and nation. That we will labour and pray for the emancipation of the captive, the coming of that day when God will break every yoke, undo the heavy burden, and let the oppressed go free.

The Committee on the THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Rev. S. O. WYLIE, Chairman, reported: That four years have passed since the re-organization of the Seminary, and the Church is already reaping and enjoying the fruits of the institution. The first chair has become vacant by the resignation of the Professor. During the year, ten students were in attendance, and on their examination by the Board gave evidence of attention to their various studies. It is also recommended that the Synod fill the vacant chair; this was subsequently done by the unanimous election of James M. Willson.

The Committee on MISSIONS, Rev. J. R. W. SLOANE, Chairman, reported: That they have examined the records of the Foreign and Domestic Missions, and find they present a healthful condition of these two departments; in the Domestic department, they have been embarrassed for want of funds, from the failure of Presbyteries to fulfil its requirements; it is recommended that the Board be directed to delegate no licentiate to any Presbytery for a shorter period than three months, and before being permitted to enter upon the stated labours of a pastor be must have fulfilled all his appointments.

The Committee on the Communication from the United Presbyterian Church in N. A., proposing to the Synod the propriety of joining their body, Rev. T. SPROULL, Chairman, reported: That they replied to the letter, assuring the United Presbyterian Church of our fraternal regards, and that we have watched the course they have thought proper to pursue with interest and attention; but that our present standing has been deliberately taken, and by divine grace we will persevere until the great end, and the enthronement of Messiah shall be effected.

The Committee on a MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS, Rev. R. Z. WILLSON, Chairman, reported: That they have prepared a petition which asks Congress to make such alterations in the Constitution of the United States, that it will acknowledge the being and authority of God, an acknowledgment of submission to the authority of the Church, to recognize the paramount obligation of God's law, and that it may be rendered, in all its principles and provisions, adverse to any form of slavery within the national limits.

A communication was received from the PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY, asking for a collection to aid them in establishing a publication fund. The application was granted, and the claims of the society referred to the ministers and churches of Synod.

On several motions the thanks of the Synod were returned to the Railroad Companies granting excursion and return tickets; to the brethren of Allegheny and Pittsburgh for the hospitable entertainment of the ministers.

And on motion the Synod adjourned, to meet in the Second Reformed Presbyterian Church, New York, on May, 1861, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Synod adjourned with prayer, and singing 133d Psalm.

An Historical Sketch of the Reformed Presbyterian Congregation of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, Pa.

THE First Reformed Presbyterian Congregation, west of the Allegheny Mountains, had its centre in Pittsburgh, and was bounded on the North by Lake Erie, and extended indefinitely West and South. It was organized about the beginning of this century, and the late Dr. John Black was ordained and installed its pastor. In a few years other congregations being formed out of it, it was reduced to Pittsburgh and its immediate vicinity. At the time of the division of the Church in 1833, a remnant adhered to the old constitutional ground of the Church, which was that of practical dissent from the United States Government, on account of its non-acknowledgment of God, and his law in its Constitution, and its sanction and support of slavery.

These were not more than one-fifth of the whole number of the congregation. In 1834 they called their present pastor Thomas Sproull, who was settled over them in May of that year. In 1836 they had succeeded in erecting the house of worship in Allegheny, in which the Reformed Presbyterian Synod held its Session in 1859.

The congregation now numbers three hundred and seventy-five communicants. There are fourteen praying societies that meet every week for devotional exercises. The Sabbath-school consists of one hundred and fifty pupils, many of whom have been clothed and brought in by the self-denying exertions of young females of the congregation. The Bible class taught by the pastor, consists of nearly fifty young men and young women, who recite in the Bible and subordinate standards of the Church, an hour every Sabbath morning. The congregation is in no permanent debt, and its members contribute cheerfully to the various funds of the Church, as well as to aid brethren in other places to erect houses of worship.

On the lot purchased by the congregation for the erection of the Church, there is erected by Pittsburgh Presbytery a building for a College. It is now occupied by Allegheny city College, an institution where a number of the youth of the Church of both sexes are obtaining a substantial education. A recitation room and a hall in this building has been assigned by the Presbytery to the Theological Seminary, which has there its sessions annually, from the first of November till the last of March, of each year.

The eldership consists of Messrs. William Hazlett, Thomas Newell, Robert Adams, Robert McKnight, David Gregg, Daniel Erwin, and Henry Stewart.

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

THE Synod met, agreeably to adjournment, in the Presbyterian Church, Hopewell, Tennessee, on Monday, Oct. 10, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, R. C. Grier, D.D., from 2 Cor. ii. 16. "To the one we are the savour of death unto death: to the other we are the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?" The sessions were constituted with prayer, and the following were

The Synod proceeded to the election of Moderator, which resulted in the selection of HENRY BRYSON, D.D., of Tennessee Presbytery.

Reports were received from the following Presbyteries, Alabama, First, Georgia, Kentucky, Memphis, Second, Tennessee, and Virginia. From these reports, it appears that the cause of Christ is being advanced, and though without any marked exhibition of power, the gracious influence of the Holy Spirit has manifested itself in a number of churches.

Rev. D. G. PHILLIPS, the Permanent Clerk of the Synod, reported: That he had transcribed the Minutes of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, from 1841 to 1858, both inclusive, into a suitable book, and he was ready to submit the book to the inspection of the Synod.

Professor E. L. PATTON was elected President of Erskine College, in place of R. C. Grier, D.D., resigned.

The Theological Seminary was removed from Due West, Albeville District, South Carolina, to Nashville, Tennessee; and R. C. GRIER, D.D., was appointed Professor. It was resolved that the theological course for the future shall consist of three years, with seven months for a session each year.

Rev. R. C. MATTHEWS, of Monmouth, Illinois, was present, and addressed the Synod as the Delegate of the General Assembly, O. S. Dr. BOYCE, with Dr. H. THOMPSON for alternate, was appointed the Delegate of this Synod to attend the next General Assembly to meet at Rochester, N. Y., in May next.

Rev. JOHN S. PRESSLY and Rev. J. I. BONNER were appointed a Committee to consider the practicability of securing a republication of the constitution and standards of the Associate Reformed Church.

Dr. BOYCE, Chairman of the Board of Foreign Missions, reported that the Board had selected Alexandria, Egypt, as a suitable place for our Missionary operations, but that no volunteers had been obtained to occupy the field. The Synod approved of the selection made by the Board as to the place, but nothing definite was done, inasmuch as the men were wanting to undertake the work. After a free discussion, the whole subject was recommitted to the Board.

Erskine College was represented to be in a prosperous condition. As a preliminary step to the abolishing of the preparatory department in connection with the College, it was resolved that a committee be appointed to prepare and to present to next Synod a plan for the organization and support of an Academy in each of the Presbyteries.

The Synod adjourned to meet at Hopewell, Newton co., Georgia, on the Second Monday of October, 1860.

Historical Sketch of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Hopewell, Tennessee

HOPEWELL CHURCH is one of the oldest churches in Maury Co., Tennessee. The elements that entered into its formation came from Mecklenburg Co., N. C., and were Scotch Irish Presbyterians by descent.

In the years 1806 and 1807, Messrs. John Matthews, James Hannah, W. Henderson, John Baldrige, and some others with their families crossed the bleak mountains that intervene, and located on the south side of Duck river, having to cut their way through the dense cane-brakes that covered the country.

In 1810, Mr. Samuel Scott and James Matthews with their families joined this little colony. Rev. Samuel Brown, in connection with the Associate Reformed Synod of the West, came and preached for this people occasionally for several years, until they could get supplies from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South. In the fall of 1820, Rev. Isaac Grier, D.D., of Mecklenburg Co., N. C., came out and regularly organized Hopewell Church, with Messrs. Samuel Scott, M. Baldrige, James Leech, and Robert Matthews, for ruling elders, and a membership numbering about thirty-five.

In 1824, Hopewell Church in connection with Union—a Church located some twenty miles to the N. W., near Williamsport—presented a call to Rev. R. M. Galloway, a probationer of the First Presbytery of the Carolinas, which he accepted, and was ordained and installed pastor of the united churches in May 1825, by Rev. Dr. Isaac Grier, and Rev. Wm. Blockstocks; the aforesaid elders constituting the session, the membership numbering about forty.

In 1830, Messrs. Samuel Hannah, David Baldrige, and E. Henderson, were ordained as elders. Again in 1833, in consequence of the death and removal of several of the older elders, Messrs. Robt. Craig, James Davis, and Thomas Galloway, were ordained as ruling elders.

On Friday evening of the 9th of Oct., 1840, Rev. Mr. Galloway died of consumption, after an illness of several months, and as the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was to meet at Hopewell on the Monday following, most of the ministers and elders were present to attend the funeral on the previous Saturday. Hopewell was then vacant for several years. In the fall of 1841, a call was presented to Rev. N. M. Gordon, which he declined. In 1844, Rev. J. K. Boyce was settled as pastor, but resigned in 1848. The Church was then vacant for several years, but was furnished with regular supplies.

In the fall of 1854, a call was presented to Rev. John H. Bryson, son of Rev. Henry Bryson, D.D., a probationer of the Tennessee Presbytery, and was accepted. On the last day of December, he was ordained and installed, beginning his ministrations on the first Sabbath of 1855; James Davis, Robt. Craig, Thomas Galloway, and Samuel Hannah, being the ruling elders, and a membership numbering fifty-five. In April following, Henry Harris, Esq., James W. Matthews, Esq., and David Ralston, Esq., were ordained ruling elders. Under the ministry of the present pastor, the Church has been prospered and blessed much beyond anything in its previous history. There have been two very remarkable revivals, besides other meetings of unusual interest. Although there have been several deaths and removals, the membership has been more than doubled. The present building, of which we give an engraving, was dedicated on the 5th of April, 1857, and is one of the most handsome, commodious, and neatly furnished country churches in the south-west. It is situated on the "Columbia and Pulaski Turnpike Road," seven miles south of Columbia, Tennessee, in a beautiful grove about the centre of one of the finest and most charming valleys in Middle Tennessee.

Under the ministrations of the present pastor, the Church has taken new life and energy, and being favourably located, is very largely attended from all the adjacent country. A large Sabbath-school is kept up, except during the winter months. The membership at present is one hundred and twenty, with seven ruling elders, who have been members of Hopewell Session for the following periods: S. Hannah for twenty-nine years; R. Craig, James Davis, Thomas Galloway, for twenty-six years; D. Ralston, J. W. Matthews, and H. Harris, for four years. Long may Hopewell be blessed and prospered by the King and Head of Zion.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH met pursuant to appointment in the Presbyterian Church, Evansville, Indiana, on Thursday, May 19, 1859, and in the absence of the Moderator, was opened with a discourse by Rev. Reuben Burrow, D.D., from 2 Corinthians, iv. 1, 2. "Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not," &c.

After the discourse, the Assembly was constituted by prayer, and upon a call by the Stated Clerk, the following Commissioners were present, and were Members of the Twenty-Ninth Session.

The Committee, REUBEN BURROW, D.D., Chairman, reported:

OVERTURE No. I.—From Pennsylvania Presbytery, asking if a minister supplying two, three, or more congregations, may bring an elder from each congregation, when they have not been united by an act of Presbytery. The Committee recommend: That when a minister is not a pastor, the church or churches he supplies are each entitled to a representation, but if he is a pastor, then all the churches he supplies are entitled to but one.

OVERTURE No. II.—From Mission Synod, asking the alteration of the Synodical line between this and McAdou Synod, so that Platte Presbytery shall be in McAdou Synod, and St. Louis Presbytery in Missouri Synod; which alteration was made.

OVERTURE No. III.—From Ohio Synod, on a union between the Cumberland Presbytery and Evangelical Lutheran denomination. The Committee recommend: That no action be taken at present.

OVERTURE No. IV.—From Oregon Presbytery, that water baptism is in all cases a pre-requisite to a participation in the Lord's Supper. The Committee recommend: That this question was adjudicated upon by the Assembly of 1858, and that no further action is required.

OVERTURE No. V.—From Texas Synod, asking the alteration of the Synodical line, so that portions of Vansant and Henderson counties, in Brazos Synod, shall be in this Synod, and constitute a part of Bacon Presbytery. The alteration was made.

OVERTURE No. VI.—From Trustees of Cane Hill Collegiate Institute, asking the General Assembly, through the Committee of Publication, to aid the Trustees in making good and legal a title to a tract of land left to the Cane Hill College, Arkansas. The Committee recommend: That the Committee of Publication be authorized to do so.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS SYNOD.

Rev. George W. Reynolds moved that the Presbyteries of DECATUR, VANDALIA, and FOSTER, be constituted a Synod, to be known as the Central Synod of Illinois, and to hold its first meeting in Sullivan, Illinois, on Thursday, Oct. 13, 1859, and that Rev. J. B. LOGAN be the Moderator.

The Committee on the JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, Rev. W. H. BALDRIDGE, Chairman, report these questions from the First Church, Pittsburgh, Pa. Is it orderly for a Presbytery to receive under its care an association of persons collected by the efforts of a minister, who was at the time of gathering them together under suspension? The answer is in the negative. Second, Has a Presbytery the power to remove suspension from a minister, while a regular appeal is pending before a higher court? The answer is also in the negative. Third, Has a suspended minister any right to exercise any functions of the ministry? Answer in the negative. Fourth, Is it orderly for a minister to go into the bounds of a regularly organized congregation, to collect from its members the material for another congregation? The answer, it is highly improper and disorderly to do so.

They also report a question from Rev. L. C. Ransom of Alabama, asking, "When a Church member, against whom there is no charge of immoral or irreligious conduct, and whose character is such that there is no ground for any such charge, requests a session to erase his name from their Church books, have they a right to grant his request?" The Committee answer, They have.

A memorial from Texas Synod, asking, Is a minister while holding a letter of removal, still under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery giving such a letter? The answer is, He is amenable until he attach himself to another. Second, Is the holder of such a letter still a member of the Presbytery giving the letter, until he actually joins another Presbytery? The answer is, that he has no further right as a Presbyter in its council. Third, Is the holder of such a letter, a member of the Synod composed in part of the Presbytery granting such a letter? The answer is, that he is not.

The Committee on the NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION, Rev. JOEL KNIGHT, Chairman, reported: That we are happy in reporting that there is great unanimity of faith, practice, and effort in the ministerial ranks, and also a great harmony of effort to maintain a living and vital religion. During the year there has been a cheering exhibition of prosperity in the work of our mission, many glorious revivals of religion, and many accessions to our Church. The shouts of newborn souls have gone up to heaven as testimonials of the triumphs of the gospel in the hands of our ministry. The triumphs should stimulate us to greater efforts in the noble work of the world's conversion to God, to the cultivation of a stronger faith, a deeper piety developing itself in good works, until the gospel of our glorious Redeemer sheds its rays of divine light upon the darkest corners of the earth. Family religion and youthful education are receiving increased attention.

Your Committee would earnestly recommend: That all the members of our churches labour to avoid formalism, and all conformity to the world, and a fashionable religion. The missionary spirit is diffusing itself throughout the Church, and may our entire membership be imbued with the spirit of the commission of our Redeemer, and with united efforts say we will preach the gospel to every creature.

The Committee on the BOARD OF EDUCATION, MILTON BIRD, D.D., Chairman, reported: That an educational spirit is prevailing over our Church, widespread, healthy, and growing. Education in the proper sense of the word, draws out and gives strength to the powers of soul and body; it imparts to the mind the power to acquire knowledge, and the art of applying it to wise and good purposes. Religion and Education mutually act and re-act upon each other. Without the Bible, education is a failure. Hence to let the Bible be banished from the school, is to be indifferent to every interest of humanity.

The Institutions under the control of the Church are,

Bainbridge Male and Female Academy, Indiana.
Bethel College, Tennessee.
Beverly College, Ohio.
Cano Hill College, Arkansas.
Chapel Hill College, Texas.
Cherry Grove Seminary, Illinois.
Clear Spring Academy, Tennessee.
Columbia College, Oregon.
Cumberland University, Tennessee.
Cumberland College, Kentucky.
Cumberland Female College, Tennessee.
Ewing and Jefferson College, Tennessee.

Greenville Female Institute, Kentucky.
Lagrange College, Texas.
McGee College, Missouri.
Newburgh Academy, Indiana.
Perryville Seminary, Kentucky.
Seminary, Sonoma, California.
Seminary, Larossa, Texas.
Steelville Academy, Missouri.
Union Female College, Mississippi.
Union College, Illinois.
Waynesburgh College, Pennsylvania.
Winchester Female Seminary, Tennessee.

It would be better to encourage co-operative efforts on the part of our Presbyteries and Synods, to establish a few Church institutions of the highest order, than to divide means and influence to establish a large number of small Church institutions. Educational work is important, and belongs jointly to the whole Church; when they heartily engage in it, then it will be done up right.

The Committee on the BOARD OF MISSIONS, Rev. H. A. HUNTER, Chairman, reported: That it be recommended to all Presbyteries and Synods having missions, to place them under the care of the Assembly's Board. That all ministers and churches observe the anniversary of the Church in 1860, as in 1859. That the monthly concerts be urged upon the attention of the Church, as the best means to cultivate a spirit of Christian benevolence. That all churches take up a collection for missions once a year, and that Presbyteries be enjoined to present a statistical report to the Assembly, of the amount raised for benevolent purposes in their bounds.

The receipts during the year have been $9,353.

On motion of Rev. W. E. WARD, it was resolved, that, whereas, intelligence from the missionaries in India has been received, expressing a desire that the first week in January, 1860, be set apart by all Christendom as a time of prayer for the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit, this Assembly hereby recommend the observance of the time specified, to be devoted to that purpose.

On motion of MILTON BIRD, D.D., it was resolved that the Synods be required to ascertain the causes of the Presbyteries failing to send up a statistical report, as ordered by the Assembly.

On several motions the thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the citizens of Evansville for their cordial welcome and hospitality. Also to the several churches for the use of their houses. Also to the Moderator, for the dignified and impartial manner in which he presided; and to the Clerks for their attention.

On motion the Moderator, by virtue of the authority delegated to him, dissolved the Assembly, and required that another Assembly chosen in like manner meet in Nashville, Tenn., on the third Thursday of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

SMITH PARKS, Clerk.

THOMAS B. WILSON, Moderator.

Ministers whose deaths are Reported.

We introduce the following table of the ministers who have rested from their labours during the year, ending with the last meeting of the General Synod. The Biographies have been arranged from facts furnished by relatives, Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, physicians, and others, who were acquainted with those who have died. We thus give a complete though brief record of their ministerial career.

NAME.	PRESBYTERY.	YEAR OF ORDINA'N.	YEAR OF DEATH.	AGE.	DISEASE, &c.
CALHOUN, Thomas S.	Chapman	1852	1858	35	Killed by a fall.
Clayton, Abner L.	Elyton.	1844	1859	56	Consumption.

In Memoriam.

Calhoun, Thomas P.—The son of Rev. Thomas and Mary (Johnson) Calhoun, was born in Wilson Co., Tenn., in 1823. He was educated in the Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., and studied Theology in the Seminary at Princeton, N. J. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Chapman, and ordained in 1852. He was secretary for several years of the Board of Foreign and Domestic Missions of the Cumberland Church, and editor of the "Missionary," a periodical of the Church. He paid considerable attention to teaching. In the winter of 1858 he went up, to Minnesota, and during his stay, whilst riding out with his wife in a sleigh, his horse became unmanageable, and running off a bridge, they all fell, and Mr. Calhoun was killed instantly, his wife was also injured.

Mr. C., was a son of Rev. Thos. Calhoun, one of the first ministers in the Cumberland Church, and a nephew of Rev. John Provine, and having been carefully trained, with a cultivated intellect and refined manners, he bid fair to be a very useful minister to the Church.

He married Miss Elizabeth Lowry, only daughter of Rev. David Lowry, who, with two children, survives him.

Clayton, Abner S.—Was born in Alabama, Dec. 1, 1802. It was not until Oct. 1842, that he made a profession of religion, which he did at Shiloh, Jefferson Co., Alabama. In the spring of 1843 he became a member of Elyton Presbytery, and in the fall of 1844, was ordained to preach the Gospel; he laboured in the bounds of the Presbytery until 1849, when he removed to Itawamba Co., Miss., where he laboured faithfully until May 1, 1859, when he died of consumption. As a preacher he was zealous and successful.

His widow and a large family survive him. Rev. A. B. Bullard preached his funeral sermon.

Historical Sketch of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Evansville, Indiana.

It was in the year 1841 that a congregation was organized, styled "the Evansville Congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church," with Wm. Henderson, S. D. Hopkins, and J. C. Henson as elders, though it was not until some ten years later that it enjoyed the services of a settled pastor, or that a Church edifice was erected. The ladies of the Church at an early day organized a "Sewing Circle," which met weekly from house to house for nearly six years; and it is to their untiring zeal and persevering effort in this way that we attribute the success of the congregation—so few in number and feeble in resource—in being able to secure a lot in one of the most desirable portions of the city, and build thereon a neat and commodious house of worship. The house is literally a monument to the industry and self-sacrificing spirit of a few pious women, sincerely and ardently attached to the Church of their choice, and the service of their Master. And what is worthy of note, because it is unusual, they had the gratification of knowing that it was entirely paid for before it was dedicated to the service of God, or a sermon was preached within its walls. Their names are Mrs. Henson, Mrs. Mackey, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Lockhart, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. McLure; Misses Henson, Mackey, and Johnston.

Rev. David Darr, and Rev. Wm. Lambert, each supplied the congregation for a short time with the word and ordinances; though before it had any fixed place of worship. The former still resides within the bounds of the congregation, but has been compelled by an affection of the throat to desist almost entirely from public speaking; the latter died shortly after taking charge, in fact, before removing from the place of his former residence.

In the fall of 1852, Rev. James Ritchey settled in Evansville, and assumed the pastoral care of the congregation. The Lord seems to have blessed his labours in a good degree, though they were marked by no special out-pouring of the Spirit. He remained only two years, but left behind him many warm-hearted friends, who will ever remember him as a faithful and devoted servant of God.

Rev. Samuel Jacobs was his successor; he remained, however, only little more than a year, when owing to the ill health of his family, he was compelled to give up the charge. He removed to Pittsburg, Pa., having received a call from a congregation in that place.

For eighteen months after the resignation of Mr. Jacobs, the congregation were without a pastor; when the present incumbent took charge, about the first of February 1858. He found the congregation very much scattered, and not a little discouraged, the Sabbath-school broken up, and some of the members gone off to other churches in the city. It is thought, however, that his labours have been productive of good, and that the prospects of the congregation never were so gratifying as at the present time. During the winter just past, they enjoyed a gracious revival of religion, at which more than twenty professed religion, and thirteen united with the Church. A weekly prayer meeting was organized, which is sustained with zeal and profit; the Sabbath-school is in a very flourishing condition; and the whole economy of the Church is of a character to awaken the liveliest feelings of gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, for such a manifest display of his sustaining grace.

The Church edifice was partially destroyed by fire in the summer of 1858; the audience room and upper portion of the building being entirely consumed. It has since been rebuilt, and very much improved both in appearance and comfort. It stands on the corner of Chestnut and Second Streets. It will seat between 350 and 400 persons. The audience room is on the second floor, has gallery, and is lighted with gas, and is otherwise finished in good style. It is painted outside a stone colour. The elders at present are J. C. Henson, John Hall, and S. D. Hopkins.

The pastor is supported in part by the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; though it is hoped that at no distant day it will be self-sustaining. A number of the members living in the country have the gospel preached twice a month by Rev. J. E. Bates; but they keep up the weekly prayer meeting as well as the Sabbath-school. May such be the case, and may the Great Head of the Church bless the little vine which he has planted here, and may it grow, and bud, and blossom, and bear much fruit to the honour and praise of his most holy name.

ACTS OF THE SYNOD.

The Committee on the Professorate, Rev. G. Abeel, Chairman, reported: That they had received the reports from the Board of Superintendents of the Theological Seminary, from which it appears that during the year there were in attendance of the Senior class 14, Middle class 16; and Junior class 21; Total, 51.

The Board of Corporation report: That two subscriptions of $500 each, had been paid in; also six bonds of $100 each, in trust for the Holland Academy, Michigan.

The Widows' fund amounts to $17,018 35. There are 84 subscribers to the fund, ten having been added during the year.

The Committee on Correspondence, Rev. F. H. Vanderveer, Chairman, reported: That the Free Church of Scotland had sent copies of the debates and proceedings of their General Assemblies of 1857 and 1858, which contain much important information. A letter was received from the Reformed Dutch of South Africa.

The Rev. George H. Fisher, delegate to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, (O. S.) reported: that he had attended the Sessions at Indianapolis. It was resolved to continue this fraternal intercourse by a communication to the two former bodies, and Rev. John DeWitt was appointed as a delegate to the General Assembly (of 1860) of the Presbyterian Church.

The Committee on the State of Religion, Rev. M. S. Hutton, Chairman, reported: That they have seldom had more cheering documents than the reports of the several Synods on this subject. They have a statement from nearly every Church in our connection, and with hardly an exception the language is joyous and hopeful. In endeavouring to ascertain the state of religion in our Church, we must first ask, What does Christ think of the Church? And secondly, what the Church thinks of him? We know indeed the Lord sees much in us for the forgiveness of which we daily intercede, but during the past year the light of his countenance seems to have rested upon her, his truth is proclaimed throughout her borders.

During the year the Church has prayed more, and given more for benevolent purposes, she is active amid her young, seeking to bring them early to the Saviour. Far therefore, as she comes short of what she ought to be, deeply as she mourns over her want of self-sacrificing love, her attitude is cheering and full of promise. She is penitent but grateful, praying for more grace, thanking God and taking courage.

The Stated Clerk reported: That the proposed amendment to the Form of Administration of the Lord's Supper, having received the approval of seventeen Presbyteries, being a majority, the alteration, "That he although innocent was condemned." was constitutionally adopted.

The Committee on Education, Joseph F. Berg, D.D., Chairman, reported: That the intelligence concerning the Boards of Education and Sabbath schools is of the most gratifying character. The number of candidates for the ministry is eighty-three, this is a great increase, but the means of education have been supplied to meet the demand.

The Committee on Domestic Missions, Rev. B. C. Taylor, Chairman, reported: That the operations of the Board during the year have been highly blessed. Eighty churches have been aided, having the labour of sixty-seven ministers and missionaries; five hundred and eighty-four professed their faith in Jesus, and one hundred and forty-four were received on certificate. Four churches have become self-sustaining during the year. God has shown that he approves our work, and will bless the efforts of the sons and daughters of Zion in building up his kingdom in the world. The receipts during the year have been $16,803 85, a small increase over the previous year.

In Memoriam.

Labagh, Peter—The son of Isaac and Judith (Ozee) Labagh, was born in New York city, Nov. 10, 1773. He was educated by Rev. Dr. Wilson of Erasmus Hall, Flatbush, N. Y., and studied Theology under Drs. Fræleigh and Livingston. He was licensed and ordained by the classis of Hackensack, July 1796, as a missionary to Mercer Co., Ky., and organized a Church at Salt River, Kentucky, where he laboured for six months. He returned to New York and accepted a call from the churches of Catskill and Oakhill. In 1809 he took charge of Harlingen and Neshannic churches, N. J., in 1821 he resigned the Neshannic Church, but remained pastor of the other until 1844, when he resigned. He was taken suddenly ill at his residence in Harlingen, N. J., whilst at family worship, and gradually sunk away till he died, Oct. 25, 1858, of paralysis. He was a man of decided talent; to a mind, clear and sparkling, he joined a warm and generous heart. He married Miss M. VanAlen, in May 1798; after her death, he married in October, 1808, Miss M. Schoonmaker, who, with one son and two daughters, survives him.

Lee, Robert P.—The son of Robert P., and Caroline (Hawkins) Lee, was born at Yorktown, N. Y., Sep. 27, 1803. He entered Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1821, and the following year removed to Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., then under the Presidency of Dr. J. M. Mason, here he graduated in 1824, and entered his father's office to study law. Having experienced a change of heart during his College course, his thoughts were turned towards the ministry, and in 1825 he entered the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Dutch Church at New Brunswick, N. J., graduating in 1828. He was licensed by the South Classis of New York, and laboured as a missionary in New York city. In 1829 he was called to the Church at Montgomery, N. Y., where he was ordained and installed by the Classis of Orange. Here he laboured faithfully until his death, which took place at Fishkill, New York, and was caused by an abscess of the liver, Sept. 30, 1858. He married Miss Elizabeth Wiltsie, daughter of John Wiltsie, Esq., of Fishkill Landing, N. Y., who, with a family of five sons and two daughters, survives him. He was much beloved by his brethren, and they always manifested great regard for his opinions and views, being remarkable for wisdom and prudence. He was a zealous labourer in the cause of his Master, spending much of his time in doing good.

May, E. H.—The son of Robert and Mary (Harrison) May was born at Lynn, Norfolk, England, January 28, 1795. Having received a good education, he studied for the ministry at Huxton College, near London, in connection with the Independent Dissenters. He was ordained in 1815 over the Independent Church at Bury, Lancashire. He subsequently ministered to the congregation at Rochford in the South of England, and afterwards at Corydon, Surrey, where he was eminently successful, but an ardent love for republican institutions prompted him to leave his native land. He arrived in New York in 1834, and after spending some time in travelling, in 1835 he became a member of the classis of Washington (since changed to Saratoga) and was pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church in Northumberland. The following year he preached to the Church in Schuylerville, where he remained until 1839, when he accepted a call to the Twenty-first street Church, New York City, and in 1848 he accepted the appointment of Secretary to the Pennsylvania Colonization Society, but the following year he became Secretary of the Pennsylvania Seamen's Friend Society, where his usefulness was so marked that the Directors refused to part with him though increasing years warranted his retirement. In 1857 he yielded to the solicitation of his son and daughter to take up his abode with them, which he did, and he became a resident of New York. He died August, 1858, of dysentery. He married Miss Mary Ann Schofield of London, England, an intelligent Christian lady. They had a family of six children. He was an instructive and evangelical preacher, a man of refined taste and correct judgment. He was considered by all who knew him to be a frank open-hearted Christian gentleman.

Scott, James—The son of Rev. John and Janet (Geddes) Scott was born in Glasgow, Scotland, September 28, 1809, receiving a good education. He entered the University of Glasgow, where he studied three years, also at Belfast two years. In 1832 he emigrated to America, and studied Theology under the care of the New York Presbytery. In 1834 he was licensed by the Presbytery of New York, and having accepted the call from the Presbyterian churches of German Valley and Fox Hill, New Jersey, he was ordained by Newton Presbytery. Here he laboured until 1843, when he accepted a call from the First Reformed Dutch Church of Newark, N. J. He entered upon his new field of labour with characteristic zeal, and the church was blessed exceedingly; and whilst devoting his energies to his high calling, he was also aiding by his voice and influence every good word and work, being identified in the organization of the Library Association, the Orphan Asylum, and was a ready speaker and labourer in behalf of any Christian object. His death was caused by paralysis, May 10, 1858; his funeral was attended by the authorities of the city, the judges of the courts, and a large assemblage of the citizens of Newark. Rev. Dr. Abel preached his funeral sermon. He married Miss Anne Wallace of County Down, Ireland, who, with three sons and three daughters, survives him. He was a good scholar, and as a preacher attractive, possessing a vivid imagination and taking a clear view of his subject, he would illustrate his text in a truly eloquent manner. He was the author of a Life of Pollock, also an Essay on the Course of Time, and a Poem entitled The Guardian Angel.

Sill, George G.—The son of Silas and Hannah Sill, was born January 26, 1791, at Lynn, Connecticut. He received a good education, and studied Theology at Auburn Seminary, New York. He was licensed by Rochester Presbytery in 1821, and ordained by the same Presbytery in 1825, as an Evangelist among the new settlements and destitutions of the Presbytery. He afterwards preached at Mendon, N. Y., for some years, and in 1827 he edited the Rochester Observer, the first religious newspaper in Western New York. In 1835 he removed to Illinois where, in 1841, he joined the Reformed Dutch Church, and laboured at Brunswick, Peoria co., Illinois. In 1849 he removed to Farmington, Michigan, and finally returned east, and without having any pastoral charge, he preached in the vicinity of Albany to the poor and destitute. In 1857 he had an apoplectic attack, since which time his health gradually gave way until he died of paralysis, May 28, 1859. He was a man of robust constitution, with a genial temperament and a heart filled with love to all mankind, especially manifesting it in his regard for the poor. He was a good scholar, fond of antiquarian research, and it was whilst visiting the scenes of his youth, collecting materials for the "Genealogical History of the Sill Family," (which has since been published) he was taken with his last illness. He married Miss Louisa W. Lord, daughter of Deacon Lord of Sweden, N. Y. After her death to Miss Samantha R. Green, daughter of James Green, Esq., of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. He was the author of a Verse Book of Scripture for the Sabbath Schools, and when in Illinois he prepared a Manual of the History and Polity of the Reformed Dutch Church, which had an extensive circulation among the early settlers.

Van Olinda, Duow—The son of Cornelius and Catharine (Fonda) Olinda, was born, June 9, 1800, at Charleston, N. Y. He was licensed by the Classis of New Brunswick in 1824, and was stationed at Palatine in the bounds of the Classis of Montgomery, and subsequently at Mapletown. In 1831 he removed to New Paltz; in 1843 to Fonda; in 1845 to Caughnawaga, N. Y., where he was labouring at the time of his death, which took place, September 19, 1858. He was married three times, viz., to Miss Jerusha Vincent, Mrs. Gertrude Etling, and Mrs. J. A. Van Olinda. His family consisted of three sons and three daughters.

Vermeule, C. C.—Was licensed in 1814 by the Classis of N. York, and became pastor of the church at Harlem, N. Y. Here he laboured until 1837. He died in 1858.

Historical Sketch of the North Dutch Church, Albany, New York.

IN 1630, Kilian Van Rensselaer, a merchant of Amsterdam, purchased a tract of land from the Indians, twenty-four miles long by forty-eight broad, containing 700,000 acres, now lying in Albany, Rensselaer, and Columbia counties, New York. This gentleman regarded the institutions of religion as a very essential element of prosperity for his colony, and his first efforts were directed towards their establishment. In 1642, he secured the services of the Rev. Johannes Megapolensis, who was at that time pastor of two congregations in Holland.

The call which was sent to him, dated March 22nd, 1642, reads that, "By the state of navigation, in the East and West Indies, a door is opened, through the special providence of God, also in New Netherlands, (New York,) for the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for the salvation of men." His salary for the six years of pastoral labours which was stipulated, was 1,100 guilders, ($140) 22½ bushels of wheat, and 2 firkins of butter per annum, for the first three years, and if his labours were satisfactory to the patroon, he was to receive an additional sum of 200 guilders per annum for the three succeeding years. He was also to receive $120 by way of outfit, and a free passage and board for himself and family to his new field of labour. A house was also to be provided for him on his arrival at Rensselaerswyck. And in case he was captured by the Dunkirkers on the passage, measures were to be taken immediately for his ransom, and a certain sum allowed monthly for his support, and in case of his death before the expiration of the six years, provision was to be made for the support of his family till the end of that term. These just and liberal terms are enumerated to show that the head of the colony duly estimated the value of religion, and the services of a pious and learned ministry.

Dominic Megapolensis reached this country on the 11th of August 1642, and entered at once upon his duties, which he faithfully discharged, labouring not only among the colonists, but took great interest in preaching to the Indians, many of whom resorted to Fort Orange for the purpose of trade, and from whom the Dominic learned their language, and preached the Gospel to them several years before Eliot began his labours among the Indians of New England.

The first house of worship in Albany was built for him. It stood near the Fort, on what is now called Church street. A plain wooden building thirty-four feet long, and nineteen wide, furnished with a pulpit ornamented with a canopy, pews for the magistrates and Church officers, and nine benches for the people. In this simple structure the congregation worshipped thirteen years.

After the departure of Dominic Megapolensis in 1649, the Church remained vacant until 1652, when they called the Rev. Gideon Schaats, a native of Holland, and who remained with them until 1682.

In 1656 a new house of worship was erected at the corner of what is now State street and Broadway, this building was also of wood, but erected in the most substantial manner. The corner stone was laid by Rutger Jacobson, and one of the magistrates of the city, and the ancestor of the venerable lady now a member of this Church, (Mrs. Blandina Dudley,) who has become distinguished by her munificent encouragement of astronomical science. They sent to Holland for an oaken pulpit and a bell, both of which arrived. The old pulpit is still preserved, an interesting and valuable memorial of the past. In 1675, Rev. Mr. Niewenhuysen was called as a colleague with Mr. Schaats, but the time of his departure is not upon record. In 1683, by reason of the increasing years of Mr. Schaats, the Classis of Amsterdam sent out as his assistant Rev. Godfreidus Dellijs, who was a man of faith and piety.

There are no records of the Church prior to this date, but in this year (1683) Mr. Dellijs began a register of baptisms, which has been continued to be kept with much accuracy until the present day. The Church was large and flourishing, the list of members in 1683 is still preserved in the handwriting of Mr. Dellijs, it amounts to between six and seven hundred. After a period of sixteen years, Mr. Dellijs left the Church and sailed for Holland in 1699.

His successor was Rev. Johannes Petrus Nucella, who remained until 1702. In the following year, Rev. Johannes Lydius commenced his labours, and like his predecessors interested himself in behalf of the Indians. He died March 1st, 1710. After remaining vacant for two years, the Rev. Petrus Van Driessen was called to the pastoral charge of the Church. During his ministry a new edifice was erected. It was built of stone, with a steep pyramidal roof, surmounted with a weathercock, and was for its day an imposing building.

It was erected around the old Church, which was taken down and carried out piecemeal after the walls of the new building were raised and covered. The services of public worship were only interrupted three Sabbaths by reason of this removal. The new Church was of massive architecture and solid workmanship. Each of its windows contained the coat of arms of some one of the families of the congregation, in stained glass. Those in possession of the Dudley, Van-Rensselaer, and Wendell families, are in excellent preservation.

The seats around the walls were occupied by the respectable old burghers and heads of families. On the west side were the seats for the Governor and Magistrates of the city. On the right and left of the pulpit were the members of the consistory. Conspicuous among them was the voorlezer or clerk, a very important functionary, who opened the services of the Sabbath by reading a few texts of Scripture, the ten commandments, a chapter in the Bible, and singing of a Psalm, the number of which was displayed on a tablet hung at the side of the pulpit, in sight of the congregation.

The seats in the body of the house were occupied by the females. The large galleries which extended on three sides of the house were for the younger male members of the congregation.

It was the custom in those days for the minister to enter during the singing, and before ascending into the pulpit, to stand a moment at the foot of the stairs in silent prayer. In front of the desk of the pulpit was placed the hour glass, and the dominie gave them good measure, as he rarely closed his discourse before the last sands had fallen. In 1720, the congregation applied to Hon. Peter Schuyler, President, and the rest of his majesty's council of the Province of New York, for an act of incorporation, which was granted to the Church, under the title of the "minister, elders, and deacons of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, in the city of Albany," bearing date August 10th, 1720. In 1733, the congregation called as colleague Rev. Cornelius Van Schie.

After a period of twenty-six years devoted to the pastoral care of the congregation, Rev. Petrus Van Driessen died on the 1st of February, 1738. Rev. C. Van Schie, his colleague, survived him until August 15, 1744.

In 1745, the Rev. Theodorus Frelinghuysen entered upon his duties as pastor, his manners were frank and popular, he laboured for fifteen years, when he left for Holland in 1760, and was lost overboard on the passage.

His successor was Rev. Eilardus Westerlo, who received his call whilst at the University at Groningen; after deliberation, and with the advice of his instructors at the University, he accepted it. He was examined, approved, and installed in Holland as minister of this Church in March, 1760, and in the fall of the same year began his duties. During his pastorate, the question was decided, severing the connection which had existed between the ecclesiastical courts of Holland and the churches in this country. Dr. Westerlo took a prominent part in this matter, in favour of the separation which was made in 1772. During the Revolutionary war he was an ardent patriot, and at that critical period, just prior to Burgoyne's surrender, he held special religious services in the Church daily for a week, imploring the interposition of God in behalf of the army.

The importance of introducing religious services in English (for up to this time all the services of the Church were in the Dutch) was felt, and Dr. Livingstone was called in 1780, as colleague, to preach in that language; he declined the invitation however, and in 1782, Dr. Westerlo began to preach half the day in English himself. In this year Washington visited Albany and had a public reception. Dr. Westerlo delivered the address as minister of the Church and president of the consistory.

He died December 26, 1790, in the 53rd year of his age. Three years previous to his death, in 1787, Rev. John Bassett was called as his colleague; he remained pastor until December 1804, when he gave up his charge. Upon his retirement from the pastoral duties of the Church, the consistory voted to pay him an annuity of $562 50, for the term of his natural life. During Mr. Bassett's pastorate the congregation had increased so much that it was decided to build a new Church edifice, the corner stone of which was laid June 12, 1797, and it was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, January 27, 1799. The dedicatory sermons were preached by Rev. Mr. Bassett in the morning, from Psalm lxxxiv. 1, 2; and in the afternoon by Rev. John Barnet Johnson, from the 4th verse of the same Psalm. Mr. Johnson was at this time the colleague pastor, having been called in 1796, and remained as such until 1802, when he removed to Brooklyn. After the removal of Mr. Bassett in 1804, the Church remained vacant until 1805, when the Rev. John Melancthon Bradford was called, whilst pursuing his theological studies with Rev. Dr. Ashbel Green of Philadelphia. Having accepted the call, he was ordained to the office of the Gospel ministry, and installed pastor of the Church. This relation existed for a period of fifteen years, during which time the Second Church was organized. As early as 1799, the project of setting off a colony and building another Church was thought of, and in April 30, 1806, the corner stone of the Second or Middle Dutch Church was laid, and the building after many delays was completed in 1810.

In 1813, Rev. John De Witt was called as colleague pastor, with Dr. Bradford, which he accepted. In 1815 it was deemed advisable that the collegiate form of the Church should be abandoned, and that two distinct congregations should be formed, each with its own edifice, pastor, and consistory. This was carried into effect in an amicable spirit. An equitable division was made of the Church property, the two pastors drew lots for Church edifices, and the congregations connected themselves with one or the other, according to their individual choice or convictions of duty.

Rev. Dr. DeWitt became pastor of the Second or South Church, Rev. Dr. Bradford remained with the Old Church, which was thereafter known as the North Dutch Church. Upon his retirement in 1820, the pulpit remained vacant until August 31, 1822, when John Ludlow, D.D., then a Professor of Biblical Literature and Ecclesiastical History at New Brunswick, N. J., was called, and in July 1823, he entered upon his duties as pastor.

In 1828 the consistory erected a new consistory room, and altered the old one into a parsonage, which after several additions and improvements furnishes a spacious and delightful residence to the pastor of the Church.

Dr. Ludlow left in 1833, and the pulpit was again vacant until 1835, when the Rev. Thomas E. Vermilye was called, who remained until 1839. After another vacancy of two years, Rev. Duncan Kennedy was installed pastor, December 22, 1841; he remained until 1855, when he removed to the Second Presbyterian Church, Troy. The pulpit remained vacant until November 19, 1856, when Ebenezer P. Rogers, D.D., was installed. Dr. Rogers had previously been pastor of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, and was well known as one of the most eloquent preachers in that city. The Church was completely renovated in its interior decorations during the year 1858, and is considered one of the finest Church edifices in the denomination. The congregation consists of 200 families, and 487 communicants; their contributions during the past year were for all purposes, $23,176 00.

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF NEW YORK.

A NUMBER of persons belonging to this Synod, not in favour of the Union perfected last year with the Associate Synod, retain the above name, and held a meeting in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Newburg, N. Y., June 16, 1859; which was opened with a discourse by Rev. J. D. Gibson, from Matt. xxviii. 18, 19, 20. The business brought before the Synod was disposed of, and they adjourned to meet in Stamford, N. Y., June 17, 1860.

THE FREE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

THE Synod of the Free Presbyterian Church met according to appointment in the Presbyterian Church, Darlington, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, October 27, 1859, and was opened with a discourse from the retiring Moderator, Rev. WALLACE G. KEPHART.

Rev. A. B. BRADFORD, who was appointed at the last meeting of the Synod to present an overture to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which met in the City of Wilmington, Delaware, in May, 1839, reported that he had fulfilled his commission; that the Assembly appointed a committee to take cognizance of the overture, which committee subsequently reported adversely to the proposal. The other business was of the usual routine character.

Bills and Overtures.

OVERTURE No. I.—TRICENTENARY OF THE REFORMATION IN SCOTLAND. The overture was adopted, and Rev. W. Snodgrass, and A. Morris, Esq., of Montreal, were appointed a Committee to co operate with the Church of Scotland, and with the other Presbyterian Synods in this Province, and report to next meeting the best mode of celebration.

OVERTURE No. II.—Alterations in act appointing public collections. Agreed to, and collections appointed as follows :

1. Jewish Mission Scheme, on 1st Sabbath of July.
2. Temporalities Fund, on 1st Sabbath of October.
3. Ministers', Widows', and Orphans' Fund, on 1st Sabbath of January.
4. French Mission Scheme, on 1st Sabbath of April.

OVERTURE No. III.—BURSARY SCHEME, for the support of students of divinity at Queen's College, Kingston. Disposed of by the appointment of Committee to watch over the interests of the scheme, and report to next session. Dr. Machar of Kingston, Convener.

OVERTURE No. IV.—MISSION TO BRITISH COLUMBIA AND VANCOUVER'S ISLAND. Disposed of by the following resolution : That the Synod, having considered the overture, and being unable at present to carry the same into practical effect, yet regarding British Columbia and Vancouver's Island as a field of missionary labour, which urgently requires to be occupied, have observed with satisfaction the steps taken by the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland for sending missionaries to these Colonies, and would rejoice to learn that they had succeeded in securing suitable labourers for that rising portion of the British Empire, and instruct the Clerk to communicate this minute to the Colonial Committee.

OVERTURE No. V.—MAINTENANCE OF MINISTERS. An overture to prevent Presbyteries from inducting any minister without a guarantee of £100 currency, with or without assistance, but exclusive of allowance from the Temporalities Fund. Overture converted into an interim act, and transmitted for the consideration of Presbyteries. An amendment proposing that it should not be made an interim act was lost, by a vote of 22 to 17.

OVERTURE No. VI.—Annexation of the charge of New Richmond in the Presbytery of Quebec, to the Presbytery of Miramichi, in the Synod of New Brunswick. Annexation agreed to.

OVERTURE No. VII.—Missionary operations, and the employment of students as catechists. A Committee was appointed to report on the subject, by bill or overture to the next session.

Annual Reports.

I. Temporalities Fund. Thomas Paton, Esq., Montreal, Chairman. Treasurer's statement showed the revenue of last year from stocks and bonds, inclusive of balance, to be $36,407 17; Disbursements for the payment of ministers, $35,757 17; Expenses, $30 92; Total, $35,788 69. Balance, $619 08. Congregational collections during the year amount to $926 59.

It was resolved to recommend the Board to commence operations in September, for the purpose of augmenting the fund by subscriptions and donations throughout the Church; the reason assigned being the rapid increase of ministers.

II. Synod Fund. For defraying expenses incurred by the Synod. John Cameron, Esq., Toronto, Treasurer. Balance on hand from 1857, $141 82;

Receipts during 1858, 406 88; Total, $548 70. Disbursed during 1858, $539 40; Balance, $9 30. Liabilities, $198 38½. Arrears, $136.

The Synod altered the scale of assessments on sessions, to secure an increase of revenue.

III. University of Queen's College, Kingston, C. W. The Trustees reported a large increase in the number of students. The state of the roll was as follows: Faculty of Theology, 11; Arts, 53; Medicine, 79. Total, 143. Being the greatest number ever matriculated in one year. There were 12 from the Synods of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Dr. George Lawson of Edinburgh, Scotland, had been elected Professor of Chemistry and Natural History.

The report bore testimony to the ability and success of all the Professors. The rapid increase in the number of students had necessitated the erection of additional buildings. The temporal necessities of many students for the ministry, occasioned much anxiety, and the hope was expressed that the Church would largely increase the Bursary Fund. A sum of $21,883 67, is required to complete the purchase of grounds and buildings. The Treasurer's account current showed receipts from all sources, including balance of last year, to be $27,245 10; Expenses for all purposes, 26,124 73; Balance, $1,120 37. Contributions to the Bursary Fund amounted to $1,149 10; Balance of last year, 340 89; Total, $1,489 99. Disbursements, $1,756 33; Balance overdrawn, $266 34.

IV. Church Property. The Committee, Judge Logie of Hamilton, Convener, reported that they had received during the year information concerning 28 churches, and 9 manse. In some cases, title deeds had been lost or mislaid; in others, they were held by parties who had left the Church.

It was suggested that an Act of Parliament should be asked to alter the laws of the Province, so as to provide for uniformity in the mode of holding property, and appointing managers. The Committee were instructed to prepare a general statement of the property of the Church throughout the Province, to be submitted to next meeting.

V. Ministers', Widows', and Orphans' Fund. Rev. Alexander Mathieson, D.D., Montreal, Chairman. Total increase over last year, the season being one of entire depression, $70. Deposit in Bank at the beginning of the year, $2,136-53; Congregational collections during the year, 1,677 88; Ministers' contributions, 1,074 00; Interest on permanent investments, 2,007 91; Legacy by the late Hon. Wm. Morris, 400 00; Total, $7,296 32.

Expenditure. Annuities to 18 widows, $1,900 00; Invested, 2,800; Incidental charges, 146 45; Deposited in Bank, 2,449 87; Total, $7,296 32. The total amount at the credit of the fund, $25,633 87. 15 congregations, and 33 vacancies and stations, reported as having neglected to contribute.

The following is the scale of distribution, now in force. The contribution required of each minister is $12 per annum:

That the annuity to be paid to widows shall be at the rate of $50. from the fund consisting of ministers' contributions, and according to the following scale from the fund consisting of congregational collections.

Where the average annual amount collected is under $12, the Managers may in their discretion allow an annuity not exceeding $60.

Where the average is $12, and does not amount to $24, the annuity shall be $80. 24, and under 36, to 100; 36, and under 48, to 120; 48, and under 60, to 140; 60, and under 72, to 160; 72, and under 84, to 180; 84, and under 96, to 200; 96, and under 108, to 220; 108, and under 120, to 240. And no annuity shall exceed the last mentioned sum, namely, $240.

VI. JEWISH AND FOREIGN MISSION SCHEME. Rev. ROBERT BURNET, Convener, Alexander Morris, Esq., Montreal, Treasurer.

The report recommended the Synod's missionary, Mr. Ephraim M. Epstein, a christian Jew, a licentiate of the Presbytery of New York, (O. S.) and at present, a student of medicine in Queen's College, Kingston, to be ordained in the fall, and designated to Monaster, or some other station in European Turkey, and suggested that in the meantime during the summer, he should be sent to the Lower Provinces of British North America to advocate the claims of the mission, and to collect funds. The Treasurer reported that there is in the Bank of Montreal the sum of £342 8s. 5d.

currency, the amount collected in the Province a few years ago by the Rev. Dr. Aiton of Dolphinton, Scotland, and handed over to the Synod for the establishment of a mission at Jerusalem, to which sum is to be added £27 7s. 10d. currency, for interest; also that apart from that there is at the credit of the fund the sum of $810 80. Agreed to.

VII. French Mission. The Committee, Rev. W. SNODGRASS, Montreal, Convener, reported, that during the year they had engaged the Rev. Louis Baridon, recently a member of Champlain Presbytery, N. York. (N. S.) and had stationed him in Sciota, in Clinton county, N. Y., where, and in the surrounding county, there are many French Canadian settlers, about sixty families being Protestant. Mr. Baridon receives a salary of $500 per annum. The Treasurer's statement showed $897 60½ on hand for the erection of a French Protestant Church in the city of Montreal, besides property worth from about $1,600 to 2,000. The receipts during the year amounted to $458 71½, including balance from last year. The action and recommendations of the Committee were approved.

VIII. Sabbath Schools. The Committee, Rev. GEORGE MACDONNELL, Convener, presented an interesting report with carefully prepared statistics. Returns were received from 40 Sabbath-schools, in which 244 teachers, 136 males, and 108 females, are employed, 2758 children are enrolled. The average attendance during the past year being 1931, showing a net increase of 205, as compared with the former year. The libraries in these schools contain 7,384 volumes, and 1,066 copies of The Juvenile Presbyterian are distributed monthly to the children. The Children's Paper is also largely distributed. In 18 schools, $453 53 were raised for missionary purposes. The statistics also show where and what teachers' meetings are held, and the manner in which the exercises are conducted in the schools. The Committee were thanked, and the kirk sessions were anew enjoined to furnish full information to the Committee.

IX. Sabbath Observance. The report of Committee, Rev. William Bain, M. A. Convener, stated that petitions had been forwarded to the several branches of the Legislature, setting forth the sacred obligations of the Sabbath, and praying for the abolition of all labour in the public works and government departments on the Lord's day; that a bill presented to the last session of Parliament for the relief of Post office employers from Sabbath labour, was lost by the small majority of two; and that there is both great need and great encouragement for ministers to call the attention of congregations to the claims of the Sabbath, and for all Christians who love the Sabbath, to use their influence in getting Railway and Steamboat Companies to cease their traffic on that holy day. The Committee were thanked and continued.

X. Juvenile Mission and Indian Orphanage Scheme. The Treasurer, John Paton, Esq., Kingston, reported: That 16 orphans, one being a mistress, are supported by this Mission, in the orphanages of the Scottish Ladies' Association for female education in India, at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and that during the year, the receipts for their maintenance amounted to $308. Most gratifying accounts had been received of all the orphans; one girl, Ruth Toronto, had been baptized, and another is now a candidate. On the first of September, 1858, the Canadian girls' day school was opened at Calcutta, and is supported almost entirely by the offerings of Sabbath-school children in Canada. It is under the superintendence of Miss Hebron, who suggested the enterprise. A native Christian and his wife are employed as teachers, and by last accounts, 35 children were attending, with the prospect of more.

Miscellaneous.

The Synod, on recommendation of their Examining Committee, authorized Presbyteries to take three students of divinity in Queen's College, namely, Messrs. David Camelon, Donald Ross, and John Livingstone, B. A., on trials for license. The Synod also authorized the Presbytery of Hamilton to admit the Rev. John Hogg, formerly a minister of the United Presbyterian Church in this Province; the Presbytery of Bathurst to receive the Rev. William Thomas Canning, formerly a minister of the Presbyterian Church of Canada; and the Presbytery of Toronto to employ as a missionary the Rev. A. C. Stewart, formerly a minister of the United Presbyterian Church.

Leave was granted to the Presbytery of Glengary to permit the Rev. Colin Gregor of Plantagenet, to retire on his allowance from the Temporalities Fund.

In accordance with the opinion of a majority of Presbyteries, the Synod rejected an overture proposing to give sessions permission to elect representative elders from other sessions within the bounds of the Synod, and instructed the Committee on Standing Orders to report by Bill or Overture to next session, on the whole subject of the election of representative elders, and the attendance of ministers on meetings of the Supreme Court.

The Committee on the formation of a General Assembly for British North America, reported progress, and were re-appointed.

The "Forms of Worship" issued by a Committee of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, were cordially recommended.

The Rev. Alexander Spence of Ottawa, and Alexander Morris, Esq., of Montreal, ruling elders, were elected corresponding members of the Synods of the Lower Provinces.

A minute of respect regarding the late Honorable William Morris, and specially referring to his valuable services in securing to the Church a share of the Clergy Reserves, was agreed to, and ordered to be engrossed.

Applications to the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland for aid in building churches at Valcartier, and Matilda, were ordered to be transmitted to said Committee.

Addresses to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and His Excellency, the Governor General of the British North American Provinces, were agreed to.

An interesting devotional and missionary meeting was held under the auspices of the Synod on the evening of the 31st of May. The audience filled the church, and was addressed by a number of gentlemen, clergymen, and others.

The Moderator addressed the Synod, and after prayer and praise said,—

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the King and only Head of this Church, and in the name of this Synod, I dissolve this meeting, and appoint the next annual meeting of Synod to convene in St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, on the last Wednesday in May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty years;—

Of which public intimation was made, and the Moderator pronounced the Apostolic Benediction.

JOHN MACMURCHY, Moderator.

Sketch of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, Canada.

OTTAWA is a city, situated on the river Ottawa, on the boundary between Eastern and Western Canada. It is 87 miles from the confluence of the Ottawa with the St. Lawrence, and 120 miles from the city of Montreal, and about the same distance from Kingston, on Lake Ontario. It was originally named Bytown, from its founder, Colonel By, an officer of the Royal Engineers, whom the Imperial Government commissioned in 1825 to superintend the construction of the Rideau Canal. In 1854 Bytown was created a city, and its name changed to what it now bears. It is situated in the centre of a fertile country, which is being rapidly developed; and possessing as it does water power of immense extent, with every facility for intercourse with all parts of Canada and the United States, there can be no doubt, but that at no distant period it will become a place of important manufacturing operations. It has been selected by Her Majesty the Queen, as the future metropolis of the United Canadas.

In St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa, the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, held its annual meeting in May 1859. With the exception of a small wooden edifice occupied by the Wesleyan Methodists, but which has since ceased to exist, this Church was the first built in Ottawa. It was opened for divine service in 1828. Originally it was a stone building 55 by 45 feet. But to meet the wants of a gradually increasing congregation, it was enlarged in 1854, and although void of all architectural beauty and ornament on the exterior, is nevertheless a neat, commodious, and in every way comfortable Church within.

The first minister of this Church was the Rev. John Cruickshank, now a minister of a Parish in the North of Scotland. He was succeeded in 1844 by the Rev. Alexander Mackid, now minister at Gode-rich, Canada West. Mr. Mackid was succeeded by the Rev. William Durie, who died after a very brief incumbency. Mr. Durie was succeeded by the present minister, the Rev. Alexander Spence. He was inducted to the charge on the 27th July, 1848, having been ordained by the Church of Scotland on the 22nd of February, 1841, as first Presbyterian minister in the Island of St. Vincent, West Indies.

UNIVERSITY OF QUEEN'S COLLEGE, KINGSTON, CANADA WEST.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE was established by the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, and was incorporated by an Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, as "The University at Kingston." This Act, however, was afterwards pro forma disallowed, in order that the College might be constituted by Royal Charter, which was granted in the following year, October 10, 1841, as the "Queen's College at Kingston," "with the style and privileges of an University," and power to confer degrees in the several Arts and Faculties. No religious test or qualification is required of persons matriculated, or admitted to a degree, "save only that all persons admitted within the said College to any degree in Divinity, shall make the same declarations and subscriptions as are required of persons admitted to any degree in Divinity in the University of Edinburgh." The management of the affairs of the University is entrusted to twenty-seven Trustees, twelve clergymen, and fifteen laymen, the former appointed by the Synod, and the latter by election by the remanent lay Trustees, from a list of fit and proper persons returned by the congregations, within the bounds of the Synod. In 1846 the property originally vested in the Corporation created by the disallowed Act of 1846, was transferred to the Corporation of Queen's College by an Act of Parliament. The Institution is supported by an income from endowment, a grant from the Legislature, and a grant of £300 stg., ($1500) from the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland. By the Charter, its income may be £15,000 stg., ($75,000) per annum.

The Classes in Arts and Divinity were opened in 1842, and were taught from that period in buildings rented for the purpose, until in 1853, a large and substantial edifice, to which six acres of land were attached, was purchased by the Trustees for their reception, at a cost of £6000 cur., ($24,000.) Since then, additional accommodations having been found necessary, another building has been erected by them on the College grounds, at an expenditure of upwards of £2500 cur., ($10,000.) In 1854 the Faculty of Medicine was constituted, and the Medical classes opened.

Altogether apart from the College, but under the superintendence of the Professors, is the College Preparatory School, where 60 pupils receive elementary training of a higher kind to enable them to enter the College classes; the whole number thus receiving instruction in connection with the College during 1859, being 203.

In Memoriam.

King, William—Was born in 1790, in Tyrone, Ireland. He immigrated to Canada in 1830-2. He was connected with the United Presbyterian Church, and by that body inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation of Nelson, C. W., here he laboured faithfully and earnestly until his resignation, which was accepted by the Presbytery of Hamilton.

He removed to the township of Carador, C. W., in the bounds of London Presbytery, of the Church in Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, where he died, March 13, 1859, in the 69th year of his age.

Robb, John—Was born in Lanarkshire, Scotland, in 1803. He arrived in Canada in 1844. Being a probationer, he laboured some time as a missionary within the bounds of the Presbytery of Montreal. Receiving an appointment as head master of the grammar school in Ottawa city, he entered upon its duties, and was quite popular. But the ministry was his chosen field, and he accepted the call to Chatham congregation, C. W., in the bounds of the Presbytery of London; he was inducted in May, 1851, and entered fully upon his Master's work. In 1856 his health began to give way, and from that time until his death, a gradual decay was apparent, until it terminated in his death, June 22, 1858.

Pastor of the United Presbyterian Congregation, Hamilton, CANADA WEST
Moderator of the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Canada 1859

A. G. F. Fraser & Co. Lith. & Engr. 1859

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

THE twenty-third session of the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Canada, was held in the Presbyterian Church of Toronto, Canada, on Monday, June 13, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by Rev. Wm. Aitken, the retiring Moderator, from 1 Cor. i. 17. "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: not with the wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect." After the discourse the sessions were constituted with prayer.

Members of the Twenty-third Session of the Synod.

Bills and Overtures.

No. I. Mr. Howie's and Mr. Clerihew's applications for admission as ministers. It was agreed to enter Mr. Howie's name; but as Mr. Clerihew's application was merely for ministerial standing, and not with a view to employment, it was denied.

No. II. From Toronto Presbytery, bearing that the laws of Synod required amendment respecting the reception of ministers and preachers, and the admission of them to the privilege of probationers. It was agreed to cancel all existing regulations and adopt the following :

1. That when a student is regularly licensed by a Presbytery, he shall receive an extract of his license, and that on his presenting this within six months of its date to the Committee of Distribution, together with a request to be put on the list of probationers, he shall immediately be put on that list, and shall receive appointments accordingly ; but that if the application be not made till after the expiry of six months, it shall not be complied with, unless accompanied with a recommendation by the Presbytery within the bounds of which he has chiefly resided during the interval.

2. That a minister denitting his pastoral charge shall be placed on the list of probationers, on his presenting to the Committee of Distribution, within six months of his leaving his charge, a request to that effect, together with a recommendation from the Presbytery receiving his demission.

3. That a minister or preacher having a recommendation from the Mission Board in Scotland, on presenting said recommendation within six months of its date to the Committee of Distribution, shall immediately be placed on the list of probationers.

4. That with regard to all other classes of ministers and preachers, and such as have not complied with the above conditions, a Committee of Synod, Rev. John Taylor, Prof. Convener, be now appointed, to whom such cases shall be submitted : that said Committee shall meet on the call of the Convener, but not oftener than four times in the year ; that they shall examine the credentials and professional qualifications of applicants, and that if they are unanimous in recommending an applicant, he shall immediately be placed on the list of probationers, but if not unanimous, the case shall be referred to the Synod, and that from all decisions of the Committee an appeal shall lie to the Synod.

No. III. From the Presbytery of Durham, on a change in the Formula. The Clerk of said Presbytery, by leave of the Synod, withdrew the Overture.

No. IV. Report and Memorials on Union. These were granted a full discussion, and the report of the Committee adopted, and the basis of Union submitted to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

No. V. Reports of Presbyteries on the superintendence of students, were received from Brant, Durham, Flamboro', Grey, and Toronto Presbyteries, by which it appears that eight students are at present under the care of the Church.

No. VI. On Theological Education. VII. On Funds and Independence of the Church. VIII. On Missions and Statistics. IX. Distribution of probationers. X. Aid to Theological students. XI. On Temperance. XII. Protest and appeal from the decision of Durham Presbytery. XIII. Case of Thos. J. Scott, and Flamboro' Presbytery.

No. XIV. On the Tri-centenary Reformation. It was agreed to celebrate the Tri-centenary, and that the evening of Wednesday, at the next regular meeting of Synod in 1860, be spent in appropriate devotional exercises.

No. XV. From London Presbytery, relating to a testimonial in honour of the late Prof. Proudfoot. A Committee was appointed, Rev. J. Skinner, Convener, to raise a fund, the interest on which to be paid to Mrs. Proudfoot during her life, and at her death to the aid of students of divinity, under the designation of the Proudfoot Scholarship Fund.

On motion, the churches lately composing Lanark Presbytery be annexed to Durham Presbytery.

The thanks of the Synod were voted the Hon. Oliver Mowat, Q. C., M. P. P., and Thos. Wardlaw Taylor, Esq., Barristers at law, for their generous offer of legal advice and service concerning title deeds of property belonging to the Church. Also to Rev. Dr. Jennings and the office-bearers and members of the United Presbyterian Church, Toronto, for their accommodations and hospitality.

On motion, the next meeting of Synod will be held in the United Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, C. W., on the second Tuesday of June, 1860, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. The session closed by pronouncing the apostolic benediction.

W. FRASER, Synod Clerk.

W. ORMISTON, M.A., Moderator.

Henderson, Alexander—Was born in Alloa, Scotland, May 11, 1800. He was brought up in the congregation of Rev. J. Muckersie. In due time he entered the University of Edinburgh, and subsequently studied divinity under the late Dr. Dick of Glasgow; having finished his studies and passed through the usual Presbyterian trials, he was licensed by the Presbytery of Stirling, and the year following he was ordained as minister in Here he laboured over twenty years, when he emigrated to Canada, and became pastor of the Pakenham and Arnprior churches, in Lanark Presbytery, taking up his abode near the village of Fitzroy Harbour; labouring with great zeal and prudence, he formed two other churches, viz: Tarbolton and Fitzroy Harbour, and resigning Pakenham and Arnprior churches, he devoted all his time to the others. A comfortable house of worship was erected at Tarbolton, and one in progress at Fitzroy Harbour, when he was taken ill, and died Oct. 23, 1858. He married Miss Margaret Eadie in 1832, who, with three sons and a daughter, survives him. He was an occasional contributor to the press, and was the author of a poem called The Pilgrim.

The First United Presbyterian Church, Toronto, C. W.

IN 1838 this church was commenced by a little band of adherents to the secession cause, and was organized in connection with the United Secession church of Scotland in December of that year. Rev. JOHN JENNINGS, at that time just arrived in the country, supplied their pulpit. The first place of meeting was in a large rented room, where they remained for six months. They then hired a Baptist Church in Stanley street; next rented a church which they afterwards bought from the Episcopal Methodists, then about disbanding. Here they worshipped until 1848, when they erected their present building on Bay street, corner of Richmond. The church is built entirely of stone for the basement; and white brick with stone facings of buttresses, &c., for the upper part. It is of pure Gothic structure. The basement is divided into a vestry, a library room, and lecture room, capable of containing about four hundred persons. The upper part holds nine hundred, there being the floor and gallery on both sides and one end, the pulpit at the other of a beautiful Gothic design, and the roof high, arched, and panelled. It is outside 85 feet long by 52 feet 6 inches wide; the interior is 75 feet long by 48 feet wide.

The congregation takes a deep and liberal interest in Foreign Missions, particularly the one supported by the sister church (the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia) at Anciteum and other islands in the New Hebrides. The names of the present elders are Messrs. James Robertson, John Henry, James Alexander, and Jay Humphrey. The Sabbath-school numbers generally from eighteen to twenty classes besides two Bible classes, one for young men and the other for young ladies, both very well attended; the one conducted by the pastor, and the other by his wife.

The present pastor, Rev. Dr. JENNINGS, after preaching for some time, was formally inducted into the ministry in 1839, and has ever since been faithful in the discharge of his duties. A warm feeling of attachment has grown up between him and his people, which shows itself in many ways. A few years ago the congregation presented him with the title deeds of a commodious and well-finished dwelling for himself and family. This surely indicates a healthy state both for pastor and people.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CANADA.

THE Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada met according to appointment in Cooke's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, on Tuesday, June 14, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, Rev. Thomas Wardrope, from 1 Corinthians, i. 22. "For after that in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." After the sermon, the sessions were constituted with prayer, and the following were reported as Members of the Sixteenth Session of the Synod.

The Rev. GEORGE PAXTON YOUNG, Prof., was elected Moderator.

Bills and Overtures.

No. I. On the mode of ordination of elders and deacons. It was agreed to send the overture down to Presbyteries, with instructions to consider the subject and mode in which, on Scriptural grounds, uniformity in the practice of ordaining elders and deacons should be enforced.

No. II. Anent the calling and induction of ministers. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. M. W. GREGG, Chairman, to revise the overture and send it down to Presbyteries.

No. III. Anent the licensing of students. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. A. F. KEMP, Chairman, to revise it, and report to Synod with a view of its being sent down to Presbyteries.

No. IV. Anent the baptism of converts from the Church of Rome. It was agreed that no further action is required.

No. V. Anent the registration of births, marriages, and deaths. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. THOMAS LOWRY, Chairman, to watch over any legislation on that subject.

No. VI. Anent Manses. It was agreed to commend the subject to the attention of Presbyteries.

A memorial was presented from several members of Synod, in reference to the proposed celebration of the tri-centenary of the reformation in Scotland. It was agreed to celebrate the event by appropriate exercises, at the meeting of Synod in 1860, that ministers call the attention of their flocks to the blessings of the Reformation, and that any brother who may be in Britain at that time, represent this Synod at the Convention or Assembly which may be held.

The Synod resolved to hear memorials from various temperance associations; when it was agreed, that without committing itself to any opinion respecting the organizations from which the memorials emanate, they hereby renew their testimony against the enormous evils of intemperance. That Synod rejoice in the passing by the Legislature of a Sabbath Liquor Law, and that Synod recommend to Presbyteries and Sessions to have special regard to the sources of intemperance within their respective bounds, and that a Standing Committee on Temperance, Rev. JOHN SMITH, Chairman, be appointed.

The Committee on the Union with the United Presbyterian Church, reported: and after a discussion which extended through several sessions, it was agreed that Synod having heard the report of Committee, approve of their diligence, and that having had the basis of Union agreed to by the United Presbyterian Synod presented to them, the Synod regard the same on the whole as a satisfactory basis, and one which holds out the prospect of a harmonious and honourable union, and that Synod resolve to proceed to the consideration of the different articles contained in that basis. The discussion was renewed and continued for several sessions, when it was resolved, that the basis of Union as a whole, be now approved, and transmitted to Presbyteries and Sessions, with instructions to report to Synod through the Committee on Union, Rev. ROBERT URE, Chairman, on or before Nov. 1, 1859.

Annual Reports.

I. The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, Rev. WM. GREGG, Chairman, reported: that but two meetings of the Committee had been held, and that several plans being before them, they would request their re-appointment, and that Synod appoint one quarterly collection as the nucleus of a permanent fund, or, should it be required, to be partially distributed.

II. Home Mission Committee, Rev. WM. REID, Chairman, reported, that during the year they appointed 14 probationers, and 23 students. The attendance at all the stations is 3,250; communicants, 745; elders, 30; Sabbath-school report, 33 teachers, 312 pupils; at 13 stations churches have been built.

III. Buxton Mission, the Committee, Rev. WM. KING, Chairman, reported; when it was agreed to refer this Mission to the Home Mission Committee.

IV. Widows' Fund, the Committee, R. BURNS, D.D., reported, the receipts during the year have been, from Church collections, $995 85; Minister's Rate, $760; interest, $1,434 08; and from dues, $378 30; making a total of $25,335.

V. Foreign Missions, the Committee, Rev. T. LOWRY, Chairman, reported: when it was resolved to adopt British Columbia and Vancouver's Island, as a suitable field for missionary operations of this Church, and that $1200 of the Foreign Mission Fund be given in equal proportion to the Foreign Mission of the Free Church, and the Irish Presbyterian Church, and that the balance, $2400, be appropriated to the British Columbia Fund.

The Committee on Statistics, Rev. JOHN GRAY, Chairman, reported; it was agreed that the ecclesiastical year terminate on the 31st of March, and that Presbyteries be enjoined to report in due time.

The thanks of the Synod were voted to the office-bearers of Cooke's Church, for the use of their building; also to the people of Toronto for their hospitality.

The Synod adjourned to meet in the Presbyterian Church in Hamilton, C. W., the second Tuesday in June, 1860. Concluded with the apostolic benediction.

THE 'COOKE' PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TORONTO O'W
Rev WILLIAM GREGG Pastor

Published by Joseph M Willson No 111 South 10th St Phila

Sketch of Cooke's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, C. W.

THE first Presbyterian minister settled in Toronto was the Rev. James Harris, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Monaghan, Ireland. In 1821 a brick Church capable of accommodating about 250 persons, was built for his congregation on a lot of ground presented by his father-in-law, Jesse Ketchum, Esq., now of Buffalo, N. Y. The congregation was then connected with the United Synod of Canada. After the disruption in 1844, the members united with the party who sympathized with the Free Church of Scotland, and Mr. Harris resigned his charge. The united congregation chose as his successor Dr. Robert Burns of Paisley, Scotland. The old Church was enlarged, but was destroyed by fire. In its room Knox's Church was erected, and opened for public worship in 1848. This is an exceedingly beautiful building. It is built of white brick, in Gothic style, and has a spire 180 feet high. Its exterior dimensions are 104 by 70 feet. It accommodates 1250 sitters. Dr. Burns was appointed Professor of Church History in 1856. His successor is the Rev. A. Topp, formerly of Edinburgh, who was inducted in Sept. 1858.

In 1851, a second Presbyterian Church in connection with the (Free) Presbyterian Church of Canada was organized. Its first stated pastor was the Rev. Robert Irvine, formerly of St. John's, N. B., and now of Hamilton, C. W. His successor was the Rev. Andrew Marshall, formerly of Cladymore, Ireland, who resigned his charge in consequence of sickness, which terminated fatally in November, 1857. The congregation assumed the name of Cooke's Church, as a tribute of respect to Dr. Cooke of Belfast, and after meeting in various places proceeded to the erection of a permanent Church, which was opened for public worship in July, 1858, the dedication sermon was preached by Wm. Blackwood, D.D., of Philadelphia. The present pastor is the Rev. William Gregg, formerly of Belleville, C. W.

Cooke's Church is built on the corner of Queen and Montreal Streets, and is a very beautiful building. Its walls are of white brick, and it is in the Lombard style. It has two towers and spires in front. Its exterior dimensions are 102 by 55 feet, the total frontage, including the towers is 66 feet. It can accommodate 1050 sitters. The basement is of the whole size of the Church, and is used for Sabbath-school and week day lectures. The Elders are, John Rogers, Joseph Macauley. The Trustees are, G. L. Beardmore, Chairman, C. S. Patterson, Secretary, A. Jardine, Treasurer, Hugh Miller, John Carr, James Rusk, Fred. Callaway, John Greenlees, John McKee. The cost of the building was $18,000, exclusive of the site, which is valued at $4,000.

The other Presbyterian churches of the city are, St. Andrew's Church, Dr. Barclay minister, in connection with the Presbyterian Church of Scotland; Bay Street United Presbyterian Church, Dr. Jennings pastor; Gould Street United Presbyterian Church, Dr. Taylor pastor; and the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Rev. Robert Johnston pastor. Each of the first three could accommodate about 750 sitters, and the last about 400.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NOVA SCOTIA.

THE Synod met in St. James Church, New Glasgow, N. S., June 28, 1859, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, Rev. James Allan, from 1 Peter iii. 8. "Be ye all of one mind."

The roll of the Synod was called, and the following were

Rev. JAMES SMITH, Professor, was elected Moderator.

Rev. JOHN J. BAXTER read the Report of the Committee on Colportage; from which it appeared that during the past year, 4,356 volumes have been added to the stock, and that business had been conducted as usual, with the exception that during part of the year the Colporteurs have been paid, not by a salary, but by a percentage on their sales, security being given for the safety of the property in their hands.

On motion, it was agreed that the books to be circulated by the Committee on Colportage, must in all cases be in accordance with the standards of our Church.

Rev. GEORGE PATTERSON read the Report on the Home Missions. It showed that three missionaries had left the control of the Board by ordination and induction into pastoral charges. Three have been licensed as preachers; one minister by demission of his pastoral charge has been placed under their direction; one has recently arrived from Scotland; and that, upon an average, seven missionaries have been employed during the year.

Rev. E. ROSS, the Secretary of the Seminary Board, read their Annual Report. During the last Session, the Philosophical and Theological classes met in the new buildings in Truro; 36 students were in attendance upon the Classical and Philosophical departments. There have been junior, intermediate, and senior classes in Greek, 5 in the Junior, 24 in the Intermediate, and 7 in the Senior; 16 have studied Logic, 7 Moral Philosophy, 11 in the Junior Latin class, 18 in the Senior class, and 16 in Mathematics.

Rev. P. G. MCGREGOR read the Report of the Committee on Union, giving a full account of the proceedings of the United Committees, and submitting the basis of Union they had agreed to. Recommend. Extracts were read from the minutes of the Synod of the Free Church, N. S., from which it appeared that that Synod had with entire unanimity adopted the basis of Union. After discussion, it was resolved, that this basis of Union with Formula. and other relative documents be sent down to Presbyteries and Sessions, to report to the Synod next year.

Rev. JAMES BAYNE, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, read their Annual Report, which was in a high degree encouraging, and admirably adapted to stimulate the members of the Church to prayer and increased efforts in behalf of the Mission. They have accepted Mr. Samuel F. Johnston as the fourth missionary to the New Hebrides.

Rev. JOHN McCURDY read the Report of the Committee to whom had been referred the replies of Presbyteries and Sessions on the resolution of 1858, to exclude from the communion of the Church those who are engaged in the liquor traffic. Two Presbyteries reported against exclusion by Synodical act, and in favour of resolution of 1853. Two Presbyteries gave no opinion; 25 Sessions reported, 8 in favour of unconditional exclusion, and 12 against exclusion. After discussion, the resolution of 1853 was re-approved, in which it was declared that the Synod recognize the right and duty of Sessions to exclude from Church fellowship, after faithful dealing, those who persist in the practice.

Rev. J. L. Murdock protested against the decision.

On motion, Truro Presbytery was instructed to ordain Mr. S. F. Johnston as a missionary to the New Hebrides, and to hold such farewell services as they may think proper.

On motion of Rev. R. Sedgwick, it was resolved: That Synod adopt such measures as may appear necessary for celebrating the tri-centenary of the Reformation in Scotland, in May 1860. Rev. R. Sedgwick was appointed Chairman of the Committee, appointed to carry out the resolution.

On motion of Rev. P. G. McGregor, it was resolved: That in view of the various tokens of the Divine presence manifested in our congregations during the past year, we would affectionately urge our people to abound in earnest prayer, for more abundant displays of the power of the Holy Ghost in the conversion of souls, and revival of the Church, and that Presbyteries adopt such measures as may be best adapted to secure the great end contemplated.

On motion, the thanks of the Synod were voted to the members of St. James Church, and Primitive Congregation, for their kind hospitality.

It was agreed that the next meeting of Synod be held in Pictou, on the third Wednesday of June, 1860, at 7 o'clock, P. M., and the Synod adjourned after singing Psalm xlvii. 5-9, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

In Memoriam.

Keir, John—The son of John and Christiana Keir, was born at Bucklyvie, Stirlingshire, Scotland, February 2, 1780. When about a year old his parents removed to Baldernock, near Glasgow, and became members of Duke street Church, Glasgow, in connection with the Anti-burgher Synod. He received the usual educational training, which he did at the University of Glasgow. He studied Theology under Rev. A. Bruce, then Professor of Theology in the General Associate Synod; whilst studying Theology he also taught school; having completed his studies, he was licensed by the Presbytery of Glasgow in 1807, and preached in several vacancies. In 1808 he was appointed as a missionary to Nova Scotia, B. P. Previous to his departure, he married Miss Mary Burnet. The last two Sabbaths he spent in his native land were at Paisley and Greenock, where liberal contributions were taken up to defray the expenses of his mission. He arrived at Pictou, N. S., in September, and preached at Princetown, P. E. I., and the adjacent settlements, also at St. Peters. In the spring of 1809, he preached at Halifax and Merigomish. The churches of Princetown and St. Peters, Prince Edward Island, made out a call, June 19, 1809, and having accepted it, he at once set to work; owing to the disorganized state of the congregation, his ordination did not take place until June 1810. At this time Mr. Keir was the only Presbyterian minister on the Island, and for some time laboured not only in his own congregation, but as a missionary through the whole Island. Other ministers joined him, so that in 1821 the Presbytery of P. E. I., was formed, he being the first Moderator. In 1843 he was appointed Professor of Theology to the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia, in which capacity he sustained himself as a lecturer, who left a deep impression upon the minds of the students, of the duties and responsibilities of the sacred office.

In 1858, after a ministry of fifty years, his friends held a jubilee at Princetown, which was highly gratifying; about 2000 guests were entertained at a tea meeting, and it was supposed that nearly 3000 persons were present; the proceeds after all expenses were paid, amounted to over $400. On Sept. 15, 1858, whilst passing along the street, he was taken ill, and he lost all recollection; some friends took him home, but congestion of the brain set in, and he died on the 22nd, in the 78th year of his age.

His death was a source of sorrow all over P. E. I., and at his funeral all classes turned out to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of one they loved so well.

Ross, Hugh—Was born in Rothiemurchus, Invernessshire, Scotland, in 1797. He was educated at the parish school of Abernethy. When about thirteen, his father removed to Aberdeen, where the family joined the Gaelic chapel, in connection with the Church of Scotland. In 1813 they emigrated to Nova Scotia, settling in Pictou, and joined Rev. Dr. MacGregor's Church. Hugh remained in a mercantile house in Halifax, but when the Pictou Academy was opened, he became one of its first students. When he finished his Academic curriculum, he studied Theology with Rev. Dr. McCullough, he was licensed by Pictou Presbytery in 1823, and being able to preach in Gaelic, he was soon after ordained as an evangelist, and spent some time in the Island of Cape Breton. In 1827 he became pastor of the churches of Tatamagouche and New Annapolis. He subsequently became pastor of Georgetown, and Murray Harbour, where he was labouring at the time of the disruption. He was Moderator of the Synod at the time, and gave in his adherence to the Free Church. He died suddenly at his residence in Tatamagouche, Dec. 1, 1858, of heart disease. He left a widow and eight children. He was a man of good talents, and of unaffected kindness of heart.

THE SYNOD OF NOVA SCOTIA

IN CONNECTION WITH

THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE Synod of Nova Scotia, of the Church of Scotland, met in St. Andrew's Church, Pictou, N. S., on Wednesday, June 29, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, Rev. A. Pollock, from Revelations, i. 20. "The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, &c."

After the sermon, the sessions were constituted with prayer, and the following were reported as

Members of the Session.

Rev. ALEXANDER McLEAN was elected Moderator.

Rev. A. MCGILLIVRAY, Chairman of the Committee on Overtures, reported the following:

I. Meetings of Sessions in vacant congregations. It was agreed that missionaries, when they see fit, be empowered to moderate in Kirk-sessions in vacant congregations.

II. On Church Incorporation. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. T. Jardine, Chairman, to consider the matter, and report to the Synod of 1860.

III. The Settlement of Ministers. It was agreed to send down a draft of process to the Presbyteries, and ask for a report at the next meeting of Synod in 1860.

IV. Representative Elders. It was agreed to empower Presbyteries to appoint members to moderate Kirk-sessions of vacant congregations, for the purpose of having a representation from vacant congregations.

V. Unanimity of action in the Church. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. James Mair, Chairman, to draft a basis for a Synodical missionary society, embracing the schemes of the Church.

VI. Statistics. It was agreed to instruct Presbyteries to procure Statistical returns within their bounds, and transmit them to the Committee.

VII. Psalmody. It was agreed to appoint a Committee, Rev. J. Christie, Chairman, to consider the matter, and make choice of some collection of Psalm tunes, and recommend them to the various congregations.

VIII. Young men studying in Scotland. It was agreed to entreat the Colonial Committee to take such measures for obtaining their license as preachers of the Gospel, after three full sessions at Divinity Hall.

IX. The Jewish Mission. The Synod join with the Synod of Canada in supporting Rev. S. Epstein as a missionary to the Jews of European Turkey, and that the mission be strongly recommended to churches and sessions.

Rev. T. DUNCAN, Chairman of the Committee on Colportage, reported in favour of the Synod taking measures to raise funds sufficient to support a colporteur, and to carry out a system that has been productive of so much good.

The Widows' and Orphans' fund was commended to the churches, and it was agreed that the clerical members of this Court pay annually the sum of Twelve dollars, that an effort be made to raise four thousand dollars in aid of this fund.

A Committee, Rev. T. JARDINE, Chairman, was appointed to consider the practicability of a General Assembly of our Church in North America, and report at next meeting of Synod.

The thanks of the Synod were voted to the Colonial Committee, in providing missionaries for these Provinces.

Also to the office-bearers and members of St. Andrews Church for their hospitality to the members of Synod.

The Synod adjourned to meet in the Presbyterian Church of the last Wednesday of June, 1860, closed with prayer.

THE FREE CHURCH OF NOVA SCOTIA.

The Synod of the Free Church of Nova Scotia met in Chalmers Church, Halifax, N. S., on Thursday, June 16, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, Rev. Alexander Munro, from Isaiah liv. 17. "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper." The following were reported as

Members of the Session.

Hugh McLeod, D.D., was unanimously elected Moderator.

Two sessions of Synod were devoted mainly to a consideration of the State of Religion throughout the Church, and to devotional exercises. The reports of the ministers were in the main encouraging, great progress had been made in some localities, especially in the district of Cornwallis. On motion of the Rev. WILLIAM MURRAY, the following resolution was adopted by the Synod:—

“That a Special Committee be appointed to prepare a general statement on the State of Religion within the bounds of the Synod, founded on the reports from the different Presbyteries, and also make such suggestions and recommendations in reference to the revival of religion and the promotion of sound doctrine as they shall deem expedient.”

A Synodical Address was also issued on the subject of Temperance.

FOREIGN MISSION. The Synod has a missionary in Constantinople, the Rev. P. CONSTANTINIDES, a young Greek of fine talents and attainments. He has been engaged in the Mission about a year. The Synod resolved to raise sufficient funds not only to pay the missionary's salary, but also enough to enable him to open a school, and engage a colporteur.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH NEW BRUNSWICK. Rev. William Murray informed the Synod that the Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick had resolved to give all their Foreign Mission Funds to the Mission of this Church.

COLLEGE. Professors KING and LYALL, and MR. MCKNIGHT, gave encouraging reports of the state of their classes. About thirty students are in attendance. The amount raised to endow the College, is now upwards of $28,000. A special effort is to be made this year to bring it up to $40,000.

Rev. Professor King was appointed to represent the Synod at the Tri-centenary of the Reformation, to be celebrated in Scotland next year. A Committee was appointed to make arrangements for a celebration in this Province.

UNION. The Synod adopted unanimously a basis of Union with the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia. It is proposed to call the united body “The Presbyterian Church of the Lower Colonies.”

The next meeting of Synod is to be held at NEW GLASGOW, on the third Thursday of June, 1860. Closed with prayer

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NEW BRUNSWICK

IN CONNECTION WITH

THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE Synod met in St. Andrew's Church, St. John, N. B., July 14, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, Rev. WM. MACROBIE, from 1 Corinthians, iii. 11. "For other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." After the sermon the sessions were constituted with prayer.

The following were

Members of the Session

Rev. JOHN ROSS was elected Moderator.

The Committee on Overtures reported :

I. To encourage the laity to take an interest in the proceedings of our Church Courts. It was agreed to enjoin upon all Kirk sessions, to appoint elders to represent them in Presbyteries and Synods, and use all means to secure the attendance of elders so elected.

II. To obtain correct information respecting the extent of the religious destitution of this Province. It was ordered that each Presbytery furnish annually a list of vacancies, and also state what steps they have taken to supply the destitution, and a Committee be appointed to collect information, and report a plan to Synod next year.

III. To take into consideration the establishment of a Newspaper, for the purpose of disseminating a knowledge of this Church, and thereby correct the misrepresentation sometimes made through ignorance. It was ordered that steps be taken for converting the MONTHLY RECORD of Nova Scotia into a weekly periodical. In the meantime especial efforts should be taken to increase the circulation of the Monthly Record.

IV. To divide the Presbytery of Miramichi into two Presbyteries : the new one to be called the Presbytery of Restigouche, which will include the counties of Restigouche and Gloucester, together with New Richmond, Canada East, and it will hold its first meeting at Dalhousie, Oct. 1859, and Rev. J. Steven be Moderator.

On a call of Synod, it appeared that there was an increase of contributions in aid of benevolent and missionary objects, upon the whole, as compared with the preceding years.

The Reports from the Bursary Fund, the Home Mission and Synod Fund, and the Jewish Mission, were read and approved.

The Committee on Fund for the support of Widows and Orphans of deceased ministers, reported progress, and the Committee continued.

The Committee on the subject of a General Assembly for the British North American Provinces, reported progress, but express an opinion that the scheme was impracticable until the expense of travelling shall be reduced ; the Committee were continued.

Rev. W. DONALD called the attention of Synod to a book prepared under the superintendence of General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, entitled "Forms of Prayer for Social and Family Worship." It was agreed to order a supply from the publishers for ministers within the bounds of Synod.

Rev. J. M. BROOKE called the attention of Synod to a communication received from Joseph M. Wilson of Philadelphia, requesting information respecting the Synod, to be published in his "Presbyterian Historical Almanac, and Annual Remembrancer of the Church ;" it was agreed that the Clerk of Synod furnish the documents and all other necessary information.

Rev. W. DONALD, Chairman of the Committee to consider and suggest some plan for securing the right in churches, and other property originally belonging to congregations in the Province, in connection with the Church of Scotland, suggests that efforts be made to obtain an enactment for incorporating the Synod; the Committee was continued.

The Synod adjourned after appointing the next meeting to be held in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, on the second Tuesday of July, 1860, concluded with prayer, praise, and the apostolic benediction.

THE Synod met in the St. John Presbyterian Church, St. John, N. B., on Wednesday, June 15, 1859, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., according to adjournment, and in pursuance to the provisions of an Act of Assembly, passed in the 22nd year of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, entitled, "An Act for incorporating the Synod of the Church, known as the Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick, and the several congregations connected therewith." After prayer and praise, the retiring Moderator, Rev. Wm. Bennett, preached from 1 Corinthians, i. 21. "For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." After the discourse the sessions were constituted by prayer. The following were

Rev. WM. FERRIE was elected Moderator.

The Committee on Popery reported an Overture from the Presbytery of St. John on that subject, which was referred to a Committee.

A letter was read from Rev. Wm. Murray of Nova Scotia, asking the Synod to aid in supporting Mr. Constantinides as a missionary to the Greeks; it was agreed to appropriate the funds for the present season in aid of that object.

The subject of Union with other Presbyterian bodies was taken up; and it was agreed that this Synod heartily recognizes the duty and advantage of promoting and effecting a Union, when this can be done on Scriptural grounds, and without a compromise of principle; and this Synod will rejoice to see such friendly relations cultivated among Presbyterians in this Province, as may be ultimately favourable to Union. A Committee was appointed to draw up a statement of principles, and report at the meeting of Synod in 1860.

Reports were received from the Home Mission, Jewish and Foreign Mission, Sustentation and Education Schemes, which were approved of.

On motion it was resolved under the charter to choose a seal; it was agreed that the seal shall bear the device of the Burning Bush, with "Nec tamen consumebatur," and the name of the Synod.

A Committee was appointed as a deputation to the parent churches in Great Britain and Ireland, and they were instructed to communicate information as to the wants of this Church, to thank the parent churches for aid received, to crave more pecuniary aid, and also additional labourers, and to inform them of the religious wants of the Province, &c.

The Moderator was authorized to draw upon the Treasurer for $1,200, granted by the Colonial Committee of the Free Church of Scotland, to aid in support of the ministry.

A Committee was appointed to take active measures towards the establishment of a Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The Synod, after appointing the next meeting to be held in Calvin Church, St. John, on the third Wednesday in June, 1860, at 7 o'clock, P. M., closed with praise and the apostolic benediction.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY HALL,
EDINBURGH SCOTLAND.

THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.*

THE Protestant Reformation in Scotland was recognized by Act of Parliament in 1560: and in December of that year, the first General Assembly met, consisting of twelve ministers, John Knox being one, and thirty-two ruling elders. The General Assembly appointed Knox and other five ministers to draw up a Form of Church Government and Discipline, which in a few weeks after they presented to the Privy Council. This Document, entitled the "First Book of Discipline," contained some proposals which in certain quarters were not relished, particularly regarding the disposal of the ecclesiastical revenues, and it was not judicially ratified.

Meantime the settlement of ministers of the Protestant religion, and other arrangements for the national establishment of the Protestant Church, proceeded. By Act of Parliament, 1567, it was declared "that the examination and admission of ministers within this realm be only in the power of the Kirk, now openly and publicly professed within the same," "the presentation of laic patronages being always reserved to the just and ancient patrons."

The General Assembly continued to meet, usually twice in the year, and for a time, during the unsettled state of the Church, Superintendents were appointed over different districts, whose office it was to superintend and set in order all ecclesiastical affairs within their several districts. At length, the General Assembly in 1580 passed an Act condemning Episcopacy; and thereafter Presbyteries began to be established. The "Second Book of Discipline," which was prepared in 1578, was registered in the Acts of Assembly in 1581, as approved by the Church: and by the Statute of 1592, which is regarded as the fundamental charter of the Establishment of Presbytery, that part of the Second Book of Discipline was formally enacted, which declared the Government of the Church of Scotland to be by Kirk Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods, and General Assemblies.

Early in the following century, under the influence of James VI., whose maxim was, "No Bishop, No King," Bishops were again appointed as constant Moderators of Presbyteries, the free election of members of the General Assembly was interfered with, various prelatial customs and forms were re-introduced, and even sanctioned by General Assemblies, and ultimately the meetings of the General Assembly were discontinued.

In the reign of Charles I., the reaction against Episcopacy became so strong, that a meeting of General Assembly was held in 1638, to which the King sent a Commissioner, who did not, however, give his sanction to all its proceedings. The General Assembly deposed the Bishops and declared Prelacy to be abolished in the kingdom.

The General Assembly continued to meet annually, a Representative from the King being usually present, during the subsequent troubled years of Charles' reign, and in 1643 sent Commissioners to the Assembly of Divines at Westminster. In 1647, the Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms prepared by the Westminster Assembly were approved and ratified by Act of Assembly, and subsequently by Act of Parliament in 1649, and, having been again ratified by Act of Parliament in 1690, continue to be the authoritative standards of doctrine in the Church of Scotland.

Cromwell was no friend to Presbytery, and did not allow the General Assembly to meet: the Presbyterian ministers were at the same time divided into two parties vehemently hostile to each other, the Resolutioners and Protesters,—the former concurring in a Resolution permitting persons who had been opposed to the Presbyterian cause, on professing repentance, to be employed in behalf of Charles II., and the latter protesting against it as a dereliction of principle.

When Charles II. was restored to the throne in 1660, Episcopacy was re-introduced, Presbyteries were prohibited to meet, and about three hundred of the ministers were driven from their charges.

After the accession of William and Mary, the Presbyterian form of Church Government was restored: by Act of Parliament 1690 it was declared that "Prelacy and the superiority of any office in the Church above Presbyters, is and hath been a great and unsupportable grievance and trouble to this nation, and contrary to the inclinations of the generality of the people ever since the Reformation, and therefore ought to be abolished:" and the Act of 1592, establishing Presbytery, was revived and ratified; and those ministers yet alive who had been outed in 1662 were restored to their states.

From that date, the Church of Scotland has continued unchanged in doctrine and government, to the present time.

At different periods, Secessions, more or less numerous, have taken place from the Church of Scotland.

At the Revolution Settlement in 1690, a number of private Christians did not accede to the Church, deeming the manner in which the Church was established inconsistent with the principles they had held, and especially with the National Covenants by which they were required to seek the abolition of Prelacy in England and Ireland, as well as Scotland. These Seceders, commonly called Cameronians, were subsequently joined by a few ministers who had at first acceded to the Church, and constituted the body which has since continued under the name of the Reformed Presbyterian Synod.

A Secession took place in 1734—1740. Ebenezer Erskine and other ministers were dissatisfied with the proceedings of Church judicatories in the settlement of ministers, and complained also of laxity in checking what they deemed erroneous doctrines: and considering that sufficient liberty was not allowed them to express their dissent, and to decline co-operating with the Church Courts, they left the Church. The body founded by them was afterwards divided into the Burgher and Anti-Burgher Synod, who were re-united in the present century, and, afterwards coalescing with the Relief Synod, formed what is now called the United Presbyterian Church.

The Relief Synod arose out of the deposition in 1752 of Mr. Thomas Gillespie for refusing to comply with the appointment of the General Assembly in the settlement of Inverkeithing; some other ministers having afterwards joined him, they formed a Presbytery in 1761, and took the name of Relief, as indicating that they sought relief from the system of patronage.

The only other Secession took place in 1843, when the Free Church was formed. It took its origin also from the settlement of ministers, but involved another and larger question as to the nature and extent of the independent jurisdiction of the Church. The General Assembly having passed in 1834 what was commonly called the Veto Act, by which a presentee to a vacant Church was to be rejected if a majority of heads of families in the parish objected to him without reasons assigned, it was decided by the Civil Courts in Scotland, and by the House of Lords, on appeal, that this Act of the Church was at variance with the law of Patronage, and incompetent for the Church to enact; the Church Courts being bound themselves to try a Presentee, and entitled to reject him only upon their own judgment, after trial, of his insufficiency for the charge to which he was appointed. On the other hand, those who seceded held that the Church had the sole right, independent of the terms of the National Establishment, to make laws and to determine in all such matters. They maintained a similar claim of independent jurisdiction also, in opposition to judgments given by the Courts of Law, in regard to the erection of new parishes, and the admission of additional ministers to be members of Church Courts, without the intervention or authority of the civil courts appointed for the erection of new parishes. Finding that these views were not acquiesced in by the Legislature, those who held them seceded from the Established Church in May, 1843. Two hundred and eighty-nine ministers of parishes, and ninety-one ministers of chapels, joined the Secession.

Patronage has always existed in the Church of Scotland, except during a short period after the Revolution in 1690, when it was transferred to the Heritors and Elders of each parish, on payment of a small sum (six hundred merks) to the Patron by the parishioners. In 1711 Patronage was restored by Act of Parliament to its ancient possessors, except in the case of those parishes, four in number, in which the parishioners had paid the compensation. The system substituted in 1690 was said to have occasioned heats, and divisions, and long vacancies: but the members of the Church were vehemently opposed to the change, apprehending that the influence of the Patrons in the appointment of ministers would have a strong tendency to re-introduce Episcopacy: and for many years the General Assembly continued to petition for the repeal of the law of 1711.

While the Patron presents, the examination and admission of ministers, in terms of Act 1567, is only in the power of the Church: the Presentee must be one of the Probationers or Licentiates of the Church, who have passed through all the course of study required by the Church, and been licensed, after examination, by a Presbytery, as qualified to receive a presentation; after being presented, he undergoes a new trial before the Presbytery, the parishioners have opportunity of stating any objections to him, either generally or in reference to the particular parish, and the Presbytery judge on the whole case. An appeal lies to the Synod and General Assembly, at whose judgment the case takes end.

Students for the ministry are required to attend four sessions at the Literary and Philosophical classes of a University, and four sessions at one or other of the Divinity Halls of the Scottish Universities. During their attendance at the Hall they are subjected to a yearly examination by the Presbytery, and after completing their attendance, when the leave of the Synod has been granted, they are taken on a course of trial by the Presbytery, and if they pass through it satisfactorily, are licensed to preach and enrolled as Probationers. There are upwards of three hundred Probationers throughout the Church.

The number of parishes in Scotland is 1009, with 1034 ministers, 25 of the charges being collegiate; of the Patronages, 292 are in the hands of the Crown, 572 in the hands of individual Noblemen or Gentlemen, 60 in those of Town Councils, 26 of Congregations or of Trustees appointed by them, 34 of the Crown and some other party jointly, 34 of other persons jointly, 9 of Universities and Colleges, 5 of Heritors and Kirk Sessions, and 2 of Societies. About 50 new parishes have been created during the last 12 years, and a number more are in course of erection.

Besides the parish Churches and ministers, there are about 150 Chapels with ordained ministers or licentiates officiating in them.

There are 84 Presbyteries, consisting generally of from 12 to 24 ministers, with an elder chosen half yearly from each Kirk Session; one Presbytery in Shetland has only 4 ministers, the Presbytery of Glasgow has 34 ministers, and Edinburgh 37.

There are 16 Synods, comprehending each from 3 to 7 Presbyteries. The Synods meet generally twice a year, but a few of them in the more remote districts meet only once a year.

The General Assembly meets annually in Edinburgh on the 3d or 4th Thursday in May. It consists of Representatives from all the Presbyteries, Royal Burghs, and Universities. Presbyteries send one minister for every six ministers or fraction of six in their number, and one elder, unless when they send four ministers, in which case they send two elders, or when they send six ministers, in which case they send three elders. The ministers must be members of the Presbyte-ries by whom they are returned, but the elders returned by Presbyteries may belong to any part of the Church.

The 66 Royal Burghs each send one elder, except Edinburgh, which sends two: and the Universities each send one representative, who may be a minister or an elder.

The total number of members in the General Assembly is 385, viz: From Presbyteries, Ministers, 217; Elders, 95; From Royal Burghs, Elders, 67; From Universities, Ministers or Elders, 4; From Church in India, Minister and Elder, 2.

In the General Assembly the Sovereign is represented by a Nobleman specially appointed by the Crown, who is styled the Lord High Commissioner. He addresses the Assembly at the opening and at the close of the proceedings, but takes no part in the deliberations.

The meetings of the General Assembly were formerly held in the western aisle of St. Giles' Church, which was founded in the 9th century, and is regarded as the Parish Church of Edinburgh. Soon after the Reformation this Gothic structure was divided into four separate places of worship. In 1643 the Solemn League and Covenant was subscribed within it by the Committee of the Estates of Parliament, by the Commission or permanent Committee of the General Assembly, and by the English Commissioners. In 1833 a thorough repair and renewal of the whole edifice was accomplished, and, a new place of meeting being required for the General Assembly, a commodious and elegant building was erected on the Castle Hill, which is also used as a Church for the Tolbooth parish, whose congregation had formerly assembled in one of the portions of St. Giles.

This building, of which an engraving is given, was built in 1842-4, after a design by Mr. Gillespie Graham; it cost £16,000, ($76,800.) Its style of architecture is the decorated Gothic. Its form is oblong, 141 feet in length. Each flank shows five handsome windows, and a suitable series of buttresses and pinnacles. The East end or main front has a massive tower pierced through the basement with the grand entrance, crowned on the walls with a circle of turret pinnacles, and surmounted in the centre by an elegant spire rising to the height of 241 feet from the ground.

The General Assembly holds its sittings for ten days, and for determining any matters that may be left undisposed of, or taking necessary steps in any emergency that may arise, appoints a Commission, consisting of all the members of Assembly, and occasionally a few others added, which meets at four stated times during the year, and may be called together at any time on a requisition to the Moderator of last Assembly. The Commission is accountable for its proceedings to the subsequent General Assembly.

The General Assembly decides in all cases that may be brought before it by appeal from the inferior Courts, and passes laws for the regulation of the affairs of the Church; but, according to the Barrier Act, no law introducing an innovation or change in the established laws or customs can be passed and made binding, until it has received the approval of a majority of the Presbyteries of the Church, for which purpose the proposed law is sent down as an Overture to Presbyteries, who return their opinion to next Assembly.

The Assembly has various Committees for conducting the schemes of the Church in regard to Missions at home and abroad. These schemes are six in number, three for home objects, and three for those abroad.

The Education Scheme is for increasing the means of Education in Scotland, particularly in the Highlands and Islands. It maintains about 200 Schools.

The Home Mission Scheme is for aiding the payment of ministers and missionaries in Chapels and Mission Stations, and gives aid to about 120 ministers and missionaries.

The Endowment Scheme is for assisting in the endowment of new parishes, and has succeeded in the endowment of between 50 and 60, and contemplates the addition of about 100 more. A sum of nearly £35,000 ($168,000) has been subscribed and collected for this scheme since it was commenced in 1846-7.

The Colonial Scheme is for granting aid in sending out ministers or providing Churches for the Colonies. Aid was given last year to 33 missionaries and ministers.

The Foreign Mission Scheme supports missionaries and teachers at the Presidencies and in other parts of India.

The Jewish Mission Scheme maintains five missionaries and five teachers for the conversion of the Jews in Germany, and at Alexandria, Smyrna, and Salonica.

For these six schemes a sum of £53,000 ($254,400) was collected during the year ending April 1859.

There is a Synod consisting of three Presbyteries in England in connection with the Church of Scotland.

There are also in connection with the Church of Scotland the Synod of Canada, the Synod of Nova Scotia, the Synod of New Brunswick, and the Synod of Australia.

There are also ordained ministers of the Church of Scotland on service in various other parts of the world: 13 are chaplains in India; about the same number are military chaplains attached to Presbyterian regiments; and there are ministers located in Holland, the West Indies, New Zealand, Mauritius, Buenos Ayres, and British Guiana.

THE ENGRAVER'S NAME IS INVERTED

John M. Cook

Minister of the Parish of St Leonards St ANDREWS, SCOTLAND
Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, 1859.

THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met May 19, 1859, in the High Church, Edinburgh, and was opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator, Matthew Leishman, D.D., from Isaiah lx. 22. "A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation, I the Lord will hasten it in his time." After the sermon the Assembly proceeded to the Assembly Hall, where the sessions were constituted by prayer.

Dr. Leishman thanked the Assembly for the honour they had conferred upon him last year in electing him to the Moderator's chair, and proposed Rev. John Cook, D.D., of St. Andrew's, as his successor, an honour which could not be considered unmerited, when the Assembly considered the services Dr. Cook had rendered the Church in general, but more especially in extending and preserving the Christian character of the parish schools of Scotland. Dr. Cook was elected by acclamation, and was duly installed into office.

The death of John Lee, D.D., principal clerk of the Assembly being announced, it was agreed that Alexander L. Simpson, D.D. be his successor, and John Cook, D.D., of Haddington, was elected deputy clerk, in place of Dr. Simpson elected principal clerk.

The Lord High Commissioner's (the Earl of Mansfield) commission and the Queen's letter having been read, his Grace addressed the Assembly, assuring them of her Majesty's unceasing interest in the spiritual welfare of her people, and of her determination to maintain the rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland, and stating the renewal of her Majesty's grant of £2,000, ($10,000.) for the extension of the reformed religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland.

The Moderator thanked the Commissioner, and said the Assembly recognized in her Majesty's choice of a representative, her gracious desire to make a selection alike honourable to the Church, and beneficial to the country.

Rev. DR. BRYCE, Chairman of the Committee on Indian affairs, reported: That the efforts of the Church of Scotland to obtain an enlargement of the means of religious ministrations to those of her communion in India, have at length been rewarded with a large and liberal increase in the number of chaplains in the several presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, by an addition of seven junior chaplains to the six already stationed there.

Rev. DR. LEISHMAN announced that an application had been made by GENERAL PEEL, for two chaplains to join Scotch regiments in the Indian Army, and accordingly two gentlemen were inducted, and are now on their way to the East,

Rev. PROF. MITCHELL read the report of the Committee on conversion of the Jews. The stations are Darmstadt and Karlsruhe, in Germany; Salonica, Smyrna, and Constantinople, in Turkey. The report showed signs of success in their efforts, but called the attention of the Assembly to the fact of a falling off in the collections as compared with the previous year.

Rev. Dr. ARNOLD stated that the Committee on Psalmody had prepared a small collection of hymns which would be submitted to the Assembly.

JOHN COOK, D.D., of Haddington, read the Report of the Committee on Education. The number of schools under the care of the Assembly is 183; the number of scholars 20,525. The religious instruction of the pupils in the Bible and Catechism holds a prominent place in the teaching of all the schools, and the reports of the efficiency of the schools is favourable. Dr. Cook also called the attention of the Assembly to the Elders' Daughters' Association in promoting female education, and strongly commended the claims of the Association on the liberality of the church.

JOHN ROBERTSON, D.D., of Edinburgh, read the Report of the Committee on Popery, by which it appears that the usual labours of previous years have been continued with moderate success.

JOHN COOK, D.D., of St. Andrews, read the Report of the Committee on Parochial Schools. This subject has become more important from the fact that during the coming year a new average will be struck which will considerably reduce the salaries. The Committee were continued with instructions to communicate with the Government.

J. C. FOWLER, LL.D., read the Report of the Committee on Colonial Missions, which showed that the missions had been very successful; no fewer than fifty additional missionaries had been sent out; the expenditure had been considerable, the sum of £1200 ($6000) having been drawn from the reserved fund.

The subject of Lay Preaching came up as an appeal from the decision of the Synod of Aberdeen. It appeared that Reginald Radcliffe, Esq., commenced a series of revival meetings in Aberdeen in the winter of 1858-1859. After some time he preached in Grey Friars Church, when the attention of the Presbytery was called to its irregularity; and Rev. James Smith, the minister of Grey Friars Church, on being requested to desist from having the church so occupied, refused; whereupon at a meeting of the Presbytery the subject was brought forward enjoining the request, and carried. Mr. Smith appealed to the Synod, when the Synod affirmed the judgment of the Presbytery. After a full discussion, Rev. Dr. Robertson offered the following resolution which was adopted: That the General Assembly dismiss the appeal, with the declaration that in confirming the judgment of Presbytery and Synod they hold it as declaring only that the practice of preaching the word of God, and conducting the other solemn services of the sanctuary, by persons not duly appointed to the office of the ministry in this church, ought not to be countenanced by the courts or the ministers of this church.

The Innovations in Old Grey Friars Church, Edinburgh, were brought before the Assembly by an appeal of ROBERT LEE, D.D., minister in the Old Grey Friars Church, against the judgment of the Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, affirming the judgment of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, enjoining the appellant to discontinue the innovations he introduced, and conform in future to the order and form of public worship as established in the Directory of Public Worship. After a long discussion it was, on motion of James Bisset, D.D., agreed that the General Assembly sustain the appeal and recall the judgment of Synod, in so far as the same affirm, simpliciter, the judgment of the Presbytery of Edinburgh on April 26, 1859; and by the admission of Rev. Dr. Lee, that the prayers of the services in his church were read by Dr. Lee, either in manuscript or print, from a book, entitled, "Prayers for Public Worship," find that this practice is an innovation upon and contrary to the laws and usages of the church in the celebration of public worship, and the Assembly enjoin Dr. Lee to discontinue these in the services of the church, and to conform in the forms of prayer to the present order and practice of this church.

JAMES CRAIK, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Indian Missions, reported that in Calcutta the number of pupils in attendance during the year was 727, divided into twenty-two classes; in Bombay the scholars number 386 under the care of native teachers. In Madras, the number of scholars is 584. In the Punjab the mission is yet suspended, though hopes are entertained of being able ere long to reinstate it. The Committee think the attention of the Indian Council should be called to give all reasonable encouragement to those who seek the overthrow of the false and debasing systems by which the natives are enslaved.

The Kildalton case was taken up, being the petition of the parishioners, praying the Assembly to affirm the judgment of the Presbytery of Ilay and Jura, and rejecting Rev. Angus Macintyre, the presentee to this parish. The whole subject came up, and was fully discussed, when, on motion of Dr. Hill, on the ground of unsuitableness of the Rev. Mr. Macintyre's sermons, he was rejected, and the judgment of Presbytery thereby sustained.

A Committee was appointed to consider and report to the next General Assembly how the Tri-centenary of the Reformation in 1860 might be most appropriately observed, and to confer with other Protestant bodies on the subject.

Dr. SMITH, of Inverary, reported on the Gaelic Scriptures, and recommended the appointment of a Committee to communicate with Government with a view of getting the same protection for the Gaelic Scriptures as was given to the English, and to the limitation of the issue of the edition of 1826, as authorized by the Assembly, and by the Government of that date.

Dr. CRAWFORD read the Report of the Home Mission Committee. During the year aid was voted to 66 unendowed churches to the amount of £2785, ($13,925,) and towards the support of 47 mission stations to the amount of £1835, ($9175.) Making 113 places of worship where aid was allowed.

The Assembly heard the deputation from the Scottish Synod in England. Rev. LAWRENCE MACBETH, Courener, who gave a full account of their Synod's operations. At the conclusion the Moderator expressed the gratification of the Assembly in receiving the deputation, and hearing the statements, and reciprocating the feelings of attachment which they had expressed.

Dr. ROBERTSON read the Report of the Endowment Scheme, by which it appears, that exclusive of the Royal Bounty Churches in Argyleshire and the Isles, the number of unendowed churches, in connection with the Church of Scotland, is 200. The receipts for the year show a falling off, but circumstances of such a nature have transpired that we feel constrained to lift up our hands and take courage.

Dr. TRAIL reported concerning the admission of three students of Divinity from dissenting bodies, viz., two from the United Presbyterian and one from the Free Church, proposing conditions which should be presented to them, and also suggesting certain principles to guide Presbyteries in such cases. The report was adopted as far as the three cases were concerned. In regard to legislation, it was referred back to the Committee to report to the next Assembly.

Rev. Mr. LEITCH, of Monimail, gave in a Report on Sabbath Schools, which stated that 1064 churches and chapels were occupied, from which 926 answers had been received. The whole number enrolled was 126,961; the average attendance 95,378; the number of teachers 9,773; the number of Sabbath School Libraries 418; volumes 113,321.

The Observance of the Sabbath, the Paris Mission, and some other matters occupied the attention of the Assembly. The Moderator, after addressing the Assembly in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the sole King and Head of his Church, dissolved the Assembly, appointing the next meeting of the General Assembly of this church to be held here on Thursday, May 17, 1860.

ALEX. L. SIMPSON, Principal Clerk.
JOHN COOK, Deputy Clerk.

JOHN COOK, Moderator.

In Memoriam.

Gibb, George—Minister of Glen Isla Parish, died in 1859. He was ordained in 1822, and for the last ten years had been connected with his late charge. His health had been failing for some time, but he laboured on until he was taken quite ill in church on a Sabbath, and expired on Monday night. He was in the sixty-fifth year of his age.

Lee, John—Was born in 1779, in a village on Gala Water, Scotland. He was carefully educated, and was for some time with the celebrated Dr. Leyden, and afterwards in the University of Edinburgh, where he took the degree of M.D. Subsequently he entered the church, his first charge being the Scottish Church in London. From thence he was called to Peebles, where after labouring four years, he was, in 1812, elected Professor of Church History in the University of St. Andrews. He also successively filled the charges of the Canongate, Lady Yester's, and Old Church, Edinburgh, until 1840, when he was elected by the Town Council of Edinburgh Principal of the University. In 1844 he was elected to the Chair of Divinity in the University, which he held in connection with the principalship. In 1828, he was elected one of the Clerks of the General Assembly. In 1844 he was Moderator, and many of the pastoral letters addressed to the church by the Assembly were from his pen.

Principal Lee was one of the survivors of that rare old race of Scottish divines and scholars. His life was one of indefatigable industry. As Principal Clerk of the Assembly, on abstruse points of ecclesiastical history he was an authority from whom there was no appeal.

THE FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE General Assembly of the Free Church met on Thursday, May 19, 1839, in their New Hall, and was opened with a discourse from the retiring Moderator, ALEXANDER BEITH, D.D., from Matthew vi. 10: "Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven." At the conclusion of the sermon he made a few practical remarks in connection with their New Hall, in which they now met for the first time.

The Assembly being duly constituted, Dr. Beith nominated WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM, D.D., Principal of the New College, Edinburgh, and remarked that in so doing he felt gratified in bearing merited testimony to one who is dear to all our hearts, and who will receive the unanimous and cordial approbation of this Assembly.

Principal Cunningham was elected by acclamation, and being conducted into the Hall by Rev. Dr. Clason and Lord Panmure took his seat amid loud applause. He then addressed the Assembly. It was agreed, on the motion of Rev. Dr. Beith, to present a loyal and dutiful address to Her Majesty in connection with the Anniversary of her birthday.

On motion of Mr. DUNLOP, the representatives of the Presbytery of the North of Italy were received.

Prof. SMEATON gave the Report of the Committee on the conversion of the Jews, from which it appears that the labours of the year are somewhat encouraging, though a falling off in the receipts was apparent.

Prof. MILLER read the Report of the Committee on Temperance, which stated that though much had been done during the past year to lessen the sin of intemperance throughout the land, the evil still remains of an alarming and disastrous magnitude. They would also remind the Assembly of the necessity for increased and sustained efforts to neutralize this national vice, fraught as it is with such terrible calamity to the bodies and souls of men; looking mainly to the progress of "the only certain specific for the moral regeneration of human nature—the promulgation of the gospel—but at the same time encouraging, and if need be, aiding those other means, such as Temperance Associations, and associations for improving the dwellings of the working classes."

Dr. ROXBURGH gave in the Report of the Home Mission Committee. The number of agents is 106; viz., 18 ministers, 66 probationers, 12 catechists, and 10 students employed on Missionary work. The report entered into a full description of their work, and the committee are collecting materials which will enable them to present to the next Assembly an account of the whole Home Missionary operations of the church.

Various Reports were received from the Committees of the Church, attracting more or less attention. The subject of Lay Preaching came up, and Mr. BROWNLOW NORTH was recognized as a lay preacher of the Free Church.

Dr. BEGG gave an outline of the proposed plan to celebrate the Tri-centenary of the Reformation in Scotland next year, which proposed that the Assembly of next year should hold a special diet to give thanks for the great mercy of the Reformation; that every pulpit in Scotland should be occupied on an appointed day with the occasion and principles of the Reformation, &c.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in the same place on Thursday, May 17, 1860.

In Memoriam.

Burns, William Hamilton—Was born in Falkirk, Stirlingshire, Scotland, July 15, 1779. He began his studies for the ministry in the University of Edinburgh in 1791, and with the exception of one year at St. Andrews, the whole of his curriculum was passed in the Metropolitan University, where in all the departments of studies he stood high, particularly in Languages and Theology.

During the years 1797 to 1799 he was tutor in the family of Sir James D. Hay. In 1799 he was licensed by the Presbytery of Stranraer, and in the autumn of that year he became regular assistant to Rev. James Lauder, Minister of Dun, and was ordained, December 4, 1800, and for twenty-one years, with a pains-taking piety and an earnestness never excelled, he discharged the duties of his small parish. In 1820 the large parish of Kilsyth became vacant, and in the year following he was inducted into this important charge. He laboured with his accustomed zeal in this congregation. At the Disruption he took a decided stand in favour of the Free Church movement, and at great pecuniary sacrifice; but his congregation were devoted to him, and his life was one of continued activity and usefulness. In his seventy-eighth year the people of his charge called Rev. Mr. Black as colleague, and for the last three years of his life his labours were considerably lessened. He died May 8, 1859, of a severe illness, and he glorified God in dying as he had done while living, surrounded by his surviving partner, by his children, and his grandchildren. His life had been one unbounded course of fidelity, and uprightness, and deep-toned spirituality.

Grey, Henry—Was born at Alnwick, Northumberland, England, in 1778. He was ordained in 1801. He was called to the Old Chapel of Ease, Edinburgh, in 1813, and subsequently to the Parish of Stenton in East Lothian; afterwards to the New North, and then to St. Mary's Parish, Edinburgh. He left the Church of Scotland, and was Moderator of the Free Church the first year after the Disruption.

Owing to increasing years his health gradually gave way, until he quietly fell asleep, January 13, 1859. He was one of the most popular and accomplished preachers in Edinburgh, and though well stricken in years he continued to preach to his people at one diet of worship almost to the last.

Mackellar, Angus—Was ordained in 1812 to the charge of Carmunnoch in the west of Scotland. In 1814 he was called to Pencaitland, where for thirty years he laboured faithfully. In 1840 he was Moderator of the Church of Scotland, and when the Disruption came he was one of the acknowledged leaders of the Free Church. On leaving his country parish he removed to Edinburgh, and for some years exercised a sort of general superintendence over the missionary and educational interests of the church, as Counsellor of the Boards of Mission and Education. He was Moderator of the Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland in 1852. He died after a lingering illness, May 11, 1859. He was buried in the Dean Cemetery, Edinburgh.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE Synod met in the Synod House, Queen street, Edinburgh, on Monday, May 9, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by the retiring Moderator, WILLIAM PEDDIE, D.D., from Psalm lxxxv. 6: "Wilt thou not revive us?" After the discourse the sessions were constituted with prayer. JAMES BOYD, D.D., Minister at Campbeltown, was elected Moderator.

Rev. H. M. MACGILL read the Report of the Committee on Home Missions, by which it appears that during the year 152 congregations were aided, with a membership of 23,392; they had raised among themselves for the usual religious purposes £18,592 ($92,960); they had 188 Sabbath-schools and 147 Bible-classes, 1237 teachers and 11,737 scholars; and 348 preaching stations, besides their regular places, were supplied with the privileges of the gospel.

Mr. JAMES PEDDIE, w.s., Treasurer, reported that during the year £6,188 ($30,940) were raised for Home Missions, and £20,449 ($102,245) for Foreign Missions; making the total receipts for these two objects £26,637 ($133,185).

Dr. SOMERVILLE read the Report of the Committee on Foreign Missions, by which it appears that the objects of the mission are being carried forward with rather more gratifying results than usual.

Dr. G. JOHNSTON read the Report of the Committee on Theological Hall, which reports a satisfactory state of affairs. The number of scholars during the last session was 191.

Rev. H. M. MACGILL read the Report of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Scheme. The amount of capital raised for the fund is £18,755 ($93,775). During the year 17 annuitants had been admitted who would have been entitled to £830 ($4,150), but three died, the remaining 14 entitled to £700 ($3,500).

Rev. Mr. KENTON read the Report of the Committee on the Tri-centenary of the Reformation, which suggested the first Wednesday afternoon of the next meeting of Synod in 1860 be set apart for appropriate services, and the Committee be continued to make any arrangements with all the Protestant denominations throughout the world.

The Committee on Education for Missionaries' Families; Congregational Sabbath-schools; the Observance of the Sabbath; Open Air and Itinerant Preaching, &c., were brought before the Synod.

After a closing address from the Moderator, the Synod adjourned with prayer, and the apostolic benediction, to meet again on Monday, May 14, 1860.

In Memoriam.

Allison, David—Was born at Galefoot Farm in Ochiltree Parish, Ayrshire, Scotland, in 1799. His parents removed to Paisley where their son received his primary education. Graduating at the University of Glasgow with honour, he studied Theology first under Dr. Lawson at Selkirk, and subsequently with Dr. Dick at Glasgow. He was licensed in the spring of 1821, and was soon after settled at Stuartfield, where he was ordained, July 8, 1823; the services being held in a field, there being no church in the place large enough to hold the crowd that assembled. Here he laboured with diligence and success for thirty-four years. He died, July 7, 1858. In the life of a minister in a retired situation there is seldom any thing of more than local interest. As a preacher his style was clear and perspicuous. He avoided the puerile embellishments of poetry and phrases borrowed from philosophy and vain deceit. He was not what is called a popular preacher, but he was more—a useful one.

Beattie, Alexander O.—Was born at Ecclefechan, August 17, 1773. He was licensed in 1807, and was ordained at Leslie, Fifeshire, January, 1808. In 1813 he removed to Kincardine. Here he was very popular, and being called to Miles Lane, London, he declined the invitation, and on his return from the Synod after giving his decision, he was met at the wharf at Kincardine by his rejoicing friends, and the shipwrights struck work for the afternoon and carried him on their shoulders to his manse. He was translated to the Gordon street Church, Glasgow, in 1825. The church grew under his ministry from year to year. It was in the midst of his usefulness, after a pastorate of thirty-two years, he was taken with paralysis, but though deprived of strength his mind was unclouded. After lingering a long time, he died June, 10, 1858. He left his property, $15,000, to the United Presbyterian Church for the education of young men for the ministry. Dr. Beattie's mind and character were salient and conspicuous. His intellect was robust and shrewd without any formal cultivation. Training had done little for him save to quicken his mental vigour. Profundity he did not even pretend to appreciate, and subtle distinctions were all lost upon him. Common sense was his ruling trait, and in his sphere he found it more useful than logic. Speculation was a walk in which he never trod, but he cheerfully followed the good "old paths."

Beattie, Matthew—Was born in 1786, and ordained as minister of the congregation of Dunscore. He died June 23, 1858, in his seventy-second year.

Brown, John—Was born at Burnhead, Whitburn, July 12, 1784. He entered the University of Edinburgh, November 1797, and Divinity Hall, Selkirk, August, 1800. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Stirling and Falkirk, February, 1805. Ordained at Biggar, February 6, 1806. Here he laboured devotedly for sixteen years, when, June 4, 1822, he accepted a call to Rose street Church, Edinburgh. Seven years later, May 20, 1829, he was called to Broughton Place, and in April, 1834, he was elected Professor of Exegetical Theology. Here his mighty intellectual powers had full sway. Possessing a mind of clear apprehension and sound judgment, with reasoning powers cautious and just, his mind was a perfect harmony, and for a quarter of a century his whole life and energy were devoted to his high calling. His fatal illness was upwards of a year in duration. The machinery for a much longer life was all there, but the motive power was gone. His ardent, unsparing soul had wasted itself by excess of intensity of effort. He died, October 14, 1858.

Hay, David—Was born in St. Andrews, Scotland, in 1831, where he was also educated. He was a diligent student. He taught an Academy at Inverness, and was licensed by Inverness Presbytery. His first appointments were Johnshaven, Ceres, and Largo. Having received a call from Largo, he was ordained August 10, 1858. He entered upon his work with all the zeal of his ardent nature, but during a journey to assist a brother minister he caught cold which produced a violent attack of pneumonia, of which he died, April 8, 1859. He was a graceful speaker, and one of the most promising young ministers in the church.

Law, James—Was born in 1775. He was ordained in 1799, and was senior minister of the Bethelfield United Presbyterian Church, Kirkealdy, Scotland. He died, May 5, 1859.

Nicol, William—Was ordained in 1824, and was senior minister of Black Friars United Presbyterian Church, Jedburgh, Scotland. He died, December 27, 1858.

Henderson, James—The son of William and Ann (Watson) Henderson, was born April 8, 1787, in Stirling, Scotland. His parents were members of the Secession congregation, which derived its origin from Rev. Ebenezer Erskine. Their piety was of a decided cast, and their household was an example of Christian order and happiness. At the early age of four years James was sent to school, and at five he could read with facility, at which time he read his Bible through. He received the best education Stirling afforded, and in his thirteenth year he entered the University of Glasgow, where he remained four years, when he was admitted as a student of Theology by the Presbytery of Stirling and Falkirk, in July, 1804, when he entered Divinity Hall, Selkirk. On finishing his course, he was licensed by the same Presbytery, February 15, 1809, first preaching at Denny, a small village near Stirling, but soon after receiving a call from the congregation at Galashiels, he was ordained Aug. 29, 1810. For the long period of forty-eight years with the undeviating care and affection of his people, did this eminent man of God go in and out before his people. With a mind fully matured he soon rose to distinction, and he was known as one of the most finished preachers of his day. He laboured under a peculiar disease of the heart which finally terminated his life, November 4, 1858.

He married Miss Isabella Hay, daughter of the late Rev. Robert Hay of Stow, who preceded him to the grave a few years.

McGilchrist, John—Was born in 1796, and ordained in 1820. He was senior minister of Rose street congregation, Edinburgh, Scotland. He died May 15, 1858.

Smith, William—Was born in 1812; having passed through the usual studies, was licensed and ordained in 1838 as Minister in the United Presbyterian Church, Bannockburn, Scotland. During a visit with a friend to the sea shore he went in to bathe, at Aberdeen Creek, and was carried out by the current and drowned, Aug. 14, 1858. Every effort was made to save him, but in vain. He left a widow and a large family.

Struthers, Gavin—Was born in 1790. After receiving the usual education he removed to Glasgow, and at its University received his classical and philosophical training. After studying Theology he received a call from the Anderston Relief Church, Glasgow, and was ordained in 1817. He was mainly instrumental in bringing about the Union between the United Secession and the Relief Church, and was the author of the address read from all the pulpits of both denominations at its consummation. He was an earnest thinker, and owing to his many labours his health broke down, and in 1855 he was entirely laid aside incapable of any mental exertion. He died July 11, 1858. He was author of a History of the Relief Church, and an Essay on Christian Union.

REFORMED PRESBY'N. CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

THE Synod met according to appointment in Glasgow, Scotland, May 2, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by Rev. JAMES FERGUSON, the retiring Moderator.

Rev. JAMES MORRISON, of the Presbytery of Dumfries, was chosen Moderator. The usual reports were presented and disposed of. The subject of voting for members of Parliament was brought before the Synod by a memorial from the London congregation which elicited a full discussion. The Synod refused to alter their previous decision, whereupon J. CUNNINGHAM, D.D., in his own name and in behalf of the congregation of London, withdrew from the fellowship of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Scotland.

The Synod adjourned to meet the first Monday in May, 1860.

JOHN GRAHAM, Clerk. JAMES MORRISON, Moderator.

A Minister whose Death is Reported.

Bates, James—Received his education for the ministry in Scotland, and after his licensure he received a call from the congregation of New Cumnock, but owing to the weakness of his lungs he was advised to emigrate to another climate. Accordingly he left for Australia, where he arrived in April, 1858. He proceeded to Geelong where he was well received, and it was thought by many that his health was improved, but he was attacked with dysentery; he rallied, however, and was on a journey to see a physician at Newtown. Whilst walking from the train to an omnibus he was seen to fall. When picked up he was speechless and soon died. The brethren in Australia speak in high terms of his character. He died in July, 1858.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF VICTORIA.

THE organization of this Church took place in Rev. Irving Hetherington's Church, corner of Russell and Collins streets, Melbourne, Australia. The Colonial Legislature at its previous session having passed an Act legalizing the Union, it was consummated at noon, April 7, 1859.

Rev. JAMES CLOW, being the oldest minister present, was elected Moderator. After an address he requested the ministers and elders to stand up, whilst he read the basis and formula, and they signified their acceptance of and adherence to the same.

We, the undersigned ministers and elders of "The Synod of Victoria," "The Free Church Synod of Victoria," "The United Presbyterian Synod of Victoria," and "The United Presbyterian Synod of Australia," having resolved, after long and prayerful deliberation, to unite together in one Synod and in one Church, do now, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and with solemn prayer for his guidance and blessing, unite in one Synod, to be called "The Presbyterian Church of Victoria," and resolve and determine that the following be the fundamental principles and articles of the union, and be subscribed by each of the members of the new Synod.

1st. That the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Presbyterian Church Government, the Directory for Public Worship, and the Second Book of Discipline, be the standards and formularies of this church.

2d. That inasmuch as there is a difference of opinion in regard to the doctrines contained in the standards, relative to the power and duty of the civil magistrate in matters of religion, the office bearers of this Church, in subscribing these standards and formularies, are not to be held as countenancing any persecuting or intolerant principles, or as professing any view in reference to the power and duty of the civil magistrate inconsistent with the liberty of personal conscience, or the right of private judgment.

3d. That this Synod asserts for itself a separate and independent character and position as a Church, possesses supreme jurisdiction over its subordinate judicatories, congregations, and people; and will receive all ministers and preachers from other Presbyterian Churches applying for admission on an equal footing, who shall thereupon become subject to its authority alone.

Formula.—I do hereby declare that I do sincerely approve and accept the standards and formularies enumerated in the foregoing articles, as the confession of my faith, with the declarations and provisions contained in the second article; and I promise that, through the grace of God, I shall firmly and constantly adhere to the same; that I shall follow no divisive councils, but in my station, and to the utmost of my power, shall assert, maintain, and defend the doctrines, worship, discipline, and government of this Church, as therein defined, renouncing all doctrines, tenets, and opinions whatsoever contrary to or inconsistent with the same.

This was signed by all the ministers and elders present, and subsequently by others. A few of the ministers of the different bodies dissented, though their names are included in the list of ministers given on the following page. [It is reasonable to suppose they will gradually come in, as they are in good standing in the bodies to which they belong.]

After transacting some other items of business, the Assembly adjourned to meet in May, 1860.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND.

THE General Assembly met according to appointment in Mary's Abbey Church, Dublin, July 4, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by Rev. JOHN JOHNSTON, D.D., the retiring Moderator. The sessions were constituted with prayer. Rev. WILLIAM GIBSON, Professor of Moral Philosophy, was elected Moderator.

The reports from the various Synods indicated a wide-spread and earnest interest in regard to personal religion. To such an extent had the revival gone that it had awakened public attention, especially in connection with those physical manifestations which could hardly be accounted for.

Rev. WM. McCLURE and Prof. GIBSON presented a report of their visit to the British Provinces in North America and the United States. The report showed the great feeling of love and regard in which the General Assembly of Ireland is held by the people of the provinces and states.

The report of the mission among the Roman Catholics of Ireland called forth a lively discussion. The efforts of the mission were more energetic than ever before, and the success so far has been truly encouraging. The demand for means in the present exigency prompted the appointment of Rev. John Edgar, D.D., Rev. S. M. Dill, and Rev. David Wilson as a committee to visit the United States and the Canadas to ask for aid and co-operation in this good work.

The business of the meeting was interrupted from time to time by seasons of devotional exercises, and such was the feeling among the members of the Assembly in view of the spiritual wants of the people that the Assembly adjourned to meet in September.

The meeting was resumed in September, when, after disposing of some business matter, the Assembly adjourned to meet in Rev. Dr. Cooke's Church, Belfast, July 2, 1860.

ROBERT PARKE, Stated Clerk.

In Memoriam.

Dill, Richard—The son of Rev. Richard Dill, of Knowhead, County Donegal, was born in 1806, at Ardmore, near Knowhead. He received a good education under the care of his father. He afterwards attended Foyle College, at Derry, where he graduated. In 1821 he entered the University of Glasgow, where he completed a full course, taking his degree as Master of Arts. In 1827 he was licensed by Derry Presbytery, and December 17, 1829, he was ordained as minister over the congregation of Tandridge, County Armagh. Here he laboured very acceptably until 1835, when he accepted the call to the important charge of Ormond Quay, Dublin, where he remained until his death. Dr. Dill devoted much of his time and attention to the condition of the Presbyterian soldiers in the British army, especially with their right of having Presbyterian chaplains. He wrote and delivered many essays and addresses on this favourite theme, and ere his death he received evidences of the attention of the Government to this whole subject. He also wrote warmly against the idea he had conceived of a tendency among some of the brethren to a little High Churchism, and the work attracted attention at the time. There was a degree of roughness or robustness about Dr. Dill's character which prevented him from having many or warm friends, and in his various controversies this element of his nature manifested itself; but he was a genuine Presbyterian, and a man of great strength of mind and force of character. He died, December 8, 1858. There had been a gradual decay of his system for some time, which finally assumed an active and eventually a fatal type.

Goudy, Alexander P.—The son of Rev. Andrew Goudy, was born at Ballywalter, February 4, 1809. He was well educated, finishing his collegiate course in Belfast College. He was licensed by Bangor Presbytery in December 29, 1830, and on September 20, 1831, was ordained over the congregation of Glastry as assistant to Rev. James Sinclair. Here he remained until March 20, 1833, when having accepted a call he was installed over the congregation of Strabane. Here he devoted his full powers in the advancement of Presbyterianism. In 1839 he published a volume entitled Presbyterianism Defended; in 1840, another work called a Plea for Presbytery. The able manner in which these works were written placed the author among the foremost men of the church. In 1857 he was Moderator of the Assembly, and in 1858 he was appointed one of the Presbyterian Chaplains for the Army. The death of his friend, Dr. Dill, was felt very deeply, and having attended his funeral it was given out that Dr. Goudy would preach his funeral sermon, but he was taken suddenly ill during that week, and died of congestion of the brain, December 15, 1858.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN ENGLAND.

THE Synod met in the National Church, London, April 18, 1859, and was opened with a discourse by Rev. Thomas McCrie, D.D., from Galatians iv. 26: "But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all."

Rev. WILLIAM McCAW, of Manchester, was elected Moderator. A committee was appointed to collect the Annual Statistics of the Church; also on Temperance. A report was received from the College Committee which speaks encouragingly; also on Home Mission. It was also resolved to celebrate the Tri-centenary of the Reformation, &c. The Synod adjourned to meet in Sunderland, Monday, April 23, 1860.

NOTE—The deficiencies of the preceding Summary could not be supplied save by approximation. It may be interesting to state that 7600 ministers report 826,748 Communicants, being an average of 118 members each, which being multiplied by the total number of ministers (10,145) would show a Total of Communicants of 1,200,500. The collections reported by 8000 ministers amount to $6,741,485, which is an average of $847 to each minister. The total number of ministers (10,145) being multiplied by $847 show a total of $8,602,815.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

THE AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY, composed of Christians voluntarily united, and comprising members from all the principal denominations, was instituted in New York, May 11, 1825. Its officers are a President, Vice Presidents, Secretaries, Treasurer, Auditors, and thirty-six Directors annually elected by the Society. These with the Life Directors, constitute a Board, who annually elect a Publishing, Distributing, and Finance Committee, the members of which constitute an Executive Committee, to conduct the business of the Society.

Its object, as expressed in the Constitution, "is to diffuse a knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ as the Redeemer of sinners, and to promote the interests of vital godliness and sound morality by the circulation of religious tracts, calculated to receive the approbation of all evangelical Christians."

By the wise foresight of its founders, a house and lot were provided for its permanent accommodation by the citizens of New York at its formation. It now has twenty power presses, and other machinery and fixtures for the economical and rapid multiplication of its periodicals and other evangelical works.

In prosecuting this Catholic work, neither interfering with, nor superseding any other mode of doing good, it has provided a strictly evangelical literature, consisting of 2400 distinct works, and upon every theme, from the minutest duties of a holy life, to the profoundest doctrines of the Christian system, unsurpassed for true Scriptural teaching, fervency of appeal, and adaptation to every want of the human heart; and has circulated them through every available channel—by private Christians, city missionaries, tract distributors, pious travellers, devoted sailors, ministers and missionaries at home and abroad, and by colporteurs.

American colportage, an aggressive system for reaching the unevangelized by the combined power of printed and spoken truth, was originated by the American Tract Society in 1842. Small in the beginning, it increased year by year, and now employs about 500 colporteurs, who in almost every State and Territory of our land are spreading the truth as it is in Jesus.

The absolute necessity for this forerunning and catholic agency, is seen in the fact that about one-third of our entire population lie outside of the Church, and beyond the reach of the evangelical ministry, and must be reached, if at all, by some such aggressive means.

The Society relies upon the voluntary donations of benevolent men in all the churches, to carry forward its aggressive and catholic work.

THE WORK IT HAS DONE.

In the 34 years of its existence, the Society has appropriated in money to foreign lands, chiefly through the various evangelical Foreign Missionary Boards, for the printing of books and tracts for the heathen, $498,794 00.

It has made grants in publications at home to the amount of $709,370 51.

It has expended in catholic colportage more than $800,000.

It has circulated of books 14,000,000 copies, and of smaller public's., 200,000,000.

It also issues monthly 200,000 copies of the American Messenger, 27,000 of the Botschafter, and 300,000 of the Child's Paper.

Its colporteurs on their mission of love have made eight million family visits.

ADDRESS,—REV. L. B. GASTON, PRESIDENT.

CORINTH, MISS.

Cedar Hill Female Seminary,

Near Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Penna.

N. DODGE, A. M., PRINCIPAL AND PROPRIETOR.

CEDAR HILL SEMINARY,—A self-sustained and self-sustaining Institution, inaugurated and conducted by the present proprietor, is now (1860) in its 24th year of successful operation.

To afford good facilities,—on moderate terms, for a complete education, intellectual, social, moral and religious,—to the youth confided to its charge, is its assumed object. Its special claims on the regard of parents and guardians, lie in the well-trying and successful experience of its past and present conductors;—as affording the best pledge and guaranty of future well-doing in the work of education; in short, of “meeting all reasonable expectations.”

WASHINGTON COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.

GEORGE JUNKIN, D. D., PRESIDENT.

THE unrivalled beauty of our mountain scenery, contributes not a little to its advantage, in the view of all persons who duly appreciate the power which the sublime scenes of nature exert upon the mind, and especially upon the youthful mind. It is not possible, that the eye of youth, under a course of intellectual training, should continually rest upon our undulating hills and rise to the summit of our majestic mountains, without lifting the spirit to something of their own sublimity.

The Session opens on the second Thursday of September. Punctuality in attendance at the opening of the Session is of the utmost importance. Deficiencies are often due to missing or neglecting the first lessons.

The Commencement Exercises will take place on the last Thursday in June.

There will be no recess during the Session, except on Christmas day.

LOCATION, BUILDINGS, &c.

The village of Hanover is situated upon an elevated bluff of the Ohio river, six miles below Madison, Indiana, in a region of remarkable salubrity and natural beauty. The village and neighborhood are characterized by morality, and the absence of all ordinary temptation to vice and idleness. The Ohio river, and the Railways from Madison, N. Albany, and Cincinnati, place Hanover within twenty-four hours of all the principal points in Indiana, Kentucky, Western Ohio, and Eastern Illinois. A Turnpike from Madison to Hanover, renders the village easy of access at all seasons of the year.

Hanover College is controlled by a Board of Trustees; one half of whom are appointed by the Board itself, and the other half by the Synods of Indiana and Northern Indiana.

The Board purchased, some years ago, a farm of two hundred acres, lying between the village and the Ohio river, upon a beautiful point of which, overlooking the river from an elevation of four hundred feet, they have erected a commodious College edifice, now completed and occupied. The new College consists of a centre building, nearly eighty feet square, with lateral and transverse wings. The whole length is about two hundred feet. It contains no dormitories for Students; (an undesirable provision;) but affords ample and convenient halls, library, cabinet, lecture and recitation rooms, and a spacious chapel.

The building commands an exceedingly diversified view of the river, for six miles up, and ten miles down its course.

CENTRE COLLEGE,

Danville, Kentucky.

THIS Institution, endowed by the Synod of Kentucky, and under its control, is located near the centre of the State, in the flourishing town of Danville. This point is connected, by daily lines of stages over good roads, with the great Railroad lines of the State. It is 22 miles from Danville to the Railroad leading through Lexington to Cincinnati; and 28 miles to Lebanon, the terminus of a branch of a Railroad connecting with Louisville and Nashville.

The college is, at present, under the immediate supervision of the REV. L. W. GREEN, President,

Assisted by a corps of experienced instructors, in the College proper, and in the Preparatory School connected with it.

The curriculum of studies embraces the full course commonly pursued in similar Institutions.

There is but one Term during the year, which opens

THE SECOND MONDAY IN SEPTEMBER,

AND

Closes the Last Tuesday in June.

The TUITION is $33 per annum, except for young gentlemen prosecuting their studies in view of the ministry, under the care of the Board of Education, who receive gratuitous instruction.

The students do not board and lodge together, but in private families of the highest respectability in the town and vicinity.

The present endowment, exclusive of Grounds, Buildings, &c., is about $100,000; and the Synod has an agent within its bounds who has already secured an additional subscription of about $40,000, for the purpose of adding to the Buildings, and enlarging the facilities of education at this institution.

The number of students who have matriculated the present term, (September 1859,) is 165 in the College, and 60 in the Preparatory Department. Whole number of Alumni, 573.

The Synodical Female College, GRIFFIN, GEORGIA.

THIS Institution is under the care and supervision of the Synod of Georgia. Its location in Griffin is elevated, retired, yet of easy access, beautiful and healthy.

The course of studies is liberal and comprehensive, embracing everything requisite to a polite and finished education.

In the business of instruction, the President is constantly aided by an adequate number of competent and efficient teachers, who are appointed by a Board of Trustees, and approved by the Synod.

The collegiate year consists of Ten Months; and is divided into two terms, styled the Fall and Spring Terms. The first begins on Monday after the first Sabbath in August, and closes on the last Thursday in November. The Second begins on Monday after the first Sabbath in January, and closes on the last Thursday in June.

ARCH STREET

Collegiate Institute for Young Ladies,

No. 1530 ARCH STREET,

PHILADELPHIA.

REV. CHAS. A. SMITH, D. D., PRINCIPAL,

Associated with experienced and eminently qualified Instructors in the several Departments.

This Seminary ranks with the best institutions of our country. It affords the means of a thorough education in the essential and higher departments of learning; providing, at the same time, for all the artistic and ornamental branches.

The plan of the course is coextensive with that of colleges for young men, and the most thorough scholarship may be secured by all who pass regularly through the prescribed range of study.

Very superior facilities are afforded to young ladies who wish to pursue the higher branches of a collegiate education.

The French department is in charge of the most competent native teachers.

It is the aim of the instructors to quicken the mental powers—to create the love of study, so that the duties of the school-room, instead of a task, will be a pleasure.

The government is mild without weakness, and efficient without austerity. Its aim is to awaken self-respect in the mind of the pupil, and a sense of moral obligation that will secure the strictest propriety of conduct in the school-room, and in all the intercourse of the scholars with their instructors, and with each other.

Scholars from abroad are received into the family of the Principal, where they are surrounded by all the influences of a well-ordered Christian home. The locality is central, and unsurpassed in point of healthfulness, beauty, and convenience.

Circulars will be sent and additional information given on application, by letter or otherwise, to the Principal.

Letters may be directed to Box 1839, Post Office, Philadelphia.

MEDIA CLASSICAL INSTITUTE, MEDIA, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.,

ELEVEN miles from Philadelphia by Railroad. The location and surroundings for beauty cannot be surpassed. The buildings are new, and their arrangement is most complete, being planned expressly for educational purposes. The grounds, though within the Borough, are retired, secluded, and ample, covering several acres, and have an abundance of shrubbery and shade.

The Institute has been in successful operation for twenty-six years.

Of its numerous students, during that period, nearly sixty have become Ministers of the Gospel. Of these, three are now in India, two in China, and one in Africa.

Many have distinguished themselves in the Legal and Medical Professions, in the Professor's Chair, in the Halls of Congress, and in the various departments of business life. Two are now Presidents of Colleges.

The following extracts from a few of the numerous business letters, containing similar sentiments, will indicate the opinions of our patrons:—

The late Hon. JOHN M. CLAYTON, Ex-Secretary of State, &c., says :

"I cannot express all my thanks for your attention to my boys. They have learned, and now love to learn. Their fondness for, and attachment to you, are such as gives the best of guarantees for their future progress."

H. LATIMER, President of the Bank of Delaware, says :

"I have to express my thanks for your attention to my sons, and have only to regret that I have not placed them at your Institution long since."

ALFRED DUPONT, de Nemours, says :

"I thank you most cordially for your attention to my boys. Their progress in study is highly satisfactory."

REV. I. W. K. HANDY, Portsmouth, Va., says:—"I am much obliged to you and family for the attention and kindness manifested towards my son. I have had every confidence in yourself and son as instructors; I was glad to observe considerable improvement when Frederick was last at home. I hope I shall find that he has made as much progress during the session which has just closed."

REV. GEO. JUNKIN, D. D., whilst President of Lafayette College, after examination of several pupils from this Institute, for admission to an advanced class, having adverted to their "thoroughness," &c., says :

"From the superior quality of the specimen, we are prepared to endorse the lot. May the Good Shepherd watch over you and your valuable Institution."

THIS School has been in successful operation, under the same Principal, TWENTY YEARS. The plan of discipline resembles that of the Moravian School at Bethlehem, Pa. Protestant parents sometimes send their daughters to Roman Catholic Schools, thinking them more safe than others. But here is a Protestant School where the utmost vigilance and care are exercised in School and out, and safety is secured. The School is under Methodist Control, but the religious teachings inculcate the broad principles of Protestant Christianity, and are not sectarian. Various denominations have always patronized the School. The School Year begins on the FIRST MONDAY in September, and ends about the middle of June. Terms—$200 per year for BOARD and TUITION. FRENCH, MUSIC, DRAWING, &c., extra.

Female Seminary, Steubenville, Ohio,

REV. CHARLES C. BEATTY, D. D., SUPERINTENDENT

PROF. A. M. REID, A. M., PRINCIPAL,

HAS now been in successful operation, under the same superintendence, for more than thirty years. The School is well and favourably known. It was the design of its founders to establish an Institution, on Christian principles, whose aim would be to give not only thorough culture to the intellect, but the religion of Christ to the heart. They have been eminently successful. During its entire history the blessing of the Holy Spirit has rested upon it.

Steubenville is remarkable for the beauty and healthfulness of its situation; and is easy of access from every direction by the Ohio river, and Railroads.

TERMS:

For Session of five months, beginning May or November. Boarding, $60. Tuition, from $10 to $16. Music, Painting, and Modern Languages, extra.

The charges are as low as the nature of the accommodations afforded will admit. For particulars, apply to the Superintendent or Principal.

PRÉS DE LEBANON, TENNESSEE,

N. LAWRENCE LINDSLEY, A. M., PRÉSIDENT.

L'année scolaire est divisée en deux périodes, commençant respectivement les premiers lundis d'Octobre et de Mars. Les vacances embrassent les mois de Juillet, d'Août, et de Septembre.

Le propriétaire de Greenwood ne désirant pas patronner des familles qui n'accéderaient pas cordialement aux conditions d'admission, dirigera son institution sans prendre garde aux critiques suggérés souvent par le manque de capacités.

Le nombre des pensionnaires étant limité, il est nécessaire de demander à l'avance l'admission de nouvelles élèves.

Les parents trouveront à se loger à Lebanon, toutes les chambres, à Greenwood, étant destinées exclusivement aux jeunes demoiselles.

“ L'instruction, largement comprise, embrasse toutes les branches dont la connaissance est indispensable à une jeune personne bien élevée. Nous n'avons pas besoin d'ajouter que la partie morale et religieuse, base de toute éducation sérieuse, est l'objet de soins particuliers; c'est rendre service aux parents que de leur recommander un pareil établissement.” — Courrier des Etats-Unis.

IS A UNION OF INDIVIDUALS,
NOT OF CHURCHES OR DENOMINATIONS;
IT HAS TWO GRAND OBJECTS:

- 1st.—To plant a Sunday School wherever there is a destitute population.
- 2d.—To prepare and circulate moral and religious publications.

FACTS WORTH CONSIDERING.

- 1st.—Four Millions of Children in the United States are destitute of Religious Instruction.
 - 2d.—The American Sunday School Union is the only Religious Society having a direct mission to these children.
 - 3rd.—The Society has now more permanent missionaries in commission than at any one time in its previous history.
 - 4th.—Not a dollar contributed to the Society is devoted to any other purpose than the support of missionaries and the supplying of poor children with books.
 - 5th.—It has no collecting agents, but depends upon voluntary contributions for the support of its missionaries.
- The Book-department sustains itself on business principles, and in addition is enabled from its small profits to pay the salaries of the Secretaries of the Missionary Department.
- The Society does not make sufficient profit on its publications to create a revenue for its Missionary work. Contributions for this work are earnestly solicited.

A NEW BOOK EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.

THE AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION, in addition to the large number of books already on its Catalogues, being over TWELVE HUNDRED DISTINCT VOLUMES, will issue a New Book every Saturday Morning during the year.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES,

A Weekly Paper, for Parents and Teachers, which should be in the hands of every one interested in the extension of Christ's Kingdom, is published every Saturday Morning. One Dollar a year, with a deduction to Clubs.

THE YOUTH'S SUNDAY SCHOOL GAZETTE,

An elegantly Illustrated Monthly Paper, which should be in the hands of every Sunday School Scholar, is published on the 1st of each month. Where one hundred copies are taken, eight cents a year.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BANNER,

The cheapest Paper for Children ever published! Issued monthly, semi-monthly, three times a month, and weekly. In Monthly Form, and in Clubs of 100, at the unprecedented rate of five cents per Annum!

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SOCIETY.

- ✍ Manuscripts intended for publication in book-form, or letters relating in any way to the editorship of the books of the Society, should be addressed to FREDERICK A. PACKARD, Editor
- ✍ Communications intended for insertion in any of the periodicals, or relating in any way to their editorial management, should be addressed to JOHN S. HART, Editor
- ✍ Communications relating in any way to the Missionary Department, should be addressed to Rev. R. B. WESTBROOK, Sec'y of Missions.
or to Rev. J. H. BURTIS, Associate Sec'y
- ✍ Letters containing names of subscribers to the periodicals, orders for books, or relating to business, and all letters containing money, whether intended for the Missionary or the Business Department, should be addressed to WALDRON J. CHEYNEY, Treasurer

JOSEPH P. ENGLER, PUB. AGENT.

ARE PUBLISHING

LETTERS OF JOHN CALVIN,

COMPILED FROM THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS, AND EDITED WITH HISTORICAL NOTES.

BY DR. JULES BONNET.

Vols. 1, 2 and 3, now ready; Vol. 4 and last being translated. Price per Vol. $1.30. 8vo.

In these volumes the Board has given to the world the first translation into English of the numerous and valuable letters of the great Reformer.

This collection contains 600 of Calvin's Letters, and covers the period of his whole public career. The correspondence begins in his youth, May, 1528, and closes on his death-bed, May, 1564. Here are letters to humble pastors and also to powerful monarchs. Here the Reader is permitted to share his familiar communings with Luther, Melancthon, Knox, Coligny, Conde, Farel, Viret and Beza, and to admire the fidelity and paternal interest with which he addresses his counsels to the noble young Edward VI. of England.

They represent Calvin in a different light from that in which he is commonly viewed. The private correspondence of a public man, extending through 36 years of an eventful life, afford a safe criterion of his character, and these volumes show that Calvin was not that stern, severe, morose man which his Popish and Unitarian enemies would have the world believe he was. He was a man of a kind, genial, tender heart, yet uncompromising for the truth, and ready to risk everything for its defence.

It is a work which the whole family of Calvinists should have. In his correspondence Calvin exhibits himself, while the foot notes throw much light upon his biography and contemporary history.

AMONG THEIR LATE PUBLICATIONS ARE:

Marrow of Modern Divinity. Price 80 cts.

This old book, possesses not only intrinsic value, but historical interest. It consists of two parts, the first discussing "The Covenant of works and the Covenant of grace," and the second consisting of "An Exposition of the Ten Commandments." The notes, which are explanatory and quite ample, are by the Rev. Thomas Boston, author of "The Four-fold State." Appended to the volume is a historical account of the "marrow" controversy in connection with the Scottish General Assembly of 1720.

The work is clear and admirable in its combination of the practical with the doctrinal and expository. The discussion is carried on under the form of dialogue, and the dramatis personæ are Evangelista, a minister of the Gospel, Nomista, a legalist, Antinomista, an Antiochian, and Neophytus, a young Christian. An admirable opportunity is thus afforded of meeting in detail and in a conversational manner the details of objections to Evangelical views. The work is both able and instructive.

This book so attractive in its external appearance, is valuable for more than its superficial advantage of handsome binding, clear type and good paper. The hymns are free from mysticism and rationalistic vagaries; and they breathe a devout and evangelical spirit. The translators (among whom we find the name of Dr. James W. Alexander,) have endeavored to give the force and expressiveness of the original.

The Publications have been divided as follows, up to No. 556 on Catalogue:

THE CHURCH PSALMIST

Having been adopted by the General Assembly, the Committee have added to it a SUPPLEMENT, containing 129 Additional Hymns.

By this addition the value of the Church Psalmist has been greatly increased.

Whilst it would be folly to claim perfection for any such work, it may fairly be stated, as the opinion of men eminent not only for their ability to judge, but for the attention which they have given to the subject, that the Church Psalmist, as a Manual of Sacred Song for Public Worship, is unsurpassed as to its lyrical character, its selectness and freedom from all that is inappropriate or objectionable to a cultivated taste, its variety, and its adaptation to devotional purposes.

The addition of the Supplement, whilst it enhances the value of the book, is accompanied by NO INCREASE OF PRICES, which are as heretofore:

12mo, roan, embossed, do. do.	1 25
18mo, sheep.....	67
18mo, roan, embossed.....	75
32mo, sheep.....	56
32mo, roan, embossed.....	60
12mo, super Turkey, morocco, gilt.....	3 00
18mo, " " " ".....	2 50
32mo, " " " ".....	1 50

A copy of the 18mo Church Psalmist, with Supplement, will be mailed to any minister or Church Committee desiring to examine it with a view to introduction, on receipt of 39 cents in postage-stamps.

We do not insert the eulogiums of those who have used it. The issue of a fifty-fourth edition sufficiently attests its acceptableness to the Christian public.

THE ECLECTIC TUNE-BOOK.

A book for choirs. Prepared by order of the General Assembly, and embracing those tunes, from all authors, found by inquiry to be desired by the churches. Edited by Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury. Will be issued early in 1860.

THEOLOGICAL, RELIGIOUS AND SABBATH SCHOOL LIBRARIES FURNISHED.

CIRCULARS ADDRESSED

To the Dealers in any Business or Calling in the United States and Canadas.

Our plan is to direct envelopes, prospectuses, or circulars to the present buyers or dealers in any business or calling that may be desired; the envelopes or wrappers to be furnished by the parties ordering, who must also supply the stamps to pass them through the Post-Office.

We can supply parties anxious to push the sale of any particular article or new feature of their business, with lists of names of all persons likely to buy their commodity, or we can furnish INVENTORS and PATENTEES with special lists of choice names of concerns all through the United States, Canadas, Cuba, and South America, to whom they should make known the advantages of any new contrivance or adaptation they may be possessed of.

We can, if preferred, make special lists in book-form of all persons engaged in any business or pursuit which would be found valuable for private reference.

We are in daily receipt of fresh lists of trades and professions from all parts of the United States, in addition to last years reports. Merchants or Newspaper Offices supplied with good Penmen, by the day or week.

Circulars or Prospectuses delivered in the city by reliable men.

We employ an experienced Book-keeper, accustomed to Bank and Commission accounts, to superintend the winding up of disarranged and complicated accounts and making balances, for concerns in need of such services.

This system forms what has long been wanted—a new Directory for Merchants.

In our ample register will be found the names of all persons engaged in the following pursuits, arranged in order of states :

Boot and Shoe Dealers,	Brush Dealers,	Tailors,
Stationers,	Cotton & Woolen Manufacturers,	Tobaccoconists,
Booksellers,	Importers,	Liquors,
Druggists,	Saddlers,	Hatters,

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

DYSPEPSIA.

The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these antiseptic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what hideous shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES, AND ULCERS.

Cases of many years standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

BILIOUS DISORDERS.

The proper quantum and right condition of the bile is of momentous importance to the health of the human frame, this ANTI-BILIOUS medicine expels the hidden seeds of the complaint, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, cleansing and resuscitating the vital functions of the body.

PILES AND FISTULA.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London" are discernible as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactories of Professor Holloway, 80 MAIDEN LANE, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 63 cents, and $1 each.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA,

IS a saturated extract from the freshly expressed juices of the vegetable alteratives that compose it, combined with salifiable bases of great alterative power. The process of its manufacture is such as to secure perfect uniformity of strength, and it is as rich in the virtues that compose it, as it can be made. Its composition has been determined by long-continued and careful experiment with remedial agents, upon the worst cases which we could find, requiring an alterative cure. In order to determine what combination, and of what medicines, is most effectual for the cure of scrofulous complaints, we have advertised for such patients, to be treated without charge, and have cured great numbers afflicted with the worst forms of scrofula, and scrofulous diseases. Not a few who had given themselves up as incurable are now abroad in perfect health, visible and indisputable evidence of what this remedy has done. As the result of these experiments we offer this remedy to the people, with confidence that it will prove more effectual than any which has hitherto been available to them.

What has been the effect of our remedy upon them, may be seen in the following description of their cases:—

Moses W. Chandler, of this city, (Lowell,) had been afflicted for eighteen months with a running sore on his hip, which was discharging foul and offensive matter. It had reduced his strength and general health so low that he was unable to work, and all the ordinary remedies employed in such cases had failed to afford him relief. When he commenced taking our SARSAPARILLA the quantity of discharges from the ulcer was increased by the medicine; but in a few days it began to diminish, in three weeks it had ceased, and in five weeks the sore had healed, and he was ready for work again.

Mrs. Jane E. Hopkins, of Cambridge, (Mass.,) had suffered from two ulcers on the neck for a long time. They were very troublesome, and often discharged freely. Besides the two ulcers that were open, she had a swelling on one of the glands of the neck which promised soon to open also. She applied here for medical aid, and we gave her our Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and also had her rub a very mild ointment of Iodine on the swollen gland. The whole difficulty disappeared in a few weeks, and she felt such manifest improvement of her general health as to show that the disease had been eradicated from the system.

Miss Emma B. Aldrich, of this city, (Lowell,) had a hacking cough, which, in connection with the prominent symptoms of a scrofulous constitution, indicated but too plainly a tuberculous deposit in the lungs. The indications of tuberculous consumption were painfully distinct in her case when she applied to us.

Mild doses of CHERRY PECTORAL palliated her symptoms; while our SARSAPARILLA, taken steadily a few weeks, eradicated the deep-seated disorder from the system. In a little less than two months she had recovered her health, and resumed her occupation.

Jacob Frederick Sigmann, of Detroit, Mich., received a scratch on the leg while at work on the new Custom House of that city, in July, 1857. It soon became a very painful running sore, affecting the entire leg and the bone. For seventeen months he was disabled from work, and could only walk with great difficulty by the aid of a crutch. His constitutional strength was constantly declining under the exhaustion of this scrofulous sore, until he became very feeble. He tried our Sarsaparilla, and here is what he says: "Before I had taken the third bottle, I threw away my crutch, and am now a well man. I wish this statement printed, that others may profit by my joyful experience."

The truth of this statement is certified by J. S. Farrand, Esq., a well-known and widely-esteemed merchant of Detroit, who adds: "Mr. Sigmann is enthusiastic beyond all bounds, as he has cause to be, in his praise of your Sarsaparilla."

Cavillers may see, if they will, that pay is not all the reward we get for supplying to the people remedies that cure, nor is it by any means the chiefest. The gratitude of those relieved from suffering often brings us more satisfaction than their money can give.

The world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of Sarsaparilla, partly because the drug itself has not all the virtue which wanton assumption has claimed for it, but far more, because many compounds, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla or anything else. During late years the public have been misled by large bottles pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever.

Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market. Still we call this compound SARSAPARILLA, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We know by its composition and by its effects that we furnish an effectual remedy.

Patients seeking for the cure, by this compound, of formidable complaints, should avail themselves as much as possible of all advantageous change in either climate, place, habit of living, or diet, as all these conduce, more or less, to the healthy action which it is sought to restore. Consequently, any aid which can serve to assist in a cure, should not be overlooked.

Annexed are some of the diseases this excellent remedy has been found to cure :

Scrofula, Tumors,	Tetter or Salt Rheum,
Ulcers, Sores,	Scald Head,
Skin Diseases,	Ring Worm,
Eruptions, Pimples,	Liver Complaints,
Pustules, Blotches,	Enlargement of the Bones,
Boils, Bronchocele,	Diseases of the Heart,
Goitre or Swelled Neck,	Schirrus or Cancer,
St. Anthony's Fire,	Female Diseases, Fits,
Rose or Erysipelas,	Dyspepsia, Dropsy.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this Extract of Sarsaparilla. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring to expel the humors which rankle in the system at that season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use, multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the machinery of life is disordered or overthrown. Medicines designed like this for public use, should be the very best that it is possible to produce. As it has been the labor of our life to make such remedies, and as these are all we have ever offered, the public can judge something of the amount of toil they have cost. Our ambition has been to make each one more perfect, more valuable, more effectual than its predecessor, and the indications from this sufficiently show that its virtues will sustain any expectations which our preparations already before them may lead the public to form of it.

The rationale of its operations is, that it expurges from the system the foul distemper which breeds and festers in it; penetrating into every part and organ of the body, it expels the virus of disease that inhabits them. As commonly expressed, it purifies the blood, purging out the rot and corruption that scrofula breeds in this central pabulum of life. Purifying, it renovates the blood, giving it a renewed vitality and force as of youth again. Hence persons cured by it will feel younger and stronger, as well as freer from the infirmities of age. It changes the action of the system; its power is alterative, i. e., to change from diseased to healthy action. Instilling fresh vigor into the vital forces, it gives them renovated strength, while weakness is but disorder and decay. Weakness is poverty of vital power, which, continuing to increase, must inevitably end in dissolution of the body, and much of the feebleness so prevalent all around us among our people is attributable to the lurking contamination of Scrofula.

Being composed of vegetable products only, this remedy is harmless as well as effectual—a fact of immense importance to those who take it, for many of the alteratives in market have mercury or arsenic as their basis; and thus, although they may sometimes effect cures, still they entail a countless train of evils upon their victims, often worse than the original disease.

It is believed such a medicine as this is wanted in the community, and is sure to prove of priceless value to the vast number in this country who suffer from strumous diseases. It is surely the best which our skill, with the study of years, can devise; and we shall spare no pains or cost to make it the most perfect and effectual remedy within our ability to produce for the prevention and cure of the everywhere prevailing distempers that require an alterative medicine.

Price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles in one package for $5. Although smaller than some others, it is so much stronger as to be actually the cheapest as well as best preparation of Sarsaparilla ever offered to the American people.

PUGH MADEIRA'S EAR INSTRUMENT DEPOT,

No. 115 South Tenth St., below Chesnut. Philad'a.

Also, Surgical Instruments, Syringes, Trusses, Razors, Knives, Scissors, &c.

INTERESTING TO THE DEAF.—For the benefit of our readers who may be afflicted with a partial loss of hearing, we publish the following extract from the pen of an eminent divine of our city. Speaking of the loss of sight and hearing, the two most important senses, he says: "When men find their eyesight failing, they then resort at once to the optician and supply themselves with artificial helps to vision—they are not willing to grope their way in darkness, when science supplies them with the means of seeing clearly. Now it seems strange indeed to us, that this promptitude to remedy the defects of failing vision is not witnessed when the ear is implicated and man's hearing is impaired!

Deaf men, it is generally observed, are more sad than blind men; and yet, the deaf man can remedy his defect, in nine cases out of ten, with scarcely more cost, and certainly not more discomfort, than the feeble-sighted. Why, then, does he sit in silence, when he would not sit in darkness? We asked this question to-day while looking over the various ear instruments provided by modern science to assist the hearing, and read in the book of Mr. Pugh Madeira, (No. 115 South Tenth street,) the numerous testimonials voluntarily recorded there, of those who bore grateful testimony, from their own experience, that science had succeeded in her task, and supplied the muffled ear with an instrument that opens its obstructed passages to the incomings of sweet sounds and articulate enunciations. Let all affected with deafness try the instruments thus offered them, and we feel confident that one of the many scientific instruments in the possession of Mr. Madeira will afford relief.

THE INAUGURAL EXERCISES
OF THE
PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
OF THE NORTH-WEST.

By order of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, the Seminary was inaugurated at Chicago, Illinois; on which occasion—

REV. S. T. WILSON, President of the Board of Directors, delivered the charge to the Professors.

REV. N. L. RICE, D. D., Professor of Polemic and Didactic Theology,
REV. WILLIS LORD, D. D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History,
REV. LEROY J. HALSEY, D. D., Prof. of Historical and Pastoral Theology,
REV. WM. M. SCOTT, D. D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, delivered their Inaugural Addresses, which contain an outline of the course of studies the Professors contemplate teaching, and consequently the work has an additional value as a brief outline of Theology, as taught in this Seminary.

The action of the General Assembly is also given, together with the Resolution passed on receiving from CYRUS HALL McCORMICK, Esq., the funds to endow the Professorships.

At the solicitation of many friends, and in obedience to my own convictions of what would prove acceptable, I have had engraved for this work fine PORTRAITS of

REV. N. L. RICE, D. D:
REV. WILLIS LORD, D. D.
REV. LEROY J. HALSEY, D. D.
REV. WM. M. SCOTT, D. D. and CYRUS H. McCORMICK, ESQ.
